Editor Record and Guide:

Our attention having been called to a letter from Isaac A. Hopper & Son in your issue of Oct. 26th, we beg to say that Messrs. Hopper's statements are all untrue, except that we filed a lien against the R. C. Orphan Asylum and them. Our claim is for lime, etc., furnished to the R. C. Orphan Asylum on instructions received from Hopper & Son. We never took a note from Mertz & Gibb, and consequently could not, as Hopper & Son allege, claim that such a note was unpaid. Our action is taken against Hopper & Son for a debt justly due by them, and not as they say, because of our knowledge of their regard for their good name.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given and the amount. The general dates used as head lines are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date.

ASSIGNMENTS OF CHATTEL MORTGAGES.

Roth, E to A Riedmann. (G Flechtner, Oct 1.) 100

To the Editor of the Record and Guide:

In your issue of 12th inst. appeared record of chattel mortgage on Gas Fixtures filed against me by Staines, Peck & Taber Co. for $5,500. This was a grievous error on the part of your reporter and has caused me serious embarrassment in my business. The facts are that I bought conditionally for $55 an electric lamp, &c, to be placed in front of my store, paid $25 on account, and agreed to pay the balance when the light proved to work all right. Trusting you will publish this correction, I am yours truly,

Vol. LXVIII. NOVEMBER 9, 1901. No. 1756.

FOR the first time for months there was good commission buying in the stock market this week. There is a decided preference for railroad issues, both bonds and stocks, but there is also some demand for promising Industrials. The buying of railroad securities is encouraged by the continued increase of earnings reported by all but a comparatively few properties. The increases are not as large as they were last year, and the decreases, although individually small, are more numerous; but seeing that they the increases are piled upon increases, it is no wonder that they invite capital into the railroad investment field and create besides the best impression of the general business situation, of which after all the railroad reports are the best gauge. It is evident, too, that an agreement has been reached among the handfull of men who really dominate the railroad world which cannot be without good influence on prices. Another feature of the situation which cannot be overlooked is the positively gorged condition of the iron and steel industry, which appears to be only restricted in its activity by the ability of the railroads to carry away its products. This ought to react favorably on iron and steel stocks, and doubtless will do so. There is apparently ahead of us another speculative movement of considerable proportions in which money may be made by the prudent and sprightly. Whether this movement is justified by the probabilities of a future not exactly near nor yet far we are not saying. While our affairs are thus moving so satisfactorily, from Europe comes the old lugubrious complaint of dulness and want coupled with a precarious money market that must check all development until the close of this year at least, and which may prolong its obstructive influence into the next.

IN the view of the property owner one of the most important appointments the new Mayor will have to make is the Tenement House Commissioner. The charter under which this appointment is to be made requires no technical qualifications in the appointee, and the Mayor therefore has free and unrestricted choice. Yet the gentleman selected for this office ought to be a man of administrative experience and capacity, because he has to create and put into running order a new department; he ought also to have practical knowledge of tenement-house construction, and of the economic conditions pertaining to the housing of two-thirds of the city's population and a much larger proportion of its poor. Of all things he should not—the negative qualification is perhaps more to be insisted upon than the positive ones—be a man of extreme views. A dispassionate, unprejudiced, capable man will be able to avert much of the litigation and friction that is obviously impending between many of the property owners and the city over the provisions of the tenement-house law applicable to old tenements, while so directing his department that the dwellers in the tenements shall be benefited and property interests and consequently the public revenue protected.

HOW much longer is Commissioner Shea's report on the Manhattan approach to the New East River Bridge to be delayed? The Commissioner ought really to consider the anxiety all the Bowery, Grand, Broome and Delancey street property owners have been in since last summer, when the various suggested lines of approach were referred to him for report by the Board of Public Improvements. A couple of weeks ago word went out that his report was to be presented at the very next meeting of the Board, but although the meeting took place there was no report. For some reason or other the Commissioner reconsidered his determination and extended the public suspense. It is taken for granted that the present administration will decide this matter before their term is up, and all sorts of rumors are going the rounds as to what their choice will be. It is generally believed that, if the direct westward approach along Delancey street is adopted, it will end at the Bowery, and so be shorn of its Spring street end; and it has even been asserted lately that it has been decided in official circles to abandon the Delancey street plan and make the approach along Broome street. If the latter is their decision the authorities may expect a storm of protests and opposition that they will find it hard to meet, because not only would such an approach be in itself inadequate, but it could not give the bridge traffic the various lines of dispersion that it will require.

The Fusion Victory and After?

FOR the second time in the history of the city the people of New York have reached an unequivocal decision that they want an administration of their municipal affairs on non-partisan lines and for reform purposes. This decision was undoubtedly the proper decision to have reached under the circumstances, because an administration on partisan lines, and for "organization" purposes, had proved to be a distressing failure. Tammany made a distressing failure, not because its administration lacked men of ability, not because its positive and constructive policy was ill-conceived, but because its appointees owed fealty to the organization first, and to the public interests only in a secondary degree; and the business of no municipality can be efficiently and economically conducted on the basis of such a divided allegiance. The reform administration will start unhampered by any similar temptation to prefer the interests of a faction to the interests of the city. It will start, moreover, with the support of almost every important metropolitan newspaper and with that of the majority of its intelligent inhabitants. And, finally, if it proves to be any kind of a success, it will possess a good chance of keeping its control of the public offices, for under normal conditions a majority of the inhabitants of the greater city are apparently opposed to Tammany.

What must the reform administration do and avoid doing to be a success? This is a question which the example of the late Mayor Strong's administration affords some assistance in answering; and the answer in general is that it must not apply its reform ideas in a pedantic and rigorous spirit, but whenever it takes any corrective measures, it must see they have for their basis some end that is positive, constructive and stimulating—at once to the material and social interests of the greater city. If it adopts a policy of mere interference, of an inflexible determination to put the narrowest and most illiberal construction of existing laws, it will exasperate large and important sections of the city's population, injure business, and arouse antagonisms that will accrue only to the benefit of Tammany Hall. Of course a reform administration must attempt a reform; it must apply the standards contained in its platform both to the Police Department and to all the other departments in the city; but it must not apply them as they were applied to the saloons and to the Building Department six years ago. The new city officials must work with and not against the commercial and business interests with which they come into contact, for if they do not they will justify the Tammany election cry about the dangers which threaten personal liberty under a reform rule. The reform administration must not turn the city into a reformatory.

Take, for instance, the case of the Building Department and the building law. Everyone in the trade knows that there are abuses to be corrected in the way the building laws are at present executed, and no one not directly interested will object to the reform of these abuses; but the application of a statute that necessarily leaves so much to the discretion of the officers who execute it is an extremely difficult matter, requiring a combination of firmness and flexibility, of tact and determination, of absolute honesty and skilled technical knowledge, which will be difficult to find. The execution of the law touches one of the most important trades of the city at a thousand tender spots, and might, without anything worse than a very illiberal construction of its provisions, cause builders and architects an amount of loss which would not only exasperate them but which might seriously diminish the sum total of building operations. The Building Department has, no one will deny, certain police functions, and these police functions must occasionally be administered in a way that will make enemies; but at bottom the head of the department is not a chief of constructional police. He has to deal not with a set of law-breakers, but with the heads of important industry, which spends more than a hundred million dollars a year, and employs thousands of skilled laborers. His office must not be run, as it was under the former reform administration, in a way that will make these builders the determined enemies of anything that smells of reform, but in a spirit that will promote good feeling wherever possible, and which will secure the department the support of the trade. And this can be done without any connivance at law-breaking, in virtue of the discretionary powers that are invested in the head of the department. We are aware, of course, that the head of this department is appointed by the President of the Borough, an official independent of the Mayor; but Mr. Cantor was elected on the reform ticket, and the reform movement must share the odium of any failure on his part as it would the benefits of a success.

It is the same with two other departments, the administration of which will vitally affect builders and property owners. We refer, of course, to the Health Department and the new Tenement House department. It is particularly in relation to the tenement houses that the reform administration may get into trouble. We believe that everybody connected with the building trades recognizes that certain fundamental provisions of the tenement house legislation passed last April have come to stay, and while they do not like these provisions, they are prepared to accept them. But they believe that the law is unnecessarily oppressive in some details, and that it can be modified without any noticeable lowering of the new standard of tenement house construction. In particular they want more discretion in certain details given to the head of the Building Department, so that in exceptional cases, the like of which the Record and Guide has frequently given instances of late, the proper exceptions can be made. Here, again, the builder and property owner must not be treated as law-breakers, but as citizens with important rights and interests, which cannot be lightly set aside. If their rights and interests are set aside the reform administration will simply have gone out of its way to make a number of powerful enemies. The tenement house law has already had the effect of putting a stop, for the time being at least, to the building of any except model tenements and any except fire-proof apartments. So far this has not made much difference, because a great deal of building is being done in other lines, but if it continues it will make a serious difference to building interests and throw many laborers out of employment. About the worst thing that could happen to a reform administration would be a repetition of a former impression that it was bad for business.

Finally, the heads of the new administration must remember that the tax-payer has had all the burden thrust upon him that he can possibly bear, and that any increase of that burden would be a heavy handicap to the administration that sanctioned it. This is perhaps the most difficult problem that the new Board of Estimate will have to face. On the one hand public improvements now under way must be generously provided for and vigorously pushed. There should be no relaxation of work in building tunnels, bridges, schools and docks. On the contrary, there should be, if possible, more money appropriated for those purposes; and local improvements should be, and under the new charter probably will be, freely authorized. But this must be done, as we have said, without any increase of burden to the tax-payer. Obviously the only method whereby better results can be obtained with less expenditure of money is by a reform in departmental expenditures which will prevent the various municipal services costing much more money in New York than they do in any other American city. The least that can be done in this respect is a proper classification of salaries, which will establish definite grades and will do away with the present excessive remuneration in many cases. If any legislation is necessary for this purpose it can be obtained from a Legislature under the control of Governor Odell. There can be no doubt that in this matter the new administration has a chance of materially improving the financial system of the city and establishing a standard, both of remuneration and work in the departments, which no subsequent administration can to any considerable extent debase.

Finally, it should be thoroughly understood that the great purpose of the new administration—of any far-seeing administration—should be that of consolidating and unifying the heterogeneous elements and widely separated localities of the Greater New York. The city has been consolidated politically to the immense advantage, as the present election shows, of its political life; but it needs also consolidation in many other directions. It needs the economic consolidation which can be alone effected by a complete system of inter-borough communication; it needs the social consolidation which can be alone effected, as the Citizens' Union is trying to effect it, by increased communication between the well and the ill educated people; it needs that consolidation of intelligence which can alone be brought about by the increased application of wholesome and relevant ideas to public affairs. The trouble in the past has always been that these consolidating agencies were feeble, and that the factional, separatist agencies of "organizations" and "classes" were strong. But a non-partisan government means, if it means anything positive, a government in the interest of the whole of the people, and can exist only when the people are made "whole" by the unifying agencies of which we have spoken above. A reform government has every advantage for this work and every interest in its achievement, because, being non-partisan, it can use its influence in favor of such consolidating and constructive agencies much better than can any government that represents merely a faction or organization. Mr. Shepard was right in standing out for a constructive policy, but he failed to see that a genuinely constructive policy—a policy socially as well as economically constructive—can be realized only by an administration that represents all classes in the community, and depends, not chiefly upon "organization," but on a vigorous, vigilant, well-informed and vital public opinion.

The Decline in the Construction of Dwellings in Manhattan.

THE precise status of dwellings in the real estate market at the present time is somewhat peculiar. On the one hand it is a well-known fact that for at least four years the number of private dwellings erected in Manhattan has been comparatively small, and is particularly small in those regions to the west and the north of Central Park, which for a decade or more had been the most important field for speculative operations in this class of property. On the other hand it is remarkable that both during last spring and during the present fall a pretty fair demand has existed for individual residences on the part of people who propose to occupy them—a demand which has included both the very expensive residences along the line of 5th avenue and less expensive ones in other parts of the city. This is a situation which rarely occurs in New York City, where speculators are keen to anticipate any demand on the part of buyers; and the matter is of such considerable interest that we present herewith a table of the number of dwellings, and their estimated cost, projected from 1889 until the present time. The table is as follows; the figures for this year including only ten months:

	No. Dwgs.	Estimated cost.	Average per dwg.
1901, Jan.-Oct.	97	$5,792,000	$59,700
1900	112	3,928,000	35,000
1899	338	8,329,700	24,600
1898	339	6,182,800	18,200
1897	492	7,492,100	15,200
1896	410	5,527,950	13,400
1895	515	8,799,750	17,000
1894	494	8,606,160	17,200
1893	511	9,516,750	19,000
1892	710	12,625,500	17,500
1891	661	11,225,500	16,900
1890	835	12,663,000	15,100
1889	759	12,733,000	16,700

It will be seen from this table that the number of dwellings projected each year has pretty steadily decreased from 1889 until 1901. It was at its highest in 1890 when plans were filed for 835 dwellings to be erected at a cost of $12,663,000. It has reached its lowest point, so far as the number is concerned during the ten months of 1901, in which plans for only 97 dwellings were recorded at the building department. These 97 dwellings, however, are being erected at an estimated cost of $5,792,000, against the $3,928,000, which 113 dwellings were estimated to cost in 1900. The decrease has been most marked since 1897, but in 1893 there was a considerable drop which has not since been made up; and the same is true of the years 1898 and 1900. The decrease has been much more marked in the number of dwellings than in their estimated cost; and the consequence is that the average cost per dwelling has surprisingly increased. In 1889 it was $16,700. From that year until 1899 it did not vary more than about $3,000 on either side of the above figure, the high water mark being $19,000 in 1893, and the low water mark $13,400 in 1896. In 1899 the average started to increase very rapidly. During that year it jumped up to $24,600; during 1900 it became $35,000; and during the first ten months of the present year it has reached the extraordinary figure of $59,700.

The meaning of these figures can be quickly stated. The variations between 1889 and 1898 were relatively unimportant. On the whole there had been a tendency for the number of dwellings erected to decrease, and this tendency was undoubtedly due to the gradually increasing cost of land available for this kind of improvement; but the tendency was not, so far as the whole of the city was concerned, a very marked one. While it was, as we shall see presently, a very marked tendency so far as the West Side was concerned, the same was not the case in the other residential parts of the city. It was in 1898-9, when the new type of seven-story elevator apartment house began to be built on the West Side that a decided decrease began to be observed in the number of residences erected all over the city—excepting only the line of 5th avenue. These new apartment houses in the accommodations they offered, not only competed more effectually with private dwellings than ever before; but they tended to increase the value of unimproved property, and so narrow the field of speculative operations in residences. The builders of dwellings found it difficult to sell those which they erected; and the consequence is that the speculative construction of residences to the north and west of the Park almost entirely ceased. Not so, however, on the East Side. Just about the same time business prosperity largely augmented the demand for expensive dwellings, so that while the building of inexpensive ones almost entirely ceased, there was a livelier demand than ever before for the costliest grade of private dwellings. Hence the remarkable fact that in three years, the average cost of the private dwellings erected in New York City increased nearly three times. At the present time, while speculative builders are, if anything, over-supplying the market for very expensive residences, the supply of less expensive ones has fallen behind the demand; and probably during the coming spring, even under the existing adverse conditions, there will be a renewed building of a cheaper grade of residences. For according to the present outlook, all classes of real estate will be in good demand for use —if not for investment.

In order to exhibit the local phases of this downward movement in residence construction, we present also, the following table showing the number of dwellings for which plans were filed both on the East and the West Sides during the same period. The East Side, it should be added, means between 59th and 125th streets, east of 5th avenue, and the West Side, west of 8th avenue, between the same streets:

101	1,502,000	14,700		420	8,372,000	19,800

This local table corroborates the interpretation, which we put upon the table for the whole city. From 1889 until 1892, inclusive, there were projected for the West Side every year from 420 to 470 private dwellings, which were estimated to cost somewhere near $8,000,000—an average of a little more or less than $18,000 a dwelling. Had the table began as far back as 1884, this average cost per dwelling would undoubtedly have been much less—probably not more than $10,000 or $12,000 per residence. But by 1889, a relatively expensive dwelling was already being erected on the West Side; and the theatre for cheaper $10,000 operations was shifted to the district immediately north of the Park and that north of 125th street. For the years 1893-4-5 there were only about 230 dwellings planned each year on the West Side, at a cost of about $5,000,000. During the last year the average cost of these residences jumped to nearly $25,000; but the increase was only temporary, and this average cost did not reach the same level again until 1899. In the meantime, however, the total estimated cost had decreased to only a little over $2,500,000 a year. More recently even these small figures have been lessened, and the culmination was reached during the first ten months of the current year, when plans for only 28 dwellings, estimated to cost $932,000, have been filed. It is to be remarked, however, the average cost of these 28 dwellings was $33,200, the highest ever known on the West Side. On the other hand more money is now being spent in dwellings on the East Side than ever before. In 1889 the average cost per dwelling erected on the East Side was less than it was during the same year on the West Side—amounting only to $14,700. This average cost, however, rapidly increased until 1894, when it reached almost $36,000. It was during these years that comparatively large numbers of very expensive residences were built to the east of the Park. After 1894 there was a relapse for several years, during which the total cost of dwellings projected in that region amounted only to a little over $100,000. The revival came in 1898, when the estimated cost increased to $1,355,300 and the average cost to nearly $40,000. But all records have been broken during the present year, during which, although only 36 dwellings have been planned, their estimated cost has reached more than $3,000,000, and the average cost the extraordinary total of $91,700.

OUR foreign trade reports reveal the repetition on this side of the Atlantic of a phenomenon that marked the culmination of the late boom on the other—a falling off of exports and the increase of imports of manufactures of iron and steel. A strike in the British iron trade gave our manufacturers an opportunity, of which they with most creditable promptitude availed themselves, to take a good many contracts that would otherwise have stayed at home; this opportunity was extended when the pressure of accumulated orders congested the British works. In like manner the strike ordered by the Amalgamated Association last summer was the opportunity of foreign iron and steel manufacturers to place some of their goods here, and they are, according to trade reports, industriously canvassing this market in the further hope that the congestion of our iron works and the consequent maintenance of prices will give them an opportunity of disposing of their surplus stocks and keeping their mills going. In pushing his goods here the foreign manufacturer is now assisted by reduced wages and low freights. In September our exports of all iron, steel and machinery were about $7,500,000, $2,500,000 or 25 per cent. less than in the same month of last year. Our imports of iron and steel were valued $1,847,384, or 10 per cent. more than in September, 1900. We may take it that the very large domestic demand for iron and steel manufactures, and the consequent rush at the mills which is one of the most gratifying features of the business situation, is lessening the ability of the mills to manufacture for export and increasing the temptation or necessity of consumers to buy of British, German and other makers who can compete with the native in deliveries and prices. A similar condition of affairs has at other times been the beginning of that over-supply that breaks prices and puts a term to activity at the mills, and it will be interesting to see whether precedent is now to be followed or broken. Unless we have a reserve demand that no one yet knows of we are witnessing the final steps in that wave of industrial activity that has borne the country along so triumphantly since the passing of the meagre days which perioded the silver agitation. The parsimony and self-denial of those times were forming a demand for all kinds of goods whose proportions since revealed have surprised everyone. There is no likelihood that our people will again have to carry economy to such an extent as was then thought to be necessary, and industry will hereafter always have the benefit of the natural growth of a rapidly increasing people's requirements; but it can hardly be that there is still another reserve of demand such as that that was loosened by the political events of five years ago.

RECORD AND GUIDE, 14 Vesey St.

The Real Estate Situation

Certainly the most interesting news which has been divulged since our last issue are the details of the sale to Charles W. Morse by W. K. Aston of the buildings at Nos. 41 and 43 Wall street and Nos. 45 and 47 Exchange place, and its interest consists both in the price which apparently has been obtained and the character of the improvement which will ensue. Mr. Aston originally purchased the Wall street parcel, containing 4,259 square feet, in 1896 for $805,000, which figured out the very unusual price of $189 a square foot; but it was naturally assumed that since the plot was improved with a ten-story building, that building cut an important figure in the amount of the purchase money. Mr. Aston later sold the Wall street parcel, together with that on Exchange place in the rear, and still more recently took it back as mortgagee for $1,123,000. According to the record, he has obtained from Mr. Morse $135,000 over the mortgage of $1,065,000, a total of $1,200,000.

At this basis it is to be supposed that the Wall street parcel figured in the purchase price at rather more than $200 a square foot instead of $160 a square foot, as was stated in the daily papers. This is very much the highest price ever paid for a parcel of that size on Wall street, particularly as it has a frontage of only 30.6 on the street. M. Wilkes and Anthony Drexel have paid prices ranging from $280 to $348.67 a square foot for Wall street parcels, but these parcels did not contain in any case as much as 1,070 square feet, and two of them were corners. When Mr. Aston originally purchased Nos. 41-43 Wall street at $189 a square foot it was naturally supposed that he was buying a building as much as a piece of land; but now that the building is to come down the price obtained is the price of unimproved property, and is an indication of the influence of the erection of twenty-story buildings upon the value of land well situated in the financial district. This is the first instance in which it has been found profitable to tear down and throw away a ten-story building. The Boreel Building, which is to come down in the spring, is only an eight-story building; and the Cumberland, which came down last spring, was only nine stories high. Of course in the case of Nos. 41-43 Wall street the operation of pulling the building down is profitable only because other and cheaper property enters into the transaction. The Wall street parcel and that on Exchange place contain together 9,000 square feet, while the present site of the Bank of the State of New York contains an additional 4,670 square feet. As Mr. Morse controls the Bank of the State of New York it will all be practically one operation, and one of the biggest of its kind, for the area of the combined plot will be about 13,600 square feet. As a matter of comparison it is interesting to note that the Broad Exchange building is erected on a plot containing 26,661 square feet, and the Bowling Green Building on a plot containing 29,152 square feet. The Bank of the State of New York has already filed plans for a 21-story building to be erected on the corner of William street and Exchange place.

Another very interesting announcement which has been made since the date of our last issue is the proposed erection by the Alfred Corning Clark estate of eighteen 25-foot private dwellings on the south side of 74th street, between Central Park West and Columbus avenue. These dwellings, it is stated, are not to be sold, but are to be held by the estate for rental. This is one of the largest operations in dwelling houses on the west side which has taken place in recent years, and is doubtless prompted by the good demand for this class of accommodation all over the city. As will be seen from a table published in another column, there were filed throughout the whole of the west side during the first ten months of this year plans for only twenty-eight dwellings to be built at an estimated cost of $932,000, so that the projected operation will increase the amount of work at present progressing on the west side in that class of property by fully two-thirds. All this work is of a very expensive character. The average estimated cost of the twenty-eight dwellings now under way is about $33,000, and it is improbable that the eighteen additional ones projected by the Clark estate will do much to diminish this average. The announcement is also interesting in another respect, in that it affords a good instance of the way the neighborhood of 72d street is holding its own. Within a few blocks north or south of 72d street there have recently been erected three large and handsome fire-proof apartment houses, while on the street itself an apartment hotel is now being built and several expensive dwellings have recently been finished. Hence it would seem that in spite of the strong tendency for the concentration of such kinds of improvement in the central parts of the city and on the east side, the most attractive part of the west side not only holds its own, but is getting its full share of the picked improvements.

More Dwellings for the West Side.

The election has naturally interfered somewhat with business during the past week, but it has not interfered as much as might have been supposed. A good deal of steady buying is going on along the lines, and for the purposes frequently described of late in the Record and Guide. There are scattering sales of unimproved property on Washington Heights and elsewhere, and a prospect offered by these sales that there will be a certain but a very moderate amount of speculative building on the West Side in the spring. It is south of 59th street, however, that the most important transactions are taking place, and those which are really important are apparently the direct result of good business. Henry Siegel, for instance, has purchased 165 feet on the north side of 19th street, immediately west of the old Simpson, Crawford & Simpson building on the northwest corner of Sixth avenue and that street. This acquisition will give that store under its new management 418 feet on 19th street as well as the whole Sixth avenue frontage, which will constitute one of the largest and most available sites occupied by any department store in the city. Doubtless as soon as possible after the new building on the corner of 20th street and Sixth avenue is ready for use, as it shortly will be, an extension to that new building similar in design will be erected on the 19th street corner and on the property now acquired. It is interesting to note how the standard set by Seigel, Cooper & Co. years ago in their building between 18th and 19th streets has gradually compelled almost every large department store in the city to follow their example and give their customers the advantage of good air and light and abundant space. Fifth avenue also comes in for a number of important sales. For one thing Henry C. Lytton, a Chicago drygoods merchant who has for some time participated in speculative and building loan operations in this city, has purchased the building now occupied by Hecker's restaurant on the northwest corner of Fifth avenue and 22d street, a purchase which is likely to result, directly or indirectly in some kind of an improvement. The New York Realty Corporation have purchased the two Fifth avenue lots, of the former Stewart property, which will be improved with a 12-story building. Finally the purchase by Jeremiah T. Lyons of the derelict Madison Avenue Hotel property is one among a number of transactions in the neighborhood of Fifth avenue and 59th street which will promise to make it one of the busiest and handsomest corners in the city.

A Drygood's Building Extension.

19th st, Nos. 121 to 135 West; Henry Siegel has purchased about 165 feet front on this street and will build a 6-sty addition to the store recently purchased from William Crawford. The buildings just purchased are each 20.5x92; Nos. 121 and 123 were bought from Mary A. Sexton, No. 125 from John Meyer, No. 127 from John McCann, Nos. 129 and 131 from E. Johnson, No. 133 from Hannah Brooks, and No. 135 from Charles W. B. Fisher. Nos. 137 and 139 have not yet been, but will very likely be included in the deal. No. 137 is owned by Mary Marrin and No. 139 by Charles W. B. Fisher, the seller of No. 135. The prices paid for the various parcels run from $25,000 to $35,000 each. The present store of Simpson, Crawford & Simpson covers the block from 19th to 20th st, and extends back 253 feet on each street; with the present purchase it will cover 418 feet on 19th st. Two parts of the new building are now completed, and the 20th st corner will be opened next week, when work on the 19th st corner will begin.

Ante-New Law Tenements.

MR. LAWRENCE VEILLER REPLIES TO MR. CHRISTMAN.

The following letter is given in the desire that all sides of the important question treated should be heard, and not as a sign that the Record and Guide has changed its attitude towards that question. The views and statements given are simply those of the writer. One thing does seem clear from this letter and the statements of Mr. Christman that produced it, and that is that there are several readings of the new law, where there should be but one, and that these several readings are apparently irreconcilable. It may be that some of the differences as to interpretation arise through one side looking at the text through the intentions of the framers of the law and the other not distinguishing clearly between the textual requirements of the law and their practical effects, and so quoting one for the other. Then, the fact that the Tenement House law of 1901 applies to the city as created by the consolidation act of 1897 while previous tenement house laws did not is not kept as fully in mind as it might be. Then, some of the comments on the new law already given in our pages suffer from lack of elaboration. Thus, Montgomery & Seitz, who are mentioned by Mr. Veiller, were evidently referring to shafts of less than the legal area of 25 square feet from which inner rooms open, and assuming that if they had to be enlarged the only practical way to do this would be to rebuild them, and that then they would have to be built fireproof surely. Between Mr. Christman's and Mr. Veiller's estimates of the cost of the new requirements for old buildings, ample justification can be found for the claim made by the Record and Guide's article of Oct. 5th, that these requirements are confiscatory in their effects, and would work great injury to owners, but of this more hereafter. And so on—but here's the letter:

No. 105 East 22d Street, New York,
November 6th, 1901.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Dear Sir: In your issue of October 26th there is an extensive article dealing with the changes necessary in now-existing tenement houses in order to make these buildings comply with the new Tenement House law.

In addition to the expression of certain editorial views, there is also a statement from Mr. George Christman, giving his views as to the cost of certain changes and alterations in the building No. 271 East 10th st, which Mr. Christman states that he erected in 1873. There is also a letter from Messrs. Montgomery & Seitz, real estate agents, calling attention to certain points in the new law.

While I do not wish to protract this discussion unless some practical results can come of it, yet, inasmuch as Mr. Christman challenges me to disprove the accuracy of his estimates and statements, I feel that I must trespass upon the Record and Guide for space in its columns.

The unfortunate part of these discussions is that the people who are raising the cry of the increased expense to tenement house owners are not familiar with the new Tenement House law, and Mr. Christman is a notable example. In his estimate he gives as one item "removal of stairs from top floor to roof, also bulkhead, and replacing the same with a bulkhead and stairs in fireproof, as provided in Section 32, including skylight, as in Section 83, $1,050."

Now, as a matter of fact, there is no section in the new Tenement House law that requires the removal of the present stairs from the top floor to the roof, or the removal of a present bulkhead and the substitution of new fireproof stairs and new fireproof bulkhead. What Section 32 does require is simply this: "Every now-existing tenement house shall have in the roof a bulkhead or scuttle constructed as in this section required. No scuttle shall be less in size than 2 feet by 3 feet, and all scuttles shall be covered on the outside with metal, and shall be provided with stationary iron ladders or stairs leading thereto and easily accessible to all tenants of the building and kept free from encumbrances, and all scuttles and ladders shall be kept so as to be ready for use at all times." This has been the law in regard to all buildings, no matter when erected, since 1866; and if there are any tenement houses in this city without either a scuttle or a bulkhead I must confess that I do not know where they are.

Section 32 further provides that "every bulkhead hereafter constructed in a tenement house shall be fireproof, with a fireproof door to the same, and shall have fireproof stairs, with a guide or handrail leading to the roof, etc." As will be seen, this applies only to bulkheads hereafter constructed, and in no way applies to now-existing bulkheads or now-existing stairs.

I was at a loss for a long time to account for Mr. Christman's failure to understand this section of the law until I happened to peruse an edition of the Tenement House law compiled by the United Real Estate Owners' Association; and here I found that the words "hereafter constructed in a tenement house" had been omitted. I should advise Mr. Christman to secure an authentic and accurate copy of the Tenement House law before entering upon a discussion of its provisions. Incidentally, it may interest him and the other members of the United Real Estate Owners' Association to know that their edition of the law contains at least twenty-five mistakes.

So that the $1,050 in this one item must be taken from Mr. Christman's estimate, which to some persons would seem a not inconsiderable amount.

Now as to the cost of constructing two new light shafts in the building from cellar to roof. Mr. Christman gives an estimate of $3,910.08. I do not know what he bases this estimate upon, and I rather imagine he does not know. It is of little value to property owners to know what Mr. Christman thinks this would cost or what I think it will cost. I have, therefore, been to some pains to ascertain what the actual cost has been of such a shaft that has recently been constructed in a now-existing tenement house. Such a shaft, 4 feet by 5 feet, has recently been constructed in the tenement house No. 113 Monroe st. This shaft extends through four stories; being supported on iron beams and columns above the store floor, these columns being supported in the cellar by brick piers. This new shaft is constructed of 4-inch angle iron, with 4 inches of laid-up brickwork, and is supplied at the bottom with a metal intake or duct communicating with the cellar and extending out to the street a considerable distance. On each floor four windows have been cut into the shaft, two windows opening on living rooms and two small windows on two water-closets which have been placed off the public hallways. The owner states that the cost of this work has been as follows:

All the iron work	$190.00
Mason work	75.00
Bricks, 5,000 at $7 per 1,000	35.00
Framing, cutting out of floors, removing rubbish, patching up, etc	50.00
Plastering	50.00
Galvanized iron vent duct, extending from ceiling of store down to cellar and out to street a considerable distance	75.00
16 windows and frames at $10	160.00
Carpentering on 16 windows	80.00
Total	$715.00

While the expense of putting in this shaft has been greater than it would have been if the shaft had been carried down to the cellar and supported directly on brick walls, and has also been greater because there are four windows on each floor instead of two (the number that would be necessary if there were no water-closets in the shaft), still, for the sake of argument, I am willing to admit that this expense of $715 is fairly typical of what such work will cost, so that the expense of putting in two of these shafts in a building would be $1,430.

This is considerably less than Mr. Christman's "estimate" of $3,910.08. In fact, is practically $2,500 less.

As to the cost of removing school sinks in yard and replacing same with ten hopper or flushed closets, etc., Mr. Christman's estimate of $550 is about right; but it should be borne in mind that when an owner of a now-existing tenement house is putting in a new shaft in order to light certain rooms, you can be entirely sure of the fact that he will then place his water-closets in the building on each floor and see that they secure their light and ventilation from the same shaft.

Now as to the "removal of woodwork and finishing up of floor to five sinks in the hall at $3 each," I have personally inspected the building 271 East 10th st, in regard to which this estimate is made; and I desire to call Mr. Christman's attention to the fact that there are no public sinks in the hallway of the building, the sinks being located within the apartments, so that there is no expense in regard to this matter and no change required by law.

The next item of Mr. Christman is for removing panels of twenty-two doors opening into the public hall and replacing with wired or ground glass at $3.75 per door.

Now, in the first place, everybody knows that the ordinary two-top panels in a door of this kind can be cut out and replaced with ribbed or ground glass for $1.50 a door, which is considerably different from $3.75. I know of a number of cases where larger panels than the law requires have been done for $2 per door, and will give the specific instances if the Record and Guide thinks I am wrong in this statement.

Now as to the number of doors in 271 East 10th st that will have to have this done, Mr. Christman is again misrepresenting the facts. In the top floor of that building the halls are light, and no such alteration is necessary. On the floor next to the top floor the halls are sufficiently light enough to read in, so that no alteration is necessary on this floor. On the ground floor the hall runs through to the yard and has a door at the end, so no alteration is necessary on this floor. On the first floor (one flight up) these doors already have ground glass panels, so that no alteration is necessary on this floor, which leaves one floor in which this alteration is necessary. On this floor there are four doors where the panels would have to be changed. This, at a cost of $1.50 a door, would be $6 instead of $82.50, as Mr. Christman states.

Now, Mr. Christman's estimate of $75 for casing pipe from floor to floor (Section 113) at $15 per floor is another enigma. Section 113 does not require pipes to be cased in from floor to floor, but simply provides that the space around the pipes in the floors shall be filled in with plaster or mineral wool, or some other material to prevent the spread of fire and the passage of air from floor to floor. This is a very different proposition from casing in the pipes from floor to floor.

Now let us see, in the light of these facts, how Mr. Christ-man's estimate varies from the real conditions. Mr. Christman gave a total expense of $5,682.58. The expense, however, in case two new shafts are put in, the school sinks are removed, a new skylight is provided and four panels replaced with glass in the doors on one floor, will result in a total expense of $2,016, or about one-third of Mr. Christman's figures.

Now as to the especial point made by Messrs. Montgomery & Seitz in their letter, in which they seem to fear that now-existing shafts which are less than 4 feet wide would have to be widened, as they say that "Section 81 says every shaft must be at least 4 feet wide." This is another case where the people discussing the law are not familiar with its provisions. Section 81 applies only to shafts hereafter constructed, and does not apply to now-existing shafts.

In conclusion, I simply wish to say that I was incorrectly quoted in the "Evening Post" in the statement that "the expense of the alterations required will not exceed $350." This estimate was solely for the changes necessary in order to make the building comply with Section 79, as suggested by me in my first letter to you and illustrated in the cut which you published in your issue of October 26th, and, of course, did not include the expense of removing school sinks from the yard and putting in proper water-closets.

Yours sincerely,

LAWRENCE VEILLER.

The firm of Kempner & Mathews, real estate brokers, with offices in the World Building, has been dissolved. Mr. George H. Mathews has taken offices in the Parmly Building, No. 165 Broadway.

Edward H. Gilbert, who in 1897 severed a connection of fifteen years with J. Edgar Leaycraft, has again connected himself with that office, and will be pleased to see his many friends and give them the same conscientious service that he has done in the past.

Edward D. Palmer (formerly Palmer & MacDonald), real estate broker, has removed from No. 194 Columbus av to larger quarters at No. 179 Columbus av, corner of 68th st. Mr. Palmer has for 8 years been located on the West Side, and he makes a specialty of the sale and exchange of real estate. His lists of selected properties contain many desirable parcels.

The long-established and successful firm of Pocher & Co., real estate agents and brokers, have, to better accommodate their extensive and constantly increasing business, removed to commodious offices at No. 40 West 34th st, between 5th av and Broadway. The new quarters are handsomely fitted and furnished, and provided with every convenience for the dispatch of business.

Wall st, Nos 41 and 43, running through to Exchange pl, Nos 45 and 47. This property has finally been transferred by W. K. Aston to Charles W. Morse. The property just purchased fronts 30.6 on Wall st and 50 feet on Exchange pl. It was recently transferred to Mr. Aston for $1,123,000, and is reported to have sold to Mr. Morse for $1,200,000. The Wall st parcel is covered by a 9-sty office building. The Exchange pl buildings are only five stories high, but they are connected with the Wall st building. Plans were recently filed by the bank for a 21-sty building to be erected on the William st and Exchange pl corner, and it is said that the Exchange pl part of the present purchase will be included in the new building operation, but the Wall st parcel will simply be connected with the new building.

The World of Building

Material Market.

Lumber.—There is a good business doing in nearly all lines. There has been a steady demand for Eastern spruce, and the moderate arrivals have been taken at $17@18 for narrow cargoes and $19@21 for wide cargoes. Mills have not been taking orders for specials, and quotations have been nominal. Northern pine is in good demand and prices are firm. Hardwoods are quiet, with a little more demand for poplar, ash and plain oak. Hemlock has had a moderate sale at steady prices. The demand for white pine and yellow pine has been limited, but with no pressure to sell prices have been well held. Cypress is firm, and there is a fairly satisfactory inquiry.

Lath.—There have been moderate arrivals of Eastern spruce lath, but with a good general demand offerings have been readily absorbed and prices continue strong.

Bricks, Lime and Cement.—There has been a fairly active market for bricks, which absorbed the supplies offered, while prices were firm, or if changed at all, it was on the side of strength. Arrivals of Eastern lime have been moderate, but with a steady demand offerings have been fairly well taken up and prices have not changed. Both Rosendale and Portland cement are in good request and prices steady.

Hardware,—A satisfactory condition of business continues. Merchants, with few exceptions, have reported that goods are moving into the hands of the trade with a fair show of freedom. Prices in most lines continue to be well maintained, although in a few instances weakness has appeared. The latter has been particularly noticeable in goods which have been held for a considerable time past at extreme prices.

The proposed hardware trust is exciting a good deal of attention in the trade, but conflicting opinions exist as to the exact status of the scheme. So far as can be learned, the prominent local hardware dealers are not associated with the movement. It is the prevailing opinion among dealers in this city that the proposition is impracticable and will fail when an attempt is made to put it into force. It is estimated that the hardware jobbing houses deal in something like 75,000 different articles, and it is claimed that it would be impossible for any one combination to gain anything like a monopoly in such a business. Moreover, it is asserted that not more than one-tenth of the jobbing houses in the country could be induced to go into such a combination.

Nails.—Business in the market for wire nails has continued on a fairly extensive scale, the trade generally being good buyers to meet current wants. Quoted prices have not been changed from the basis of $2.60 per keg, but they have been 5@10c. per keg less where outside competition has had to be met. Cut nails have been in fairly active demand, and owing to the difficulty manufacturers have been experiencing in obtaining supplies of raw material they are from 15 to 30 days behind on their orders. Small lots at store are quoted in New York at $2.18 to $2.30 per keg.

Plumbers' Supplies.—The demand continues on a very light scale for spot copper, as buyers are confident that a turn in their favor is only a question of a short time, and refuse to burden themselves with stock they have no immediate use for. For spot Lake copper 17c. seems to be the best that can be done, but it is understood that sellers are willing to make some concession on futures. Electrolytic is still quoted at 16⅜@16⅝c. and casting at 15⅝@16⅜c., according to brand. The situation in pig tin is uninteresting. Trade, as usual at this time of the year, is dull, and speculative interest is almost entirely withheld. Spot and November are held at 25c., while 24.60c. seemed to be the best bid at the close. Buyers are satisfying their wants only as they occur, and the pig lead market consequently has a very quiet appearance. The tone, however, is steady and prices are unchanged, being quoted on the basis of 4.37½c. for lots of 50 tons or more. Though trade is rather light in spelter, the market is steady at 4.37½c. for spot under limited offerings. The tin plate market presents no features of special interest at the moment. The demand is up to the average for the time of year, and prices will likely remain where they are, which apply on all deliveries up to the end of next March.

Paints and Colors.—There is nothing new in this market since our last report. White lead in oil is said to be in somewhat of a demoralized condition, owing to cutting of prices in the West, which has since spread to the East. Concessions from regular quotations of from ¼ to ½-cent. per pound on some brands are reported to be obtainable.

Linseed Oil.—Yesterday spot oil stiffened, and most independents were selling at 60c. This strength is caused by the advance in flaxseed and the unfavorable prospects of a good seed crop. The American Co. has practically withdrawn from the market and is not announcing any figures. It is known that seed for the Staten Island mill has left Buffalo, but the plant will not be started before Nov. 15. Trading has not been as active as a week ago.

Glass.—The summer suspension of work in the window glass factories of the country has been succeeded by a general resumption of work. According to usual custom the blowing of window glass will last for eight months, or until June 30 next. The resumption is made under favorable auspices, but under a remarkable condition of labor. The union of glass blowers is a very close corporation, as there are only 2,200 blowers in the country, and 2,800 pots for the manufacture of window glass, each pot requiring one blower, consequently 600 pots have to remain idle.

At a recent meeting of the National Window Glass Jobbers' Association, a resolution was passed permitting the jobbers of the various large cities in the country to establish such prices in their districts as they think will be for the best interest of the American trade. For the present, instead of a uniform price being adhered to in all the different districts covered by the jobbers' association, the local jobbers in the various cities will make their own prices. It is understood that a change in price, covering the whole list or a single bracket, may be made. Thursday at a meeting of the Jobbers' Association held at Pittsburg, the prices on all sizes of window glass were cut about 16%. Very few contracts for future deliveries are reported at current prices, The window glass market is especially quiet.

They recently sold their 5th av property to J. B. Haggin for $735,000. Alfred Zucker was the architect for the old club-house, but there will be a competition for the plans for the new building.

Sobel & Kean, East Side builders, have bought from the New York Realty Corporation (Flake & Dowling) the old buildings on the entire block between Madison and Park avs, 51st to 52d st, formerly occupied by the Roman Catholic Orphan Asylum, the materials of which they offer for sale on the premises, and at their office, No. 400 East 74th st. When two years old he was brought to this country. When a young man he was a builder, but in 1842 he turned his attention to architecture, carrying on business alone until 1887, when he took his sons into partnership. He retired last January. Among the edifices he designed and erected were the Metropolitan Hotel, the Hoffman House, the Grand Central Station, All Angels' Church and William H. Vanderbilt's mansion, 5th av, 51st to 52d st.

R I. W. DAMP-RESISTING PAINT.

R. I. W. Damp-Resisting Paint is being used on a great many new buildings. The claims of the makers seem to be so substantial that they say not one single complaint has ever been received wherever the paint has been used. Some of the big new projects for which specifications are being issued call for R. I. W. Damp-Resisting Paint from roof to cellar. This is another indication of how a good thing is bound to succeed. Three years ago it was comparatively unknown. To-day it is a great factor in building. Toch Brothers, of 468-472 West Broadway, are the makers, and their reputation carries weight.

THAT SASH AND DOOR TRUST.

"The Mississippi Valley Lumberman" says of the story that a great sash and door trust composed of all the great and many of the small factories extending from Chicago to the Pacific coast had been organized. The story is an illustration of a tendency shown by the daily press in general to jump at conclusions and make announcements of deals as having been consummated when they are yet unheard of by many of those whose interests are the greatest. In this case, there was a little fire; just a little, while the amount of smoke would indicate a conflagration. At various times in the past ten or a dozen years, there has been talk of combining the sash and door factories of the west into an immense stock company. Propositions in different forms have been presented, but have been given little consideration, and have finally been dropped altogether. Nearly every city in the west, where these factories are located has been visited by some one representing those who wished to get the manufacturers together. The combination is as far off as it has been at any previous time.

AN INEXHAUSTIBLE LIGHT.

A story is current that a Chicago inventor, Geo. Magrady, has discovered a process of manufacturing a 36-candle-power light that will never go out. It is said that, while experimenting with photographic chemicals four years ago Magrady's attention was attracted by a glow in a small globe. Discovery showed the glow was caused by a chemical which the inventor keeps secret. By constant experiments Magrady finally enlarged the glow and perfected the light by placing it in an air-tight glass. He says there is no reason why the light will not remain brilliant until eternity if it is not broken. A company has been formed to manufacture the lights in numerous sizes. A patent hood fits over the globes, and by a simple mechanism covers it completely when the light is not needed.

VAPORIZING GAS STOVES.

Some persons complain, says a British architectural journal, that gas fires cause an uncomfortable dryness of the atmosphere of a room. A series of experiments has been conducted which proves that the atmosphere of a room is not rendered more dry by the use of a gas fire provided with a flue than by the use of the coal fire, and the experimenter is of opinion that the alleged dryness is always due to a trace of the sulphur compounds in the products of combustion escaping into the room through a defective flue. Where the flue is perfect and a strong up-draught is maintained no such feeling of dryness is experienced. To meet all requirements, however, most of the gas-stove manufacturers now manufacture a stove fitted with a well to contain water, the water being slowly vaporized by the heat from the fire. Vaporizing fires appear to be rapidly growing in popularity, and are very serviceable for sick rooms where a moist warm atmosphere is required. A shallow pan of water placed in front of an ordinary incandescent gas fire may, of course, be used instead of a specially-constructed vaporizing gas stove, but is not so convenient.

More Tenement House Plan Litigation.

The Appellate Division will on Tuesday next hear arguments on an appeal of George Herdje against a judgment in the lower court in favor of the Department of Buildings (Brooklyn). The facts are that Herdje filed plans for four tenements he desired to erect on the northeast corner of Central and Putnam avs, Brooklyn, at 9.16 a. m. of April 12th, the day the new Tenement House Act was approved by Governor Odell at 12.30 p. m. On the same day the building contract was let to Christian Doencke. April 25 Section 4 of the new law was amended to give plans filed on or before April 10th the benefits of the old law. On the same day the Department revoked the Herdje's permit on the ground that work had not actually commenced at the time of the passage of the act. June 1st a violation was issued because excavating was going on, although permit had been revoked. Later an injunction restraining Herdje from proceeding with the work was obtained, on the ground that he could not build under the old law because the requirement of the new that work be begun prior to its passage was not met. The appellant contends that this judgment is erroneous, because Section 4 did not require that work must have been actually commenced before the passage of the act, but that work should have been commenced after approval of the plans. Weschler & Burstein, attorneys for the appellant, in their brief, call attention to the apparent anomaly that existed, according to official interpretation of the law, that if plans could not be filed under the old law between the 10th and 12th days of April, there was an interregnum of two days in which no plans could be filed at all, because the new law was not enacted until the 12th. The decision in this case will be awaited with interest.

Questions and Answers.

We must remind our correspondents that we cannot answer anonymous communications. Readers must also remember that communications to us cannot invariably be answered the week they are received.

LANDLORD AND TENANT.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Kindly say if B is legally entitled to full month's rent for November, under the following agreement, when necessary repairs (agreed upon verbally) will not be finished until November 10th, and A does not take possession until November 15th. Agreement to wit: N. Y., Oct. 31, 1901. Received from A ten dollars deposit on account of house ——. Rent to be —— dollars per month, from November, 1901, payable monthly in advance.

Answer.—B is entitled to the full month's rent.—Law Editor.

ARCHITECT'S FEE.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Building and loan company's secretary signed affidavit for building department for erecting a building. Secretary authorized the architect to proceed to erect the same. The contractor failed when about half finished, same being finished by day's work under supervision of architect. Payment of architect's bill refused. Suit brought in district court and lost under the ruling that the Secretary had no authority to order the work, the said Secretary testifying on the stand to that effect. The building company have the building completed and occupied, put up by no authority of company. Is not this a strange decision?

Answer.—It seems to me to be a strange decision, but the architect has a remedy by appeal.—Law Editor.

PERSONAL TAX.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

A is the owner of two tenement houses and a private residence (furnished) on which he has a mortgage of $30,000 (his own bond), and A is also the owner of $26,000 in bonds and mortgages. How much, if any, personal taxes can he be assessed?

Answer.—As he is on the bond for $30,000, he is entitled to have that amount deducted from the amount of personal property on which he is to be assessed. Consequently, if the $26,000 is all the personal property he has, he will not be assessed at all. —Law Editor.

MECHANIC'S LIEN ON GOVERNMENT WORK.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Will you kindly give us information regarding liens on government work. We did work on a government building in Philadelphia, Pa.; we received a note for part of our work, and some money is not paid. The note was not paid. Can we take a lien on this work, and with whom do we have to file same? Our lawyers says we can not.

Answer.—Your lawyer is right. There is no provision in the Federal Statutes for the filing of a mechanic's lien where the contract relates to the improvement of Government property. It is different with municipal or State property. A sub-contractor may file a lien for improvement of State or municipal property which binds the fund which may be owing to the contractor by the State or municipality.—Law Editor.

MECHANIC'S LIEN.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Your Law Editor's answer to my question of recent date is not quite satisfactory. I may not have stated my question plainly, but will try to do so. A, the owner of a building, leases it to B for a term of years, with the stipulation that B makes all the alterations necessary for his business at his own expense, owner allowing him to make these alterations. B contracts with C to make these alterations. In case B does not pay C for the material and work done on building, would a lien put on by C hold against building?

Answer.—The mere general consent of the owner in the lease that the lessee may make the alterations necessary for his business at his own expense will not make the lien valid against the interest of the owner of the premises. There must be more shown that the consent shall be such as is contemplated by the statute. The latest cases in the Court of Appeals are Hankinson v. Vantine, decided in March, 1897, and De Klyn v. Gould, decided in January, 1901. In the Hankinson case the court says: "Thus it seems that the requirements of this statute as to consent are not met by a mere general agreement to the effect that a third person may, at his own expense, make alterations in a building occupied by him. The statute requires more. It requires that the owner shall expressly consent to the particular alterations made, or, that, with a knowledge of the particular object for which they are employed, he acquiesces in the means adopted for that purpose." In the De Klyn case the court says: "This case, as well as the others it cites, indicates that mere acquiescence in the erection or alteration, with knowledge, is not sufficient evidence of the consent such as the statute requires. There must be something more. Consent is not a vacant or neutral attitude in respect of a question of such material interest to the property-owner. It is affirmative in its nature. It should not be implied contrary to the obvious truth, unless upon equitable principles the owner should be estopped from asserting the truth."—Law Editor.

The State Board of Railroad Commissioners will give a public hearing on November 19, at ten a. m., in the Borough Hall, on the application of the Brooklyn Heights Railroad Company, lessee, and the Brooklyn Union Elevated Railroad Company, lessor, for the consent of the Board to discontinue passenger stations on the Fulton Street line of the elevated road at Clark and Tillary sts, Boerum place, Flatbush av, Lafayette av, Cumberland st, Vanderbilt av, and Grand av. The object of this application is to stop short distance riding on the elevated roads from and to the bridge, to facilitate the movement of trains. The result of closing these stations would be that the people who now use them would have to take the trolleys instead.

The following is the text of an open petition which is now in circulation and explains itself. In connection therewith, it may be stated that the want of provision for adequate publicity for all legal sales in Brooklyn similar to that that rules in Manhattan is a long standing scandal, to which the Record and Guide has many times referred, and which ought to be terminated at an early day:

We, the undersigned, voters of the Borough of Brooklyn, being interested in any movement for the improvement of the real estate interests of said borough, wish to call attention to a long felt grievance now existing relative to the conducting of judicial sales by the sheriff. It has been the custom heretofore, although strongly opposed by some of our largest taxpayers and prominent citizens, for the sheriff to conduct said sales in a small room on a side street and not in any way adapted to such purpose, as to size of room, general location and surroundings. Consequently, great injustice has resulted to many unfortunate ones who have been compelled to lose their property through foreclosure, by reason of lack of outside competition.

This can only be attained by giving publicity to these sales, by holding them in the most prominent location possible. As you are aware, Brooklyn possesses one of the finest real estate exchanges in the state, and we earnestly believe that if said sales were conducted in the exchange it would be the means of creating a more active market, and undoubtedly be the means of getting a surplus for owners who now almost without exception lose their property through foreclosure. We would be pleased to get your ideas as to the future conducting of all legal sales, and will, if you so desire, appoint a committee to wait upon you to explain more fully the benefits which we believe would result.

The NEW TENEMENT HOUSE LAW, edited by William J. Fryer, with headings and complete cross-reference index, etc., etc. This volume is an absolute necessity to every Architect, Builder, Engineer, Real Estate Owner, Operator and Broker. Orders should be sent in at once to secure prompt delivery. Published by the Record and Guide, 14 and 16 Vesey St., N. Y. City.

Regulations applying to Now Existing Tenement Houses as well as all others, carefully indexed.

CONVEYANCES.

Wherever the letters Q. C., C. a G. and B. & S. occur, preceded by the name of the grantee they mean as follows:

1st.—Q. C. is an abbreviation for Quit Claim deed, i. e., a deed wherein all the right, title and interest of the grantor is conveyed, omitting all covenants or warranty.

2d.—C. a. G means a deed containing Covenant against Grantor only, in which he covenants that he hath not done any act whereby the estate conveyed can be impeached, charged or encumbered.

3d.—B. & S. is an abbreviation for Bargain and Sale deed, wherein, although the seller makes no express covenants, he really grants or conveys the property for a valuable consideration, and thus impliedly claims to be the owner of it. The street and avenue numbers given in these lists are, in all cases, taken from the Insurance maps when they are not mentioned in the deeds. The numbers, it will occasionally be found, do not correspond with the existing ones, owing to their having been no official designation made of them by the Department of Public Works.

4th.—The first date is the date the deed was drawn. The second date is the date of filing same. When both dates are the same, only one is given.

5th.—The figures in each conveyance, thus, 2:482, denote that the property is in section 2 block 482.

6th.—It should also be noted in section and block numbers, the instrument as filed is strictly followed.

7th.—The letters R. S. mean Revenue Stamp, as R. S. $8.00 means Revenue Stamp $8.00.

Tax on Conveyances executed prior to July 1st, 1901, on $100 to $500, 50c., and for each additional $500 or fraction thereof, 50c.; on Conveyances executed on and after July 1st, 1901, 25c., where consideration exceeds $2,500 and is not more than $3,000, and 25c. for each additional $500 or fraction thereof.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as head lines are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date.

The first date is the date the mortgage is drawn, the second the date of filing; when both dates are the same, only one is given.

Subscribers will find Mortgages in this list with the wrong block number attached. The block number we give is taken from the instrument as filed.

Mortgages against Bronx property will be found altogether at the foot of this list.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as head lines are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date.

Vol. LXVIII. NOVEMBER 16, 1901. No. 1757

THE announcement of the terms of the treaty of peace, made between the lately belligerent railroad magnates, created disappointment on the Stock Market, because they were not understood. At first it appeared as if Mr. Hill had only succeeded in bringing about that consolidation of Northern Pacific and Great Northern that he tried to effect some years ago and was prevented from doing by the threats of some of the attorniesgeneral of the northern states. As a matter of fact the agreement has a much wider scope than this. It brings into friendly relations with the northern roads and the owners of Burlington, the Union Pacific the owner of the Southern and Central Pacifics. The agreement consummated taken with the alliances among the trunk lines, makes for settled and conservative conditions in the railroad world such as were never seen before. The object of all this gigantic work is to produce a state of such stability that railroad security values may be maintained within a comparatively small movement either way year in and year out, and an investment confidence created in them that they have never known yet. Undoubtedly the agreement is well calculated to attain this object, but while such plans as these can only be made in good times, they can only be tested in bad ones, and the satisfaction that is created by their adoption is tempered by the knowledge that they have still to undergo that test. However, plans must be made before they can be tested, and, the market considered, the one just announced is a step towards holding quotations of those railroad securities that now stand high and advancing those that do not. This will be surely seen later on. Much of the selling of this week was professional and perfunctory—that is on the time-worn theory that one should sell on happy consummations. It was assisted and encouraged by the gold exports and accompanying advance in money rates. It is intimated that as much more gold will go out next week as goes this and some more the week after; then the European demand is expected to be met. This may be or it may not. Of late years the movements of gold have been very uncertain, not to say surprising.

FOR the next week or two the European markets will be more than ever dependent upon the movements of money. Until the yearly settlements are provided for there will be no easing of rates. The stress of affairs is shown by the maintenance of a four per cent Bank of England rate and the low price of Consols and other government bonds. When the best security in the Old World goes begging at a discount of nearly nine per cent it may be taken for granted that there is a decided scarcity of money. This is further shown by the heaviness of Imperial German 3's and French Rentes, both typical of investment safety. The question is, will a day soon come when these will be taken up for a speculative advance as they were ten years ago, or have we come to a point where the demands for money are so great and continuous that securities offering so low a return as these do can never again sell at a premium? It is extraordinary that Consols sell month after month at what formerly would be considered panic prices and the explanation has not yet shown itself. The cost of the Boer war is offered, but that is not satisfactory considering what is behind the security; and there only remains the suggestion that the expansion of the world's business in the past ten years so absorbs the world's capital that the best and soundest of governments have to pay more for their money than they did. When they offer a loan at a discount that is merely another way of raising the rate of interest. Despite the disturbed condition of the money market and the low prices for Governments, the situation is not without its favorable features. Items of news or statistics crop up here and there which relieve the gloom somewhat. For instance, the London Economist points out that the general trend of prices in Great Britain for October was slightly upward, after having been the other way continuously for the thirteen previous months; the iron and steel trades report more inquiry and so on, until it seems that with the turn of the year, when those dreaded settlements already referred have been made, there will be a more cheerful prospect all around.

Why They Weep.

"THE landlords are weeping and gnashing their teeth at the prospective expense." This sentence was used gleefully in the course of an address delivered one evening this week befor the Church Association for the Advocacy of the Interests of Labor, and was supposed to represent the deserved agony of the landlords when contemplating the pecuniary results to themselves of the provisions of law which require old tenements to be altered to suit the notions of sentimental philanthropy. It seemed to be the idea that it was a mighty fine thing to take money out of the pockets of the landlords anyway and the prospect of endless cheap charity thereby opened out was no doubt particularly fascinating. The conduct of this association with the name too long to be quoted twice, and those who think with them recalls the story of the Scotchman, who was dining and wining sumptuously and expensively in a public dining-room, and who, thinking he saw reproof in the looks with which he was regarded from the other tables, said: "My freends, I wush ye to oonderstand that I'm no traveling at my ain expense." In the same way it is well known how tremendously and lavishly charitable people generally can be when its "no at their ain expense."

But these good people who believe so heartily and thoroughly in charity and the relief of the poor when it can be done vicariously do not seem to perceive that they are talking rank socialism. That is tne term usually applied to propositions for robbing the individual for the benefit of the community, and they are more to be expected from those who worship Johann Most and follow the counsels of Emma Goldman than from bodies that claim to be enlightened and honest. The tenement houses which they think so poorly of were built under sanction of law and ought to have the protection of the state contract. We wonder what they would have said if, instead of being entertained by a picture of the landlord writhing in agony, each of these people, who apparently enjoyed that picture so much, had been asked to contribute from his or her own pocket, from one to five thousand dollars to improve the surroundings of the people who dwell in tenement houses. We fancy that then the question would have assumed a new phase in their eyes. Yet that is exactly what the landlord is not merely asked to do, but ordered by law to do. Of course it will be claimed that the landlord has duties towards his tenants which others have not, and the money is to be spent upon his own property. Both of these things are true. But every department of the city government has always been keeping the landlord up to his duty towards his tenants; then why, despite building, sanitary and police laws amended session after session and made more exacting each time, is the landlord found so derelict still, that he has to be punished finally by an ingenious form of confiscation, making him do and pay for a great many things which he does not think necessary, and which the tenants themselves do not ask for, although as anyone who has had experience with tenants knows bashfulness is not one of their failings—and the doing and paying for which may ruin him?

Now as to the attitude of the landlord, metaphorized for the sake of oratorial effect into "weeping and gnashing of teeth," that is a perfectly fair and natural one. It is the right of a citizen if he is oppressed by any particular act of the Legislature to appeal for protection to the courts and to agitate for the law's repeal. It was to afford protection against oppression that the courts were created, and one of the duties of a legislature is to undo unjust exactments. This is what the landlord is preparing to do. His position is that what the new tenement house law asks him to do is unreasonable, both in its physical requirements and pecuniary consequences; therefore, he proposes to resist its demands. We have in these columns already shown pretty conclusively what the consequences of the enforcement of the law will mean to very many landlords whose all is embraced in a small equity in an old tenement house. Any broker who handles this class of property could give numerous instances of old people who have the modest savings of a long life of industry invested in a tenement three-fourths mortgaged, and who would simply be pauperized for the remaining brief span of their existence. It is not improbable that these people do contemplate the future with misty eyes and set lips; and who, knowing all the circumstances, can wonder.

But it is not on sentimental grounds that the law should be resisted or amended into reasonableness, but because it violates those principles of justice that exist between the state, and the individual, and which are supposed to guarantee to the latter protection in his legitimate enterprises. The tenement house law would do it in a roundabout way, but it would still take private property without compensation and is, therefore, unconstitutional.

ONE of the most encouraging promises for better government is afforded by the improved character of the influences, which are beginning to dominate the Republican party in the county and the state. The people controlling the Republican organization are manifestly much more amenable to pressure from New York public opinion than ever before, and there seems consequently to be a fair prospect of harmonious coöperation between the City Hall and Albany. It is improbable that this coöperation will go as far as an amendment of the liquor laws, permitting a partial Sunday opening; but it will serve to secure any ordinary legislation which the reform administration needs, and it may serve to check the irresponsible dabbling in local affairs, which takes place every winter at Albany. The government of New York from the state capital will always have certain disadvantages, but it looks as if these disadvantages during the administrations of Mayor-elect Low and Governor Odell, would be minimized.

The Real Estate Situation

Characteristics of the Week.

Almost four out of every five sales reported at present continues to be those of private dwellings; but there are enough indications of other things to foreshadow a good deal of coming activity. Henry Corn's purchase from the Van Rensselaer estate of No. 476 Broadway, running through to 38 Crosby street, affects a locality which of late has been quiet, but, also, a locality which, so far as renting is concerned, is now doing very much better than it was a few years ago; and consequently improvements, such as the one Mr. Corn contemplates, are in order. The lower 5th avenue section, it is unnecessary to state, is not superseding the middle Broadway district as the dry goods headquarters. Certain trades tend to move up town, but these removals are merely equivalent to the normal wholesome expansion of the dry goods district. As long as the prevailing prosperity lasts, a good deal of loft building may be expected in all available parts of the city. On the other hand the announcement that the Municipal Realty Co. is the purchaser of No. 12 5th avenue, and that a ten-story apartment hotel is to be erected on the site is more of a surprise, because the district seems to be out of the way for apartment hotel building. Yet when it is remembered that it is a very attractive and convenient section in which to live, and that a number of flats were formerly erected both on the avenue and on the side streets, the transaction does not afford much occasion for astonishment. What is particularly interesting to note, however, is the way in which from 23d street south to Washington Square apartment houses and hotels are being mixed up with lofts. In the future the two classes of buildings, instead of being segregated as customary in New York may be to a greater extent mixed up together, as in Paris.

The Auction Market.

The auction market during the past week has been encouraging, rather than the reverse to prospective sellers. Almost all the important parcels offered come under the head of tenement-house property, and the prices bid by parties not in interest have been quite as good as the situation warranted. They did not always satisfy the sellers; but when the sellers want too much, it is not the fault of the market in case they do not get it. The Colonial Brewery property, situated in the neighborhood of 8th avenue and 18th street, was offered under unusual, but not unprecedented conditions, for it was sold both as separate parcels, and as a single property. This fact in itself was in the interest of the sellers rather than intending buyers, and tended to discourage bidding. Yet the prices which the parcels brought separately, and which were offered chiefly by professional operators, were fair prices, compared to those usually obtained for that class of property in that neighborhood. For one 8th avenue corner $38,000 was bid and for another $40,100, while inside lots fetched between $11,000 and $15,000. The total offered at the sale in separate parcels was $295,600, which was not considered sufficient by parties in interest, the principal of whom bought the whole property in one block for $351,000. This sale and the one on Thursday certainly indicated no perceptible diminution in the prices which professional operators believe tenement-house property to be worth. In the latter case a coupde of five-story brick tenements on East Houston St., 41x50, brought $42,500, a five-story tenement, 25x70, on East Broadway, $27,500, and a four-story building on the same street, 26.1x100, $34,000. It so happened, however, that the value of none of these parcels, owing to the way they are improved, their dimensions and their location, was affected by the new tenement-house law.

The Complexity of the Real Estate Market.

No fact about the prevailing real estate situation in New York is more important and interesting than its complexity. Fifteen or twenty years ago the influences governing the market were much fewer and more simple; and consequently the market moved up or down much more solidly. In good times, such as those of 1872, large building and lively speculative operations went on hand in hand all over the city, and in bad times the slump was similarly contagious and general. But at present there is a much more intricate mixture of good and bad influences continually operating; and the result is a higher level of activity, but an absence of either any big boom or any disastrous slump. This comparative absence of excessive fluctuation is, of course, partly due to virtual control over real estate operations exercised by rich and shrewd speculative corporations and operators. They prevent an excited boom by anticipating the place in which it is likely to occur, and securing the profits before the public have a chance to jump in and get interested. This is what they have done in the Longacre Square district and on Washington Heights. On the other hand they moderate the evils of bad times, both negatively by preventing excessive booms, and positively by carrying large amounts of what may be called floating real estate over critical periods. But back of the speculators there is much greater variety of conditions making for activity or inactivity, and where some of these conditions make in one direction, others make in the opposite direction. Twenty years ago the almost complete cessation, which we are witnessing of building for housing purposes, except in the interest of the very rich, would have exercised a depressing influence over the whole market, and whatever was done in other lines of building and real estate, would not have been any sufficient compensation. But now the comparative dullness on the West Side and in the tenement-house district is counterbalanced by unusual activity in the central and southern parts of the city. During the coming year, conditions may be reversed; but in any event there will always be some part of the city, or some class of building, in which trading is active and improvements numerous. As a matter of fact it looks very much, just now, as if the existing conditions would prevail another year. So far there are no evidences of any impending change; but, of course, the change will come, and the construction of office buildings and apartment hotels for speculation or investment will be succeeded by the construction of small dwellings and flats.

MOST naturally the property-owners on Park avenue are vigorously protesting against the proposed alterations to the tunnel from 56th to 71st street. The transformation of the tunnel throughout its whole length into an open cut would, from the point of view of the traveling public, offer a very satisfactory amelioration of the existing situation, but it would ruin the middle district of Park avenue, and so would only abate one nuisance by creating another. The Grand Central management cannot escape from its dilemma by the cheap and easy process which is proposed; and whatever solution is ultimately adopted must secure the interests of the Park avenue property-owners as completely as those of any other people concerned. As was predicted by the Record and Guide, the interference of the Health Board in the matter has not been productive of any real good, for the problem is less one of health than of convenience and decency. We do not believe for a moment that the health of the passengers is appreciably injured by the tunnel; but on the other hand, their comfort is utterly neglected, and the development of the regions tributary to the Vanderbilt lines much retarded. It is a matter for full investigation from every different point of view, including that of the railroad; and the Legislature at the coming session should provide for such an investigation.

THE number of passengers carried by the elevated roads always affords one of the most interesting indications of the growth of business and population in New York, and the figures for the year ending September 30, are no exception to this rule. During that year they carried more passengers, and earned more money than they have done any year since 1894, the year in which the business of the Manhattan Company first began to feel severely the effects of competition from the improved service of the surface roads. The number of these passengers was 194,152,316 against 183,788.85 in 1900 and 177,204,558 in 1899, which is an increase of almost 17,000,000 in two years, and more than 10,000,000 in one year. How is this increase to be accounted for? In part, no doubt, by the response on the part of the public, of which President Gould speaks in his report, to an improved service on the East Side lines. In part, also, to the fact that the competition of the surface roads has done its worst, and that the elevated lines are in a position to get their full share of any future increase, and in part, finally, to the effect of the very active business, which necessitates an unusual amount of traveling. It is reported that during the month of October the rate of increase has been still more rapid and that there is every prospect of a year's traffic, second to only one in the history of the company. Consequently, the position of the Manhattan Company is very strong, for it has recovered a large part of the ground it had lost before the influence of its new electrical equipment has begun to be felt, and in the course of the present year, when it will be able to run longer trains more quickly, and also to stop them and get them under way more quickly, it will undoubtedly increase its business faster than ever. When the competition of the subway comes it will be in a position to stand the shock without any dangerous defects in its preparation. It is stated that the electrical equipment of the elevated lines will give the Metropolitan Railway Co. an additional motive for controlling it, because the two plants could be operated much more economically in conjunction than apart. However that may be, it is much to be hoped from the point of view of the public, that the alliance will take place. It would make the elevated roads enormously more useful to its passengers, if some system of transfers could be arranged with the most important crosstown lines. That is the tremendous advantage which the surface lines have at present, and which leads many people to prefer them to the elevated roads. It should be added that a similar system of transfers will be even more essential to the new underground road.

IN securing the services of George L. Rives, as his Corporation Counsel, Mayor-elect Low makes an immensely good beginning. Mr. Rives is not only a citizen standing high in the opinion of the community and an able lawyer, but having been Chairman of the Commission who prepared the new charter the coming administration that will have to administer that enactment will be particularly fortunate in having him for their legal adviser.

ON another page of this issue will be found the report of Bridge Commissioner Shea recommending the adoption of the straight approach to the New East River Bridge, but modified by cutting an extension of Delancey street through five blocks to Elm street. In our opinion this is not as good as the Spring street continuation, because the latter by delivering the traffic in an open space at the junction of Marion (Centre) and Elm streets would provide better for its rapid dispersion.

Park Avenue.

The Park Avenue Property Owners' Association met on Wednesday, and appointed Everett P. Wheeler, counsel, and appointed a nominating committee to name officers. The Executive Committee was instructed to wait upon the Board of Health and get from that body an order requiring the N. Y. Central R. R. to use electric motive power in the Park av tunnel and to leave the present appearance of the avenue undisturbed. Meanwhile the engineers of the railroad company are working upon an enlargement of the tunnel opening under a permit which the Health Board say they have rescinded.

Who Pay the Taxes.

Tax Department figures of the amounts and proportions of the total taxes paid by the several boroughs show that while the amounts are larger this year in every instance, so far as the proportions are concerned, Manhattan felt a slight relief this year through the increased payments by all of the other boroughs. Manhattan's proportion is 1 point less and the Bronx's .1 more; Brooklyn's increased .8, and the other boroughs slightly. The figures for the two years are:

	1901.		1900.
Boroughs.	Amount.	Per ct.	Amount.	Per ct.
Manhattan	$62,699,351	71.0	$59,480,196	72.0

Madison Ave.—North and South.

HOW THE CONDITIONS VARY IN DIFFERENT SECTIONS—CONSIDERABLE ACTIVITY ALL ALONG THE LINE.

As a rule longitudinal avenues in New York are used for business of one kind or another, and crosstown streets for residence; but the rule has a great many exceptions—so many that everybody will remark them at once. Yet it remains true that business tends to distribute itself along the avenues, because they are the important thoroughfares, and that any avenue, even if once entirely occupied by residences, tends in time to be rebuilt for business purposes. Such, in recent years, has been the tendency on 5th and Lexington avs, and such, also, to all appearances is the tendency, which will more slowly make itself felt on Madison av. That avenue and the side streets immediately adjoining it are at the present time undergoing a gradual but interesting transformation. A great deal of building is going on, or has been announced, from 27th st all the way up to 90th st; and while this building has a different character at different parts of the avenue, almost all of it tends to make the avenue a busier thoroughfare, and hence to give it a shove in the direction of commercial occupancy.

The streets between 26th and 34th sts seem destined to undergo within the next ten years a very complete transformation. Both on the avenue itself and on the side streets, there is a manifest tendency toward the building of apartment houses and hotels. Two have recently been erected on 27th st, opposite the Garden Theatre; another is planned by Charles Buek for immediate construction on the northwest corner of the avenue and the same street; a 12-sty apartment hotel is now being built on the southwest corner of 29th st; the Woman's Hotel Co. are erecting their building on a plot just east of Madison av, running through from 29th st; while a number of small non-fireproof hotels, such as that at No. 11 East 32d st, are being erected on the side streets. Consequently, while there are not so many big jobs underway on Madison av and its vicinity as there are just east of Long Acre Square, yet the former section is gaining on the latter, over which it has some advantages. The Madison av region is quieter, is less objectionable in certain obvious respects, is equally central, and is on the whole cheaper. Interior lots on the avenue can be bought for $50,000, and on the side streets for half or two-thirds as much. The apartment hotels already erected are well-rented, particularly those which are well situated and well managed. The rents of a small bachelor apartment house in the vicinity were recently raised from $40 to $55 a month without the loss of more than two or three tenants. There is every prospect that much additional building of the same kind will take place within the next five years, and that with the increased number of apartment houses, the neighborhood will become more and more desirable for business and shops. The opening of the subway will also make an important difference in this respect, because it will assuredly increase the number of pedestrians on the side streets—particularly on those side streets near stations—and consequently will tend to attract business. The whole region between Broadway and 4th av, which is at present much less active than the region between Broadway and 6th av, will be made very much livelier in appearance and fact.

Between 23d and 34th sts the same conditions do not, of course, prevail. Madison av, between these blocks, is lined with residences as handsome and expensive as any in the city. Indeed, it has an even more exclusive character than many parts of 5th av, and is sharing in the activity which affects all the high-class residence districts in the city. The prices which prevail on Murray Hill are extremely high—as high as the prices for that sort of property anywhere in the city until the beginning of the present 5th av boom. J. R. de Lamar, for instance, paid during the present year, $150,000 for the lot on the northeast corner of 37th st and Madison av, on which he proposes to erect a 6-sty American basement dwelling. In 1900, No. 220, 37.6 feet north of 36th st, 28.4x95, brought $113,250. There is, consequently, as much activity in altering and replacing old brownstone dwellings in this vicinity as there is anywhere else in the city; and speculative builders are participating in it here as elsewhere, J. T. & J. A. Farley having two houses under way on 39th st, near Madison av. In view of these facts, it is improbable that the avenue between these streets will become subject to the influences we are describing, as soon as some other parts to the north and south. There will be a certain overflow in time onto the side streets from 5th av, and there will doubtless be a number of expensive apartment hotels built on these side streets in imitation of the Touraine; but Murray Hill is too attractive and select a district to yield rapidly to business influences, and it will assuredly preserve its present character long after the rest of Madison av is given over to trade and to apartment houses.

In the immediate vicinity of 42d st, both north and south, it is obvious that there will be a good many shops and in time office buildings. Forty-second st is undoubtedly destined to be the busiest crosstown street in New York; and since its business will possess the most varied and lucrative character, every avenue in the neighborhood of that street between Long Acre Square and the Grand Central Station will share in the prosperity. There is already a great deal of activity thereabouts which is assuredly destined to increase, and particularly for five or six blocks to the north, where the vicinity of the Station makes it undesirable for residence, there will be more and more business creeping in. At No. 341 Madison av a 9-sty apartment house with stores is already in the course of erection; and the City Club will probably buy Nos. 61-63 East 44th st for the purpose of building thereon a new club-house. It should be added that a few blocks further north, at Nos. 13-15 East 48th st, a 10-sty apartment hotel is now going up, and will be ready for occupation in the spring. Such improvements suggest that all these blocks between 5th av and the railroad, and south of about 49th st, will partake of the character of the streets just west of 5th av in the same vicinity, and that Madison av will in time become a subdued edition of 5th. Should it ever happen, as seems probable, that an east side subway will some day be constructed along Madison av, this improvement in means of transit would reinforce tremendously the effect, north of 42d st, of the causes we are describing.

Between 49th and 57th sts there is another region in which residences predominate in the present improvements. It is true that an apartment building will occupy part of the former site of the Madison av Presbyterian Church; but aside from this, all the property which has recently come upon the market in this vicinity—and there has been a great deal of it—will be improved with expensive dwellings. In fact, a number of relatively cheap apartment houses, which were erected at a time when the immediate proximity of a railroad was considered an undesirable location for a very expensive residence, are now coming down, just east of the Villard mansion; and will be replaced with high-grade speculative dwellings. The intention evidently is to make and keep the neighborhood extremely select. Between 57th and 63d sts, however, there are both more building and work underway and promised, and a more immediate intrusion of business activities than anywhere else on Madison av. The reason for this is that the business which would naturally spread itself over the whole length of an important crosstown street, like 59th st, is concentrated, because of the huge apartment houses further west, between a very few blocks on the east side, with Madison av as its centre. And an important business and banking centre it is becoming. Shops and banks of all kinds are increasing rapidly in the vicinity, and as the East Side continues to build up, will increase more rapidly still. Large apartment houses are almost completed on the corners of 61st and 63d sts. The old Madison Avenue Hotel has just been purchased by Mr. J. C. Lyons, and will be improved, so it is stated, with a 15-sty apartment hotel, while the Lenox Lyceum, on the opposite side of the avenue, is to come down as soon as existing leases expire. The character of the improvement has not yet been definitely determined; but it is probable that an arcade of some kind will be erected on the plot, which is large enough for the purpose. Such a relatively novel addition to the business facilities of the neighborhood would undoubtedly do much to accelerate existing tendencies. It is a pity in this connection that 59th st is such a narrow street, for this narrowness will prevent it from becoming as handsome and pleasant as some of the business streets further south.

North of 63d st shops and apartments are coming rapidly in. There is, indeed, a section between 63d and 75th sts in which only one apartment house has been built; and in this district a number of improved dwellings have been or are being erected. The avenue is still given over chiefly to private dwellings, while on the side streets both to the east and the west a large amount of reconstruction for residential purposes is underway. Yet the tide is obviously setting in the direction of apartment houses on the avenue, and the increased number of inhabitants brought by these apartment houses naturally makes more stores necessary and profitable. Thus, on the northeast corner of 75th st three brownstone dwellings have just been altered into apartments above, with two stores beneath, precisely like so many similar buildings further south. These buildings, Nos. 953, 955 and 957 Madison av, each measuring about 20.6x65, were transferred during the summer at a gross price of $124,500, which gives a fair idea of current values thereabouts. The advantages of this part of Madison av for apartment house construction are manifold; but it is particularly desirable because of its proximity to the park. The need of finding a habitation near Central Park is becoming more and more impressed upon mothers with children, and since 5th av is too expensive for any except the costliest apartment houses, the buildings designed to accommodate less wealthy people are constructed on the nearest avenue. The shallowness of the lots on this part of it, makes it necessary for these buildings to be supplied with very considerable frontages, which makes a pleasant interior arrangement of the flats possible. The further north one gets, however, the more difficult the transit problem becomes, and upper Madison av needs the convenience of subway communication as much as does the Upper West Side.

West End Affairs.

TAXATION—THE CIRCLE—LOCAL WORKS.

That taxation will again form one of the subjects for public discussion this winter is shown by the action of the West End Association last Tuesday in passing a resolution to request Gov. Odell to recommend in his message to the Legislature the exemption of mortgages from taxation and the further revision of the tax laws.

The association was in regular meeting, with Cyrus Clark, President, in the chair. In the course of the evening the President was empowered, and did appoint, De Borden Wilmot, William R. Ware, Spencer Aldrich, Geo. Clinton Batcheller and Charles Buek a committee to nominate officers for the year 1902. The Committee on Legislation were also instructed to report desirable action for bringing West End av and Central Park West under the jurisdiction of the Park Department.

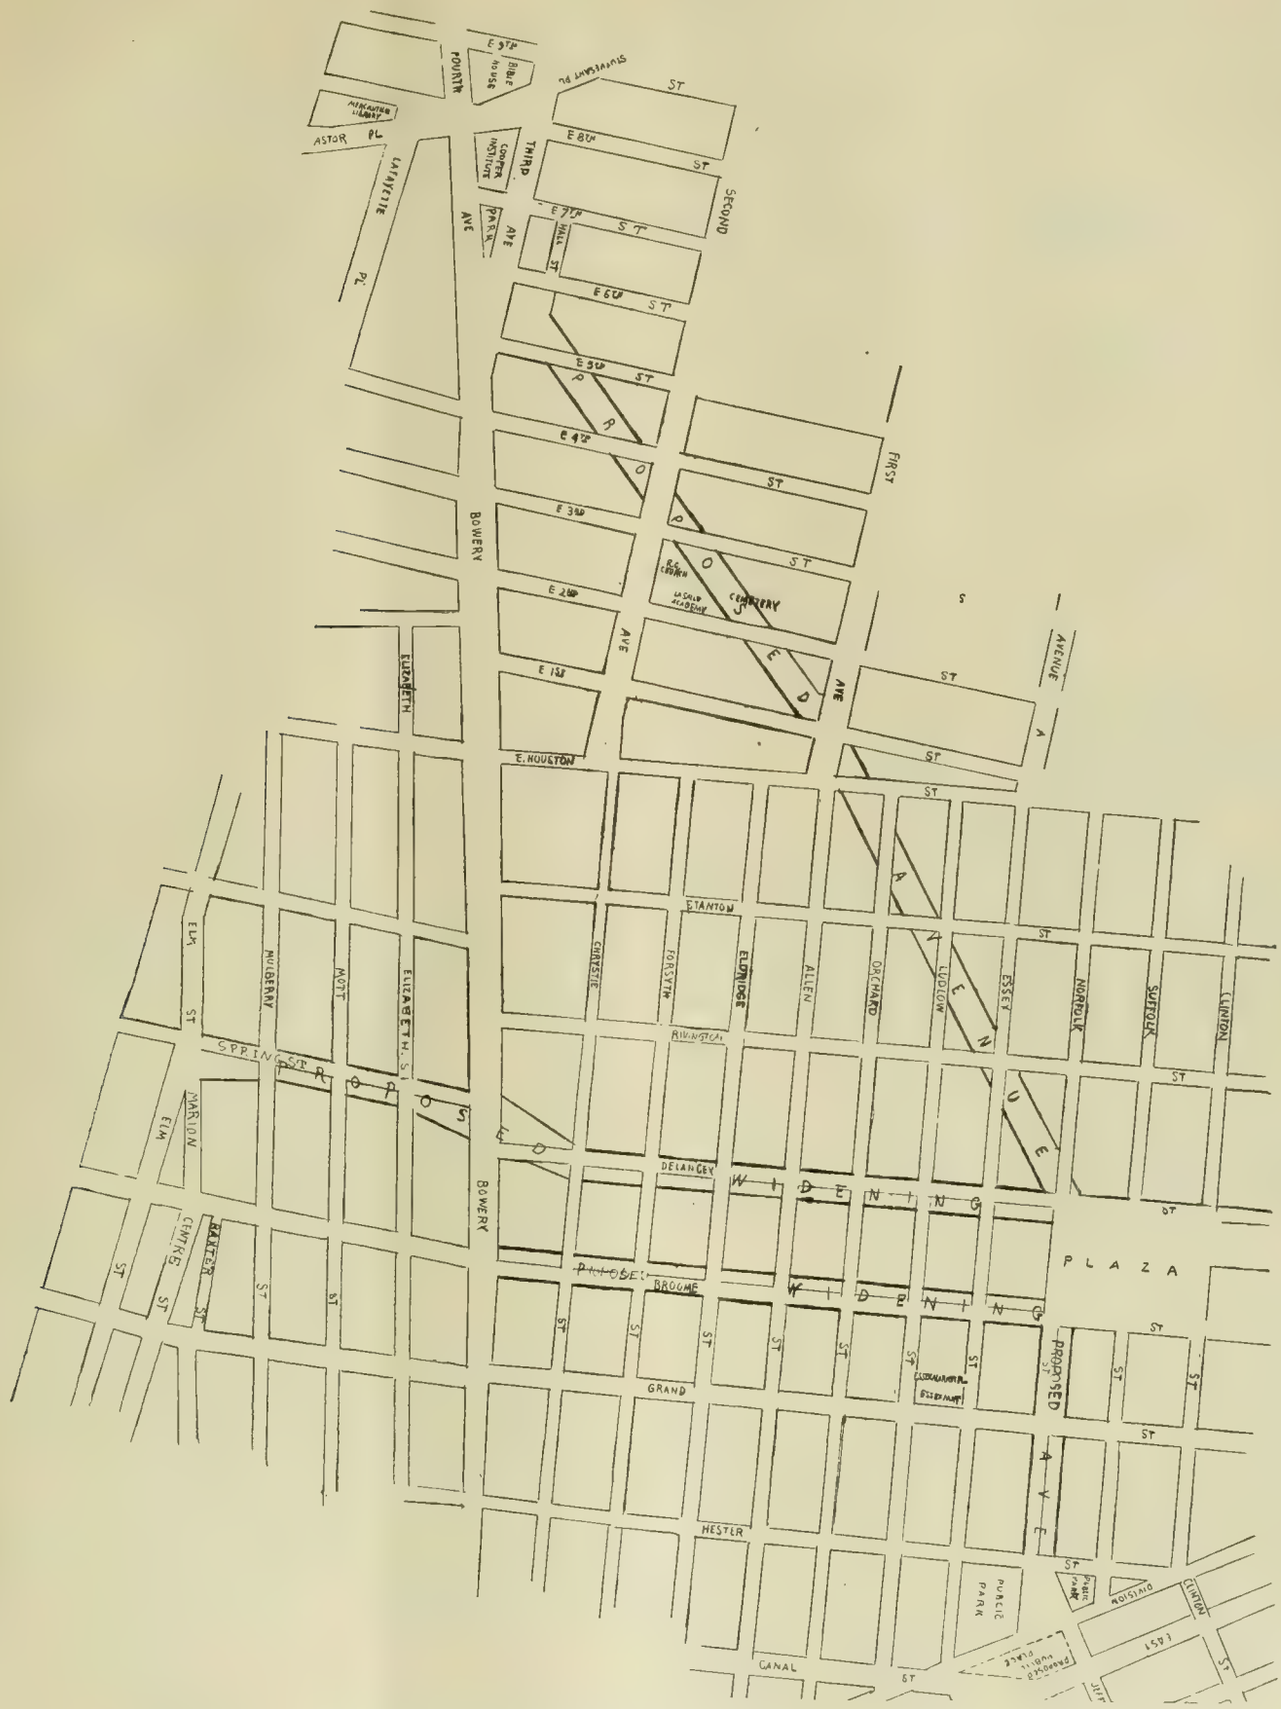
Father Doyle, of the Paulist Fathers, attended to enlist the Association in an endeavor to improve the Circle at 8th av and 59th st, with a view to insuring the safety of the public using the same. He presented plans prepared by the Municipal Art Society. The matter was referred to the Committee on Local Improvements with instructions to report at the next meeting.

Committee reports were then received. One from the Committee on Grievances was to the effect that the matter of asphalting 72d st was before the Board of Aldermen and would be watched by the committee; that the 125th st viaduct was practically finished, but could not be opened until all work was completed and accepted by city; the 96th st viaduct was still unfinished, though completion was promised about December 1st. Legislation, Law and Schools Committee reported that the small park, Broadway, corner of 63d st, had been improved and named Empire Park. The Committee on Taxation reported that the Joint Committee representing various city associations last year had preserved its organization, and was prepared to act at Albany during the coming session, the Association being represented. The Subway Special Committee reported that Contractor Bradley had appeared at a meeting of the committee and explained the status of his work. He promised to complete portions now open before opening between 71st and 80th sts, and satisfied the committee that he is doing all in his power to push work.

The Association elected to membership George Crossman, 214 W. 79th st; Charles E. Legate, 122 W. 71st st; Henry Schiff, 49 W. 91st st.

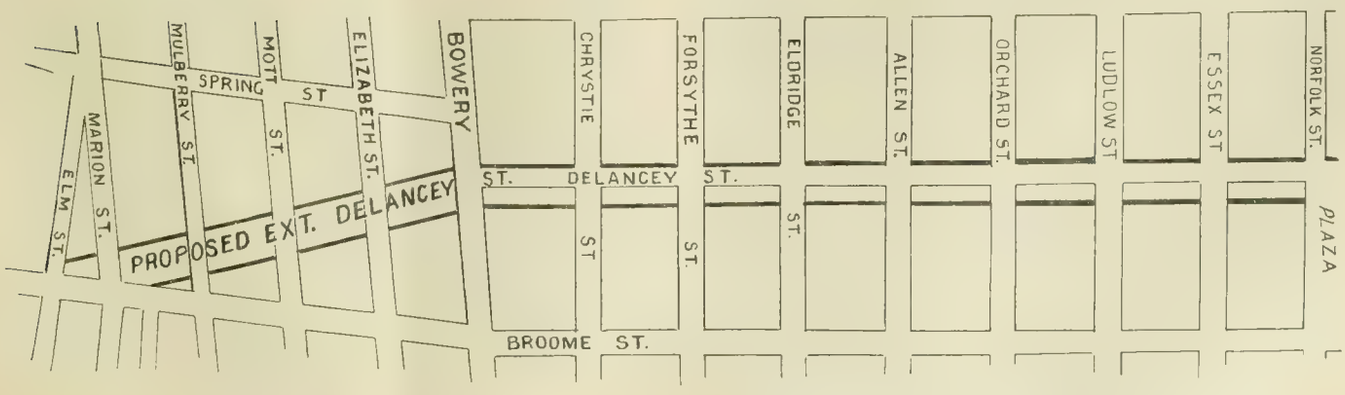
New East River Bridge Approach.

THE STRAIGHT LINE WITH AN EXTENSION OF DELANCEY STREET TO ELM STREET RECOMMENDED.



Commissioner Shea presented his report on the several suggested New East River Bridge approaches—or as the Commissioner says, street widenings beginning at the bridge approach—to the Board of Public Improvements on Wednesday. After some opposition from Comptroller-elect Grout, who claimed that the matter should be left for the determination of the incoming administration, it was decided to hold a public hearing on the report December 11th, at 2 p. m. Commissioner Shea's report, minus an introductory reference to his instructions, was as follows:

I am of opinion that the proposed diagonal approach from the bridge plaza through private property to East 6th st and 3d av, is not advisable, because of the great cost thereof and that the proposed widening of Spring st, from Bowery to Marion st, is not in my judgment, feasible, because of the width of Spring st.



I am of opinion that the widening of Delancey st as far as the Bowery by 75 feet on the south side and cutting an extension of Delancey st, through private property as far as Elm st, will bring about the most direct avenue of approach to the East River Bridge of any that has been suggested. Many of the lots on the south side of Delancey st are only 75 feet deep, and a widening of 75 feet, making Delancey st 125 feet wide, is ample for the purpose desired. The extension of Delancey st through private property west of the Bowery is made 100 feet wide, and parallel with the lot lines from the Bowery to Elm st; it diverges slightly to the south from the line of Delancey st produced.

The objection to the widening of Broome st, from the plaza to the Bowery, is that Broome st thus widened would not be in a line with the bridge, and that the plaza would have to be crossed diagonally in order to reach it.

One of the reasons for constructing a direct approach to the bridge is the aesthetic one of affording an unobstructed view of a large and imposing structure, and this would be satisfied by the Spring st plan as far as the Bowery, and to a greater extent by the plan now proposed. This direct extension of Delancey st to Elm st would afford a straighter and more convenient approach than either of the others from the Bridge to Elm st. The new street will be unobstructed by present surface tracks through its entire length, and through Broome st to West Broadway, and would in consequence afford greater convenience for carriages and trucks.

SHOWING SUGGESTED APPROACHES REFERRED TO COMMISSIONER SHEA FOR REPORT.

SHOWING COMMISSIONER SHEA'S SUGGESTED MODIFICATION OF THE STRAIGHT APPROACH.

At Centre st and Elm st it would open into downtown streets 80 feet wide, and an uptown street of the same width, and should materially facilitate communication up and down town and by Broome and Canal sts to the west side of the city.

The estimated cost of property, assessed value, of $1,600,000, while greater than than of the Broome st plan, is considerably less than that of the Spring st plan. The direct extension of Delancey st would materially benefit property west of the Bowery by creating two new street fronts, which would inevitably develop into great value.

The direct approach would better satisfy the aesthetic requirements of the problem, be more convenient to the traveling public, be cheaper than the Spring st approach, and be of greater value to the property affected than either of the other plans.

The World of Building

Material Market.

For the time of the year this market maintains a surprising buoyancy. In iron and steel the known activity has not been accompanied by much more than strength in prices. This is due to the policy of the United States Steel Co. It is entirely satisfactory to consumers, but at the same time it is necessary to the company, who are not going to invite Congressional interference with their business by radical advances in the prices of their product. On this reasoning consumers may count on steady prices for some months to come, and they are not likely to look elsewhere for supplies if this is the case. Even during the strike, when 90% of the Steel Co.'s tin plate production was cut off, the purchases of foreign plate were really not as large as they were thought to be at the time. The Treasury Department reports the import of 113,441,883 lbs. of foreign tin plate valued at $3,404,286 in the first nine months of this year, and 113,571,584 lbs., valued at $3,895,584 for the same portion of last year. No doubt these importations were proportionately greatest in the months of the strike, so that the home loss represented the increased power of production. In the first nine months of 1899, 96,279,433 lbs. of foreign tin plate only were imported, so that there was a big increase of importations in 1900, and the fact that the figures for 1901 were so little larger than those for the previous year, despite the strike, will not encourage the foreign producer.

Lumber.—This market, as a whole, remains firm and active. Offerings of Eastern spruce timber are moderate, only a limited number of random cargoes being on the market. Mills are shutting down, and it is difficult to place orders for special cargoes. White pine and yellow pine have held steady, but only a limited amount of business has been transacted. Hemlock is in excellent demand, and prices are stiff, with an advancing tendency. Mahogany and cedar have been in small supply and firm.

Lath.—There have been but moderate arrivals of Eastern spruce lath, but with dealers ready, buying prices have advanced 25c.

Bricks, Lime and Cement.—The regular monthly meeting of the Association of Brick Manufacturers and Agents was held Nov. 13th. After the meeting it was said that no business of importance was transacted. Bricks are fairly active, and as there is no more than a moderate supply, prices are very firm and advancing. Offerings of Eastern lime have been taken care of, and prices are unchanged. A steady market was reported for both Rosendale and Portland cement, and prices have remained unchanged.

Hardware.—A good undertone has been apparent in most lines of builders' hardware. Some lines, the prices of which have been recently broken, are getting into a more settled condition on the new basis. The trade generally feel that they are safe in buying for some time to come.

Nails.—The demand for wire nails has been confined almost exclusively to very ordinary-sized orders, as with the increasing competition and irregularity in prices buyers have not been disposed to make extensive purchases. The volume of business transacted, nevertheless, has reached fair proportions. The market is represented by the following prices: Small lots at store, $2.40 to $2.45. Carloads on dock, $2.30 to $2.35. Cut nails have been in fair demand at unchanged prices. The difficulty of obtaining cars interferes to some extent with prompt shipments from mill. Quotations are as follows: Carload lots on dock, $2.18. From store, $2.18 to $2.30.

Plumbers' Supplies.—Owing to the fact that no actual developments have yet occurred in the copper market, interest in the situation is acute. The impression seems to be increasing in the trade that the present prices cannot be maintained very much longer, notwithstanding that leading interests assert that there will be no decline this year. It is still impossible to obtain spot Lake below 16.85c. to 17c. Electrolytic is unchanged at 16.30c. to 16⅝c., and casting stock remains at 15⅝c. to 16⅝c., according to brand. Pig tin has been dull and uneventful. The amount of business transacted for consumptive account was very small, consumers limiting their purchases to what they need for immediate use. The market is steady, with spot quoted at 25.30c. to 25.50c. The demand for sheet copper keeps up in good volume and the mills are turning out a considerable product, which is said to be going into consumption nearly as fast as made. Prices are firm, sheet copper from store being quoted on the basis of 21c. per lb. Pig lead continues quiet but steady. Consumers are buying little beyond the limits of their current needs. American pig in small lots is quoted at 4.62½c. to 4¾c. per lb. A meeting of lead producers has been called for November 25th in New York City, to discuss the question of prices and production. Spelter remains quiet but firm, owing to a continued scarcity of spot stock. Prices remain unchanged. The demand for sheet zinc is of ordinary type, and prices are without change. Tin plate shows no features of special interest. The American Tin Plate Company are selling only for the first quarter of next year at prices now prevailing. The demand for sheets is still very active, and deliveries are about as hard to get as at any time during the year. The mills are still from two to three months behind on orders. Prices continue firm, jobbers quoting No. 27 one pass cold rolled soft steel sheets at about 4.15c., and galvanized at 65 to 67½ per cent. off the list.

Paints and Colors.—The unusually bright dry fall has made this market unusually lively. Dealers in paint pronounce this the most prosperous fall in many years. Leads are especially brisk, as both glass and rubber manufacturers are heavy buyers in the market. There has been no quotable change in prices. Colors in oil were firm, and slight advances were announced. There is a pressing demand for dry colors, but prices have held steadily at the old quotations.

Linseed Oil.—Announcement was made Wednesday that the American Linseed Oil Company had made a cut of 5 cents in the price of linseed oil to 60 cents for five-barrel lots of raw. This cut will compel a proportionate reduction by the independent crushers, as the latter always undersell the combine. Ten days ago the management of the American Company changed hands, and ever since flax seed has been arriving at the company's mills, many of which had been idle for some time. The natural demand for oil is bound to decrease from now on, as outdoor painting will soon be abandoned for the winter.

Glass.—Since the recent cut in window glass, trading has been dull, owing to the unsettled conditions and the probability that prices will be lower before December 1. The late reduction was made on the first three brackets, and 85 and 20 per cent. off, are the present quotations. An important meeting will be held in Chicago on November 19, at which both jobbers and manufacturers will be represented. WOOD THAT WILL NOT BURN.

As a result of tests made under their supervision, the Department of Buildings have approved the wood treated by the Ferrell process, which is owned by the New York Fire-Proof Wood Co., for use under Section 105 of the Building Code, which requires all floors and window jams in certain buildings to be of fireproof material. The company is now issuing an illustrated pamphlet giving an interesting statement of the reasons why fireproof wood should be used where large numbers of people gather—as in buildings and ships—and the awful consequences that have only too often followed the use of wood not so treated and exposed to danger of ignition. The pamphlet also describes the company's purposes; their works at Ravenswood, Long Island City, and what they claim for the Ferrell process, of which they are the exclusive owners, and the severe tests to which wood treated by this process have been subjected, as well as the results. As to the latter, the certificate of the Department of Buildings already referred to, shows that they were entirely satisfactory. This is supplemented by reports of home and foreign chemists of an equally assuring nature. The company have a large capital and plant. The President is Walter Geer, and their main office No. 1 Madison av.

The long-established and successful Material Men's Mercantile Association, of No. 154 Nassau st, continue to serve very many of the leading dealers in building materials with reports, ratings of builders and information of a reliable character that can only be gained by specialists of the best class.

The new addition to the Hotel Martinique, now building on Broadway, between 32d and 33d sts, is undoubtedly the most thoroughly fireproof hotel structure ever erected, as, in addition to all the usual fireproof construction employed, all of the woodwork for this building has been rendered absolutely incombustible. This is the first hotel building in the world to make use of fireproofed wood throughout.

The Fordham Stone Renovating Co., established 1883, are now engaged on the Brick Church, northwest corner of 5th av and 37th st; St. Vincent de Paul Orphan Asylum, Nos. 211-217 West 39th st; and the Assay Building, on Wall st, next to the Treasury Building. These tests will take place at the Testing Station, north side of East 105th st, adjoining the Harlem River.

James H. Havens, who has been in the lumber business in New York for over thirty years, and a successful builder for about fifteen years, made an assignment yesterday morning to Robert C. Winters,, another old builder. Mr. Haven's liabilities are roughly estimated at $70,000, of which $20,000 are secured debts. The lumber business was owned by the firm of James H. Havens & Son, the son having been taken into the firm in 1872, and it was sold to William E. Paine, Vice-President and Treasurer of the Carroll Box and Lumber Company. It was understood that a corporation, to be known as the Havens Lumber Company, was to take over the business.

FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF BUILDINGS.

John L. Jordan, builder, of No. 449 West 28th st, is reported to have the support of John C. Sheehan in a candidature for the position of Superintendent of Buildings in the office of the President of the Borough of Manhattan. Jacob A. Cantor is quoted as saying that "there are four names now on the list, but I do not care to give them publicity, for it is not very probable that any one of them will be appointed. Mr. Jordan, though I have no personal knowledge of him whatever, is, I understand, a builder of experience. The appointment will certainly be made before December 15, in order to give the new man time to familiarize himself with the duties of his office. I shall probably not announce his name much before that time, and at present have no candidate in view who seems at all sure of the position."

Questions and Answers.

COMMISSIONS.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

It is the general custom for an agent of an apartment house not to charge any commission as a broker for securing tenants (expecting to be reimbursed by his agency commission). If his agency is terminated before the end of one year from the beginning of the leases of such tenants as he has secured, is he entitled to the usual brokerage commission, less what he has charged from month to month for collecting rents of said tenants, on such leases as he has made?

Answer.—No.—Law Editor.

LIABILITY OF CONTRACTOR.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

A takes a general contract and sublets part of said contract to B, and B, in turn, sublets the work given him to C. Can C hold A responsible for any money that may be due him by B, in case of B's failure or neglect to pay C? This refers to city work only.

Answer.—If A has paid B all that is coming to the latter C can make no claim against A. If otherwise and there is still money coming to A from the city, C may protect himself by filing a notice of mechanic's lien, if he does it within the statutory time.—Law Editor.

HUSBAND'S SHARE IN DECEASED WIFE'S ESTATE.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

While looking over one of the copies of the Record and Guide I noticed an article upon a question that I thought fully settled to my satisfaction. It was this. I am a married man without any children. I hold no real estate, only personal property, and that is in my wife's name. My wife has brothers, sisters and a mother living. The question I wish settled is this: If the wife should die without making a will, will all my personal property, say moneys in bank, jewelry, household furniture and also personal property belonging to wife revert back to the husband, or would the law step in and portion some off to the mentioned brother, sisters and mother of the wife, and the husband receive only the portion the law should allow the husband?

Answer.—If your wife should die intestate the law would give you the whole of her estate remaining after the payment of her funeral expenses, debts, etc., up to the sum of two thousand dollars. If the surplus of the estate, after the payment of the debts, etc., exceeds two thousand dollars, the law gives you in addition to the two thousand dollars only one-half of the excess. You should have your wife execute a will in your favor.—Law Editor.

While real estate in this borough cannot be said to be at all lively, its potentialities for improvement are dwelt upon a good deal, and with justice, because they are not only great but also comparatively near at hand. The coming increase of facilities of communication have not exerted their influence yet, especially if they are considered with the statistics relating to population. The latter are remarkably encouraging, as will be seen by the quotation of a few figures:

The population of the whole country increased from 1890 to 1900 20.8 per cent., the population living in cities of 200,000 and over increased 32.6 per cent., and in Brooklyn the percentage was 39.1. The population of Brooklyn for each census year, beginning with 1790, was as follows: 1790, 4,495; 1800, 5,740; 1810, 8,303; 1820, 11,187; 1830, 20,535; 1840, 47,617; 1850, 138,882; 1860, 279,122; 1870, 419,921; 1880, 599,495; 1890, 838,547; 1900, 1,166,582. Since 1860 Brooklyn has enjoyed a growth which, both for rate and constancy, is exceptional among American cities. The rate for each decade has been near 40 per cent., and if this rate continues this borough will have 1,633,215 inhabitants in 1910 and 2,286,501 in 1920. In other words, Brooklyn is doubling her population every twenty years.

Admitting that this growth of population already attained has depended more or less upon the connection with Manhattan, it follows that with the connection made closer and ampler means of communication made, the borough will attract to itself many of the people who are now compelled to move in other directions because of the paucity of the communications between the two boroughs, and the ratio of growth and population makes the value of real estate.

Montague st auction room presented a livelier appearance this week than it has done for some time. There was a good deal of property disposed of at satisfactory prices. The Lynan sale, by Thomas A. Kerrigan, was particularly successful, all the parcels offered having been sold at gratifying figures. For the coming week several interesting sales are scheduled, among them the Hunt estate lots by D. & M. Chauncey Real Estate Co., Limited, to which further reference is made elsewhere.

At the hearing on Tuesday next before the State Railroad Commission the application of the Rapid Transit people for permission to close downtown stations on the elevated roads, will be fiercely opposed. Particularly will opposition come from the neighborhoods of Boerum place and Flatbush av stations.

The Underground Rapid Transit Railroad in this borough is to have six stations: In Manhattan, at Fulton st, Wall st, and on Bowling Green, near Pearl st; in Brooklyn, at the Borough Hall, Fulton st, and at Flatbush and Atlantic avs, trains being operated from the City Hall in Manhattan to the Brooklyn terminal at Flatbush and Atlantic avs. About 480 cars, or eight each minute, will be operated. These cars will accommodate 100 passengers each, although the seating capacity of each would be but forty-eight. The speed would range from fourteen to twenty miles an hour, according to the distances between stations, at which only ten seconds will be allowed for stops.

CONVEYANCES.

Whenever the letters Q. C., C. a. G. and B. & S. occur, preceded by the name of the grantee, they mean as follows:

1st.—Q. C. is an abbreviation for Quit Claim deed, i. e., a deed wherein all the right, title and interest of the grantor is conveyed, omitting all covenants or warranty.

2d.—C. a. G. means a deed containing a Covenant against Grantor only, in which he covenants that he hath not done ay act whereby the estate conveyed can be impeached, charged or encumbered.

3d.—B. & S. is an abbreviation for Bargain and Sale deed, wherein, although the seller makes no express covenants, he really grants or conveys the property for a valuable consideration, and thus impliedly claims to be the owner of it. The street and avenue numbers given in these lists are, in all cases, taken from the Insurance maps when they are not mentioned in the deeds. The numbers, it will occasionally be found, do not correspond with the existing ones, owing to their having been no official designation made of them by the Department of Public Works.

4th.—The first date is the date the deed was drawn. The second date is the date of filing same. When both dates are the same, only one is given.

5th.—The figures in each conveyance, thus, 2:482, denote that the property is in section 2 block 482.

6th.—It should also be noted in section and block numbers, the instrument as filed is strictly followed.

7th.—The letters R. S. mean Revenue Stamp, as R. S. $8.00 means Revenue Stamp $8.00.

Tax on Conveyances executed prior to July 1st, 1901, on $100 to $500, 50c., and for each additional $500 or fraction thereof, 50c.; on Conveyances executed on and after July 1st, 1901, 25c., where consideration exceeds $2,500 and is not more than $3,000, and 25c. for each additional $500 or fraction thereof.

November 8, 9, 11, 12, 13 and 14.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as head lines are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date.

The first date is the date the mortgage is drawn, the second the date of filing; when both dates are the same, only one is given.

Subscribers will find Mortgages in this list with the wrong block number attached. The block number we give is taken from the instrument as filed.

Mortgages against Bronx property will be found altogether at the foot of this list.

November 8, 9, 11, 12, 13 and 14.

[1]Editor of the Record and Guide:

A mechanic's lien was filed against our building on the 12th of November by David H. Spring for the sum of nineteen hundred and seventy-eight dollars. We owe this man nothing; in fact have paid him to date more than he is entitled to, and we propose to bond this lien and take such action against him as we may deem advisable for his unjustifiable action.

The Collins Building & Construction Co.

[1]Editor Record and Guide:

C. W. Dean, agent of the Mount Holly Brick & Clay Company, begs to say that their firm never had direct dealings with the firm of H. M. Weed & Company, or Hamilton M. Weed, and that he is convinced upon examination of the matters laid before him by H. M. Weed & Company that the statements contained in the notice of lien filed November 12th, 1901, are not borne out by the accounts submitted by H. M. Weed & Company, and after an examination of those details, has become convinced that there was no basis for the lien and the same has been satisfied. This statement is made for the purpose of all possible reparation for any injury done that firm or Hamilton M. Weed by the published statement of a claim or lien against Hamilton M. Weed or the firm of which he is a member.

C. W. Dean, Agent Mt. Holly Brick & Clay Co.

Vol. LXVIII. NOVEMBER 23, 1901. No. 1758.

LAST week we pointed out the uncertainties of the exchange situation, and this found verification in the movements of gold this week—heavy shipments in the early and cancellations in the later part. At the same time our mail brings British financial papers recording the relief only expressed at the time of their mailing, at the passing of the danger of a demand from the United States itself on Europe for gold. After this, it is supererogatory to point out that the monetary situation is as impenetrable as it is uncertain. The circumstances bring our market into close relations with the European markets, and the condition is admittedly unsatisfactory. The relief afforded by the already heavy shipments of gold from this side has not been sufficient to enable the Bank of England to reduce its discount rate from the high figure of 4 per cent., and the distress in industrial circles, as well as the heavy failures of the year makes the present season, always one of some scarcity, one of unusual anxiety and tension. The best that can be said of the case is that with ample warning and apparently careful preparation for an emergency, the crisis will probably pass before the close of the year, without much more damage than ordinarily comes from some stringency and pinching here and there. As to our own case, December is usually a month of high money rates and falling prices, and, although last December was a notable exception to the rule, it looks as if precedent is going to be followed this year. Already the movement of gold and the advances in the home rates for money have scared away most of the outside buying and, while pool and professional operations manage to give an appearance of liveliness to the stock market, and create some marvelous turns in the day to day aspect of things, the situation is not satisfactory enough to warrant the expression of optimistic conclusions as to the movements of prices, the admitted excellent condition of general business and the prosperity of the railroads notwithstanding.

AN address was delivered one day this week by Robert De Forest who, it will be remembered, was chairman of the late Tenement House Commission, which, as reported by the daily press, contains some puzzling statements. Mr. De Forest is reported to have declared: "The tenement house dweller does not ask charity, but demands as his right, simple justice." Simple justice from whom? From the community who have, according to his friends, neglected him, or the landlord, who has kept all his contracts with him? Then further Mr. De Forest is reported to have said: "Justice to the working classes is not the only reason why we should improve their housing conditions, charity to ourselves is quite as cogent. Putting the question on the lowest plane of self-interest, will it not pay all of us to be better protected from moral and physical contagion, even if it involve a loss to our pockets?" What are we to understand from this? Is it an admission that the leaders in tenement house reform have at last reached the conclusion that the heavy pecuniary sacrifices they demand for bettering the conditions of the tenement house should be borne by the community and not by the landlords as such alone? Mr. De Forest has been mentioned as the gentleman who will undertake the task of forming the new Tenement House Department, and administering the tenement house law; and, until the doubts created by his speech are cleared up, it will not be possible to determine whether his appointment, if made, would be an intimation to the owners of tenement houses, that they could consult their lawyers as to what protection they could obtain in the courts against the obnoxious provisions of the law, or as an intimation that they will not be required to pay for that "charity" to the community, whose cogency Mr. De Forest himself has admitted and urged, except, of course, as taxpayers, in common with the owners of other classes of property. It would be obviously unfair that one part of the community should alone pay the cost of so great a benefit to the whole; and yet, if it should be proposed to make a common charge of it, what will the other part say? Such a proposition would certainly test the sincerity and reveal the true extent of the desire for tenement reform and place it on a better basis of "simple justive," than it has hitherto stood upon.

The Debt Limit.

AS were the present, the incoming administration are threatened, at the opening of their term, with a temporary exhaustion of the city's credit for raising money to make improvements; that is to say, that owing to the appropriations that must be made for work in hand, or pledged, and to the constitutional limit on the borrowing powers of the city, there will be no margin on January 1 on which to order new works of public utility. Four years ago the city's credit was swamped by the bunching into a common obligation of the newly consolidated city, all the debts of the constituent cities, towns and villages, and the embarrassment was very great until by a violent increase in real estate valuations a new margin was created and public work could be resumed. This has been, however, in a sort of hand to mouth way, wholly inadequate to the needs of the community, because financial conditions would not permit the making of a programme more comprehensive or scientific. Comptroller Coler has stated that when Mr. Low takes office, the legal debt limit will have been reached; that is to say, the city's bonds outstanding will equal the ten per cent. of the real estate valuation to which they are restricted by the Constitution of the State. Consequently, with every one of the five boroughs clamoring for and needing works of development, the new administration, like the old, will not be able to do anything until the new valuations are confirmed next July, and not much then, because it is not probable that the tithe of the increase will exceed $7,000,000 or $8,000,000.

It is singular, that, although it has been apparent for a good many years that the limitation of its borrowing powers was embarrassing to a city of the size and importance of this, only one official, the present Comptroller, has suggested a remedy, and, although municipal questions are common subjects of discussion in the press, only one journal, the Record and Guide, has pointed a way out of the difficulty. This shows how perfunctive are official, and how merely commentative journalist views of the important problems involved in municipal government. Prior to consolidation, the Record and Guide, forseeing the embarrassments likely to come upon the city, because of its manifold wants and limited credit, suggested that the municipal means should be supplemented by calling in the aid of private capital to carry out some of the work that need not be the exclusive task of the municipality, so that all the funds the law allowed the city to create could be concentrated upon work that only the city could do. The development of the docks under long leases might be given as an instance of the one, and the building of bridges as an instance of the other. Comptroller Coler's remedy is the exclusion from the constitutional limit of debt incurred for works that are self-sustaining, such as docks, water supply and rapid transit. Both suggestions contemplate final ownership, free and clear of the improvements, by the city, in one case by the expiring of leases, and in the other by the operation of a sinking fund. The Comptroller's suggestion will probably find quickest sympathy with the public, not only because he speaks with a very potent voice, but also because it is more easily understood and does no damage to much favored though little understood ideas involved in the term "municipal ownership." Its disadvantages lie in the facts, that it takes three years, under favorable circumstances to obtain an amendment of the constitution, and that it is somewhat difficult to say in advance what will be self-sustaining works. On the other hand, the Legislature could, in one session, empower the city to treat with private capital for the execution of certain public works, and once begun, the system would be capable of indefinite expansion.

Every day is making it still more certain that something will have to be done to elasticize the city's financial system, especially in the credit department. The means at its disposal for carrying out its gigantic work are wholly inadequate. This was shown while making up the last budget, when the head of the Department of Education stated that that department ought to have a yearly increase of $5,000,000 to carry out its work efficiently; now the average annual increase in the borrowing power is about $8,000,000. It may be said that each and every department is annually turned away from the Board of Estimate dissatisfied. Not only are the borrowing powers of the city inadequate to meet present demands, but the future will see new ones arise. We are traveling the road already traversed by London in the matter of the housing of the poor so closely—discouraging the investment of private capital in suitable buildings—that we must inevitably reach the same goal, viz., municipal tenement building. This done with merely approximate sufficiency, will necessitate the expenditure of many millions of dollars annually. Judging by the statistics of intermural travel, the system of underground rapid transit railroad, now in construction, will be no more than completed, when the necessity for new lines will have appeared. All this shows that one of, if not the first reform undertaken by the new administration, should be that of the financial system upon which the physical development of the city depends.

The Real Estate Situation

No new tendencies of any importance have been developed in the real estate market during the week, but it is astonishing how persistently the tendencies which have formed the market during the past six months continue to be pervasive and dominant. Each week there are several sales in the middle district of 5th avenue, every one of which contributes directly to the transformation of that avenue into a fashionable shopping thoroughfare. Within the past year fully a dozen important shops, formerly situated at or near the juncture of 23d street and Broadway, have removed to the middle district of 5th avenue; and probably as many more removals, beginning with that of the Aeolian Company will take place during the coming year. During the past week, No. 146 5th avenue has been bought by a Western publishing house, and 581 5th avenue has been sold to a purchaser, whose only use for it must be its reconstruction for business purposes. Important sales have also been made in a number of instances on the side streets west of 5th avenue—on 43d street, for instance, 44th, 46th and other streets up to the Park. There is no apparent falling off in the demand for expensive residences, either on the east and on the west sides; and this demand continues to be, perhaps, the most important and wholesome factor in the market. It is leading to the tearing down of five apartment houses on 51st street, east of 5th avenue, for the purpose of building residences on the site, and before long is likely to lead to similar operations on the upper east side. The most interesting single piece of news in the budget of the week is the announcement that tne Juillard estate has concluded arrangements with the Studebaker Manufacturing Company to erect for the latter a nine-story store and loft building on the north side of 48th street, extending from Broadway to 7th avenue, on a twenty-one years' lease. This is the first indication, since the beginning of speculative activity in real estate on or near Long Acre Square that the carriage trade, which has given character to the region just north of the Square, has no intention of yielding place to apartment. hotels and theatres. This trade, it is interesting to notice, is one of the least concentrated of the important trades. Shops and warerooms of carriage manufacturers are scattered all over the city; but so far as it is segregated at all, it is located near the important stables between Central Park and Long Acre Square. There are about a dozen sales of Washington Heights property, but none of them means the renewal of improvements in that section. A hearing upon the street plan recently proposed by the Board of Publis Improvements has been announced for December 4, and should be attended by every one interested in the building up of that important section. When the time has come for speculative building operations on a large scale along Washington Heights, they should not be hindered and embarrassed by the backward condition of necessary street opening proceedings.

Current Tendencies.

After a period of fully seven months, during which no plans for new buildings, except a few residences, were filed to be erected on the west side, the spell has been broken by the appearance in the records of a couple of projected apartment hotels for that section. One of these hotels is to be situated on a corner of 77th street and Broadway, and the other on a corner of 79th street and Amsterdam avenue. Both the character and the location of these buildings are interesting. That on Broadis in the line of recent improvements. A number of large apartment hotels and houses have been, or are being erected in the vicinity of Broadway and 72d street. The neighborhood is becoming the center around which are grouped the largest buildings of this kind on the west side. The Amsterdam avenue hotel comes, however, under a different heading. Amsterdam avenue has never in the past been considered an advantageous location for apartment hotels; and obviously any hotel erected on that avenue would necessarily appeal to a comparatively cheap class of tenants. That this is so in the present case may be inferred from the fact that the hotel on Amsterdam avenue, although but one story lower than that on Broadway, is to cost only half as much. It would seem, consequently, as if in this hotel an attempt would be made to furnish the ordinary hotel apartment of two rooms and a bath at a lower rental than has hitherto been customary. Apartment hotels have appealed hitherto to relatively well-to-do people—people who could afford to pay from $60 up for their accommodations. But obviously there is money to be made in erecting hotels, in which the minimum rental would be about $35 or $40 for two rooms and a bath, because there are plenty of people who would like to live in that way, but who cannot afford the higher prices. There are many such families who live in boarding houses at the present time, but who would much prefer the better and more private accommodations of an apartment hotel. It should be possible to erect a building in a sufficiently good location which would answer to these conditions; and it looks as if the one just proposed for Amsterdam avenue will supply the need.

Apartment Hotels on the West Side.

THE story that comes from London about a projected office building there, that would make even our largest appear small by comparison, should not be accepted too readily. The American who is named in this affair is the gentleman who delayed the awarding of the contract for building the rapid transit railroad to its present possessor; and who, when the Brooklyn extension was adopted made a great show of being just about to construct a tunnel under the East River, but did not do so. His ability to get into the newspaper stages of works that have no practical ones, is truly remarkable, and now he seems to have managed to make the London papers give him as much personal advertising as the New York papers had previously done.

IT is difficult to escape the impression that the proximate liberalizing of our tariff laws, and the encouragement of foreign trade by means of reciprocity treaties will not have the easy victory over the opposing policy that seemed at one time probable. The supporters of the reciprocity treaties do most of the talking; but their opponents appear to possess the real political power. The latter are not saying very much; but indications are constantly cropping out that the party traditions, and the general fear of re-opening the tariff question may well defeat any reciprocity arrangement. It is stated in the Washington dispatches that the New England Senators, who have been largely responsible for the neglect of the treaties negotiated under the Dingley act have not abated one jot of their opposition to those treaties, and yet these same treaties apply the principle of reciprocity with the utmost conservatism; they represent the minimum of anything which can properly be called reciprocity. If these treaties cannot be passed no reciprocal arrangements with foreign countries that will really increase trade are at the present time political possibilities in this country. The difficulty always is that no existing interest will consent to the smallest abatement of the protection, which it now obtains; and as Congress is habituated to acting according to the demands of powerful and insistent special interests, rather than according to the less definite and less powerful public interest, there is a large probability that the special interests will again prevail. Even an industry such as the manufacture of steel, which has shown plainly its ability to defy foreign competition will not consent to a cutting of the smallest door in the protectionist walls; and other less triumphant industries are naturally even more timorous. In fact protectionist countries all over the world are occupying more and more the position of being unwilling to concede anything in return for the favors they seek. The French peasantry are indignant, because such a heavy duty is placed by Russia on the introduction of their wine into that country; but the notion of reducing French duties on agricultural products in return for a reduction of Russian duties on wine is scouted as absurd. So far as our own country is concerned there can be no doubt that a persistence in this policy of commercial exclusiveness, coupled with a like persistency in the ability of American producers to undersell those of foreign countries can only end in the practical exclusion of many if not most American products from foreign countries.

ALBANY dispatches indicate that the message of Governor Odell will be framed along the same lines as last year, and will propose further reductions in State expenditures, and possibly further modifications of the State tax system. According to authoritative accounts the Governor will not be content until the general State tax levy is entirely, and so far as he can manage it, permanently abolished. This result can be temporarily accomplished during the coming fiscal year, because there is at present a surplus in the State treasury of $8,300,000, due to the unexpected productivity of some of the special taxes, and there is no reason why this surplus should not be applied to the expenses of next year; moveover, it is entirely possible that this result can be made permanent. Additional special taxes yielding a few million dollars more would be sufficient for the purpose. The final consummation of this result would not only be a long step in the direction of a more scientific system of taxation, but would mean, also, a material decrease of the tax burdens on New York real estate. Real estate is a kind of property too local in its nature to be equitably used for purposes of State taxation.

GERMANY is coming in for a great deal of abuse, because of the proposed increase of duties upon agricultural imports; but much of this abuse fails to take into account the complexity and difficulty of the tariff problem, which German statesmen have to face. The empire as an economic organism is at present in the process of transition from an agricultural to an industrial basis, just as England was from 1820 to 1850. The enormous prosperity, until recently, of the German industrial centers has tended to drain the farming districts of available labor, and has much increased the expense and difficulty of raising agricultural products; and this, together with the increased competition of the United States and Russia, has really imperilled German agrarian interests. Prussian country squires are enormously powerful both in the administrative and legislative departments of the government; and it is no wonder that they are exercising that power to preserve, as they believe, at once their own interests, and those of agriculture generally. Moreover the question is not one in Germany merely of running to the rescue of a favored class; it is believed to be a question of national security. If the prevailing tendency continued for another twenty-five years unchecked, Germany might become like England, dependent upon other countries for her food supply; and that is a danger which cannot be considered with equanimity by the statesmen of a military monarchy. England's position in case of war is tolerable only because her fleet is supposed to control the water-routes. Should Germany also become largely dependent upon foreign countries for her food-supply the larger proportion of that supply would probably also be raised in transoceanic countries, and Germany in order to protect that supply would practically be obliged to build a fleet second only to England. Even then, her position would be extremely unsafe in case of a war with that country. In short a nation, situated as Germany is, almost surrounded by enemies, is obliged to subordinate commercial to political and military considerations; and she has in consequence an extremely hard problem to solve. The method she is adopting—that of trying artificially to keep the population on the land—may not be the best method. It may fail, as many economists think, to stop the current of population toward the towns; it may embitter an ill-disposed nation like Russia; it may sever her alliance with a well-disposed one, like Austria-Hungary; but whether wise or unwise, her policy of trying to retain the better part of her domestic food production is natural, and deserved a further trial. Her whole situation is one unparalleled in history, and will need for its final solution great patience on the part of the people, and far-seeing statesmanship on the part of her rulers.

Ante-New Law Tenements.

AN EXPERT VIEW ON COST OF ALTERATIONS REQUIRED BY NEW LAW.

Most owners of and agents for old-law tenements are living in the confident expectation that the new Tenement House Law as it relates to this class of tenement houses will be either repealed, or its provisions very materially modified. A number of agents controlling together some thousands of these houses were asked this week whether they were having estimates made of the cost of the alterations required by the law, and the reply in each case was in effect: "No, we are waiting to see what the Legislature will do, or for some decisive official action."

As a matter of fact, theirs is not simply a waiting attitude, because in more than one direction some form of organization is being made to go to Albany and ask for a change of the law, or to resist its enforcement in the courts; and perhaps both. It is even reported that some of the members of the late Tenement House Commission are now willing that the law shall be modified, though to what extent and in what direction is not stated.

Regarding the cost of the alterations required by the law one experienced agent very properly pointed out that this would never be rightly determined until the work of ripping out was begun, and, therefore, all estimates thus far made must be considered as below the mark. All practical men who are consulted place this cost at much higher figures than do those who, as the sponsors of the law, are concerned with its success. In following up this line of the discussion, a representative of the Record and Guide called on Geo. J. Kenny, of East Houston st, to get his views. Mr. Kenny was selected because he was one of the specialists asked by the Tenement House Commission to make a report on the cost and income of a modern lower East Side tenement, which he did. His report made good copy, and was published in the Record and Guide last spring. Presumably, therefore, Mr. Kenny will be accepted as an authority on both sides, and as a conservative man.

He was asked as a matter of form whether he had charge of any property which required alteration under the law?

"Out of about 250 parcels that we represent, located on the lower East Side, between 14th st and the Battery," said he, "about half consist of houses erected under the old plans. Some of these are 5-sty front and 5-sty rear tenements, on lots 25x100. These, I hold, are better than modern tenements with respect to light and ventilation, because they consist of one house 25x50, lighted from the street, and a 25-ft. yard, and another 25x25, lighted from the yard. Such buildings will not require altering under the new law, though they will require the changes of the toilets specified.

"We have also quite a number of houses 75 to 80 ft. deep, on lots 25x100, built without air shafts, having stores in the first floor and with 12 rooms on each floor above, accommodating 4 families on a floor, with 3 rooms each, known as kitchen, bedroom and living room. The toilets are in the yards. They are what is generally known as cold-water flats. Now, under the law, it would be necessary to put air shafts into these buildings."

"But how about cutting windows in the first partition and taking out the second, as has been suggested?"

Mr. Kenny gave a glance as if inquiring whether his questioner was serious. But he had evidently learned in a long experience with tenants that it is easier to answer a frivolous question seriously than to resent its frivolity.

"That is, make the kitchen and bedroom one? I don't think that would do. In fact, I am sure it wouldn't do. As an agent, I would not recommend it, and I do not think I would care to have charge of such a property."

"Then you would have to put in air shafts?"

"That would be the best way to meet the situation, having regard to the rental value of the property."

"That being so, what would be the cost of making such a house as that you describe comply with the law?"

After figuring for some time, Mr. Kenny concluded that a bottom figure would be $3,500, and having come to this decision, followed it further, and said: "When the alterations were made there would be two rooms less on each floor, and rents for these houses are based on the number of rooms in an apartment. There would be a loss of 8 rooms, worth, say, $4 a month each, or a total of $32 a month and $384 a year for the building."

"But the shafts would leave some additional closet space, and would give better light to the inner rooms; should not something be allowed for that?"

"No, I think not. If a few houses only had these additional advantages, there might be, but with all changed, and the competition of the later-built houses considered, I think we must consider all rooms lost would make a loss in rents according to the prevailing rent per room."

"Now, what effect would this have on the investment?"

"There would be an addition to capital account of $3,500, and (again working with pencil and paper) a loss of rents of $384, equal to five per cent. on $7,680, or together a capital difference of $11,180. As a rule the equity in a house of this kind is about thirty per cent. On a house worth from $24,000 to $27,000 there is a mortgage of from $15,000 to $16,000. Income would be reduced by $175 increased interest charge and by $384 loss of rentals, or together $559. The result of this would be that where the equity is more than twenty-five per cent., the owner might make the alterations and still have a balance of income, but where it is less it will be a serious question whether it would pay the owner to make the changes."

"Supposing the owner wished to make the changes and had not the money, do you think he could raise it on the property?"

"Where the mortgage is already seventy-five per cent. I think not; especially, not in the face of the reduced income."

"Admitting that these alterations, if made at all, would have to be made largely on borrowed money, do you think the market would supply it?"

Mr. Kenny went to figuring again, during which the expression on his face indicated that he had made a discovery which had a great effect on his mind. This was not surprising when the result of his work was seen. He estimated the average cost of the alterations at $2,000 per house, and the number of houses requiring alteration at 40,000; then multiplying the dollars by the houses he had a sum of $80,000,000.

"No, I do not," he said, "particularly when the houses are already mortgaged for two-thirds of their value, and that the increased debt would be accompanied by decreased rentals."

MR. VEILLER'S ESTIMATE.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Dear Sir: Referring to the estimate of Mr. Veiller in the Record and Guide of Nov. 9th, I call your attention to some items he forgot to figure on: Painting of the sash and frames and walls, woodwork, kalsomining ceilings of rooms in which shaft is to be placed, and, in some cases plastering, repair of door openings, etc., plumbing work for drainage shaft, cutting up cellar flooring and concreting again; cost of plans and specifications—and where does the contractor come in? Can widows, guardians, executors, or business men not builders make these alterations themselves? How about loss of rent and finding new tenants? Did anybody ever know of a tenant paying rent while extensive alterations were going on in or through his apartment?

The most conspicuous fault in the law is requiring the removal of skylight from top of inside lathed and plastered shafts. Some may say line the shafts with metal, but how can dampness be kept out of open shafts lined with metal when the walls are thin lath and plaster under the metal? In the plan given in your issue of Nov. 2d, there are four shafts, and all the tops must be removed, shafts carried down to cellar in order to hold snow and rain, and drain to sewer on four sides; sash and frames to be made tight throughout the four shafts, tops of shafts to have railing around them, concrete in cellar to be cut up and fixed, yard-house to be cut up and altered, and NO BENEFIT to ANYBODY WHEN ALL THIS JOB IS DONE.

Yours truly, J. F. SEITZ.

Elevator Guards.

The following proposed ordinance is now in the council at the instance of the Committee on Public Buildings, Lighting and Supplies, which consists of George B. Christman, George H. Mundorf, Wm. A. Doyle and Benj. A. Bodine: The Committee will give a public hearing on it shortly.

All elevator cabs or cars, whether used for freight or passengers, shall be provided with some attachment or guard fastened to the floor or tread, underneath the door or opening in the cab or car, to prevent accidents to persons while attempting to enter or leave the car before it becomes level with the floor. All elevator wells hereafter built shall be so constructed that that part of the inside surface of the wall that comes in front of the opening or door of the cab or car shall be within two inches from (flush with) the cab or car. All freight elevators shall have attached to the bottom of the car, opposite the open sides of the elevator shaft, a number of ropes, chains or other devices, hanging downward, not less than seven (7) feet long, nor more than four (4) inches apart, to act as a danger signal to warn people of the approach of the elevator.

A New Title Company.

Anyone who had business in the Register's office on Wednesday last and on any of the following days since then would naturally suppose from the swarm of men who occupy the numerous desks and all available space that a big boom had struck the town and that here was a little army of lawyers and searchers doing a "land office business" in the matter of closing titles. Investigation, however, speedily showed that was not the case, but that instead of closing or searching titles this army took possession in order to build a plant for the Title Insurance Company of New York, which was organized on Wednesday with a capital of $1,000,000 and with the following officers and directors: President, John D. Crimmins; Vice-President and General Manager, Edgar J. Levey; Secretary, Cyril H. Burdett; Board of Directors, besides the foregoing, William H. Gelshenen, President of the Garfield National Bank; Charles W. Morse, President of the Bank of New Amsterdam; Ashbel P. Fitch, President of the Trust Company of America; Charles T. Barney, President of the Knickerbocker Trust Company; Henry W. Taft, Edward C. Schaefer, Edward M. Burghard, George Zabriskie, Francis K. Pendleton, James A. Deering, John I. Waterbury, William F. Havemeyer, Theodore F. Miller, Casimir Tag, Theodore F. Jackson and Arthur Terry.

At present there are about seventy men engaged in the Register's office. This force will later be increased to some 150 or 200 persons, who may work in two or three shifts. Some months ago it was reported that a syndicate made up of many of the gentlemen above mentioned had bought control of the German-American Real Estate Title Guarantee Co.

The Tenement House Department.

HOW FORMED.

The Department will consist of a Tenement House Commissioner appointed by the Mayor, having a salary of $7,500 a year and complete control of the department, including the appointment and removal of his subordinate, subject, except in the cases of the two deputies, to civil service laws; a first and a second deputy commissioner; a building bureau charged with the examination of plans for and the inspection of light and ventilation, and consisting of, not less in each case, 3 plan examiners and 16 inspectors; an inspection bureau, consisting of not less than 190 inspectors, including the police detail; and a bureau of records, with such registrars, clerks and other employes as the commissioner may deem necessary. Counsel is to be assigned from the Law Department.

The commissioner may establish a separate division of the department in Brooklyn, with jurisdiction over tenement houses in that borough, "and also in the discretion of the commissioner over tenement houses in the boroughs of Queens or Richmond, or both." It may be pointed out that the charter does not give the commissioner power to establish a separate division in the Bronx. The knowledge of this fact will be a disappointment to builders of tenements in that borough who will presumably have to file their light and ventilation plans at headquarters wherever located, and thus be put to the trouble of which they have bitterly complained of making the long journey downtown, from which builders in other classes will be relieved by the creation of the bureau of buildings in the office of the Borough President.

POWERS.

The Tenement House Department is created to enforce Chapter 334, Laws of 1901 (the new Tenement House Act*), and to enable it to do so, it is endowed with all the rights and powers possessed by the Health Department with respect to the sanitary inspection of tenement houses; those of the Fire and Police Departments, with respect to the supervision of fire escapes, and those of the Building and Health Departments, with respect to the light and ventilation of tenements and their equipment with fire escapes. It has powers corresponding to those of the Board of Health (to be applied only to tenement houses, however), relative to repairs of buildings, dangerous and improperly constructed buildings, assistance and co-operation of police, and for enforcing its orders, recovering penalties, etc. It has the right of entry into any and every tenement house and apartment, and may bring suits in its own name without undertaking. It cannot be restrained by injunction except it be issued by the Supreme Court in special term, after five days' notice of motion therefor, accompanied by copies of papers upon which motion for such injunction is to be made.

*Sections 11 to 28 inclusive; 33, 34, 37, 38 and 39 excepted. These are to be enforced by the bureaus of buildings in their respective boroughs.

DUTIES.

As stated above, the department is charged with the duty of executing the Tenement House Law with the exception of the sections regulating construction, but as they must cause an inspection to be made of all tenement houses in course of construction, or alteration, to see that the work is being done in accordance with law, it may be seen that they have the oversight of the execution of these also. Other duties are: To inspect every existing tenement at least once a month, except that where the rent of the apartment is $25 a month or more, inspection may be less than once a month in the discretion of the commissioner.

To provide a system of records of tenement houses by card or other catalogue, of the street number, diagrams of ground and second or typical floor, date or approximate date of erection of building, health, mortality and criminal records.

To certify that plans for light and ventilation comply with the law.

To issue certificates to owners of tenements erected or altered of compliance with laws.

To carry on proceedings previously begun by other departments for violations of the law.

A complaint book, open to any one for the entry of complaints and examination, is to be kept in the department.

The builder will have to file practically a set of plans with the building bureau of this department and another with the building bureau in the office of the president of his borough. He will have to file a certificate of the Tenement House Department that his plans for light and ventilation comply with the law before the borough bureau can issue a permit for construction. Before he can admit tenants to his building he will have to have a certificate from the Tenement House Department that phis building complies with all sections of the act outside of those excepted as above stated, and another from the borough superintendent of buildings that it complies with those. The penalty for letting before those certificates have been issued is the outlawry of the buildings, because in such a case bond and mortgage become due, no rent is recoverable, the water department must refuse to supply water, and the premises "shall be deemed unfit for human habitation and the tenement house commissioner shall cause them to be vacated accordingly."

Legal Decisions.

Landlord and tenant—Condition as to landlord's furnishing power—Injunction. While a tenant is in lawful possession of premises under a lease, by the terms of which the landlord is to furnish him power, the landlord will be enjoined from cutting off the power, notwithstanding the fact that differences have arisen between the parties in regard to the payment of rent. (Traitel Marble Co. v. Chase, 35 Misc., 233.)

Foreclosure—Rent, as between a receiver of the rents and profits and a tenant who had paid in advance. Where a tenant of the whole of mortgaged premises has paid the rent thereof in advance to the mortgagor, a receiver of the rents and profits, appointed under a clause in the mortgage authorizing such appointment on foreclosure, cannot prevent the tenant from collecting the rents of the sub-tenants during the period of the tenant's advance payment, and this, although the mortgage was recorded before the lease. The tenant's rights are not cut off until the sale in foreclosure, and the receiver has no right to rents paid the mortgagor before the receiver's appointment. (Fletcher v. McKeon, 35 Misc., 230.)

A mortgage taken in good faith from the grantee of an incompetent—It will be enforced, although the deed is set aside. Where a deed executed by a husband to his wife is set aside on the ground that at the time the conveyance was executed the husband was in such a condition mentally and physically that he did not understand the nature of the act, a mortgage on the premises executed by the wife to a mortgagee who had no notice of any fact tending to impair the wife's title, at a time when the wife was living with her husband in possession of the premises, will be held to be a valid lien, upon the theory that, were one of two innocent persons must suffer from a wrong, he must bear the loss whose action enabled the wrong to be done. (Reilly v. Reilly, 63 App. Div., 169.)

Judicial sale—Highest bidder—Resale. Real property must be sold at a judicial sale to the highest bidder, and this means the highest bidder at the sale who is then and there willing and financially able to carry out the terms of sale. An auctioneer has the right to ignore or reject the bid of an irresponsible person. Where parties to an action in which there has been a judicial sale attack the sale for irregularities, and because their bids were ignored, they must show that they themselves were technically right. To procure resale they should show that they were able at the sale to make the cash payment on their bid, that they are pecuniarily responsible, that the property sold was worth more than the bid accepted, and there should be a bona fide offer of an increased price with satisfactory security. (Irving Savings Institution v. Robinson, 35 Misc., 449.)

Foreclosure—Rent as between a mortgagee, to whom rents had been assigned on default in interest, and a lessee, who had paid rent in advance, with notice of the mortgage. Where default is made in the payment of the interest on a recorded mortgage in process of foreclosure, providing that upon default in interest the rents are assigned to the mortgagee, a lessee of the premises, who became such after the default, and who paid his rent in advance, cannot enjoin a receiver of the premises from collecting rent accruing during the period for which the lessee has paid, as the lessee is charged with notice of the rights of the mortgagee. (Moll v. McKeon, 35 Misc., 551.)

Foreclosure—Election to accept option to foreclose for unpaid installment, shown by action brought. Where the mortgagee is given by the mortgage an option to foreclose it upon a failure of the mortgagor for sixty days to pay an installment of principal or interest, the mortgagee's commencement of an action of foreclosure sufficiently indicates his election in the matter. He is not obliged to give the mortgagor notice of his election before commencing the action. (Boigeol v. Eigabroadt, 35 Misc., 606.)

Some Recent Purchases by Steel Manufacturers.

There has been no more interesting development recently in New York real estate than the large purchases of steel manufacturers of other cities, both for investment and occupation; and it is worthy of note that the brokers in many of these transactions were S. Osgood Pell & Co. That firm were the agents in the following large transactions consummated by steel manufacturers: To Charles M. Schwab, President of U. S. Steel, New York Orphan Asylum block, 73d to 74th st, Riverside Drive to West End av, about $1,000,000; to James Gayley, Vice-President National Steel, No. 8 East 69th st, $500,000; to Henry Wick, late President National Steel, No. 18 East 82d st, $200,000; to Wm. B. Leeds, No. 987 5th av and 89th st corner, about $1,000,000; to W. G. Park, of the Crucible Steel, several properties, $200,000.

Real Estate Notes.

Taxes unpaid December 1st will have added a penalty of 1 per cent. of their amount.

Jefferson M. Levy is the buyer of No. 14 East 45th st, reported in our last issue.

The Board of Estimate have approved the petition of the Union Railroad Co. for leave to run its trolley cars over Macomb's Dam Bridge and fixed the cost of the franchise at not less than $1,000 a year. The Municipal Assembly have yet to pass on it.

The public hearing on the New East River Bridge approach has been fixed for December 18th, at 2 p. m., in the board room of the Board of Public Improvements, No. 19-21 Park row, instead of for the 11th proximo, as previously arranged.

Henry E. Loney has become a member of the real estate firm of S. Osgood Pell & Co., at No. 542 5th av. Mr. W. T. Wilcox, for several years with the Realty Trust, has also become associated with the same firm.

Justice McAdam, in the Supreme Court, rendered a decision in favor of the city which requires the removal of the portico on 42d st, between Broadway and 7th av, which has probably, as an advertisement, paid its owner handsomely. The owner naturally threatens an appeal.

William J. Collins, the well-known mortgage broker, has associated himself with the old firm of S. S. Jessup & Co., of 46 Cedar st., the new style being Jessup, Collins & Jessup. The firm starts in with the new partner in enlarged and refitted offices at the same address, and will carry on a general mortgage brokerage business.

Brettell & Jackman, real estate brokers, of No. 79 West 125th st, have recently enlarged and redecorated their offices, a change made necessary by their growing clientage. Their specialty is the selling and the exchange of properties, at which they have met with considerable success. Frank Brettell, of the firm, is well known in building and real estate circles as an experienced broker and appraiser.

A friendly suit in partittion has been begun in the Supreme Court with the intention of setting a value on each of the several interests in the William C. and Julia Rhinelander estates, prior to forming a stock company to be known as the Rhinelander Real Estate Co., and issuing stock for such interests. It has not been determined yet whether values will be determined by mutual agreement or by public sale, as in the case of the Bradish Johnson Estate Corporation, created under a special act of the Legislature.

The Wall Street Exchange Building Association was incorporated this week, with a capital of $2,000,000. The company was incorporated for the purpose of erecting a 22-sty office building on the site owned by the Bank of the State of New York, at the northwest corner of William st and Exchange pl, and extending to Nos. 41 and 43 Wall st. Richard L. Edwards, President of the bank, is President of the board, and the directors are Robert Thompson, Frank K. Sturgis, Hugh J. Grant, Harry F. Morse, Charles W. Morse and Charles T. Barney. Clinton & Russell, No. 32 Nassau st, are the architects, and the George A. Fuller Co. the general contractors.

PARK AVENUE TUNNEL.

Everett P. Wheeler, Henry De Milt, J. B. Brooks, Anderson Fowler and several other property owners living in Park av, appeared before the Board of Health, Wednesday, to protest against the changes now being made in the New York Central's tunnel at the department's demand. Lawyer Place, for the New York Central, endeavored to show that after the brick walls in the tunnel had been changed to steel girders, as is being done, less smoke and noxious gases would issue from the openings and that the value of adjoining property would be increased. Mr. Wheeler and his neighbors were not satisfied. The Health Commissioners promised consideration.

In the Council on Tuesday President Guggenheimer introduced the following ordinance, which was referred to the Railroad Committee, with instructions to hold a public hearing thereon Monday next. The committee announced the hearing for 2.30 p. m. of that day.

Be it Ordained by the Municipal Assembly of the City of New York, as follows:

Section 1. In pursuance of the provisions of a certain contract made between the New York & Harlem Railroad Company and the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New York, dated Jan. 9, 1832, the New York & Harlem Railroad Company and its lessees, the New York Central & Hudson River Railroad Company, and the New York, New Haven & Hartford Companies, are hereby and each of them is hereby directed to use electric power for the propelling of trains of cars and of separate cars on and along the railroad belonging to the New York & Harlem Railroad Company, between 42d street and the Harlem River, in the City of New York, between the Grand Central Depot at 42d street and the Harlem River and intermediate points, and to desist from the use of steam power for the propelling of such trains and cars on and along said railroad.

Sec. 2. The said railroad companies shall begin preparations for making the change aforesaid within 60 days after this ordinance shall take effect, and shall complete the same within two years from the time this ordinance shall take effect.

Sec. 3. This ordinance shall take effect immediately.

The Hunt Estate auction sale by the D. & M. Chauncey Co. was the event of the week. There was a big crowd, including all the well known Brooklyn brokers, builders and operators, and the sale was a pretty extended one. Prices obtained were satisfactory, inasmuch as 140 lots were disposed of at a total of $136,530. The results in detail will be found in another column. It may be remarked that sales held for the Hunt Estate have always been successful. The first took place in 1885, and now the Estate has only seven whole blocks remaining unsold and these are all west of 2d avenue.

The State Railroad Commission, as previously announced, gave a public hearing on the application of the Rapid Transit R. R. Co. and the Kings County Elevated R. R. Co. for leave to abandon stations on the railroad of the latter at Clark and Tillary sts, Boerum place, Lafayette av, Cumberland st, Vanderbilt av and Grand av. John L. Wells, for applicants, said that the proposed abandonment of the stations was for the purpose of relieving congestion on lower Fulton street by inducing as many passengers as possible to ride on the elevated road. The stations in question, Mr. Wells said, were those which the figures of several years showed were used by a very small number of passengers. In regard to the station at Grand av, if the people of that neighborhood showed that they wanted that station it could remain. Mr. Wells declared that the number of passengers who got on at the stations which would remain was 60,000, and at the stations which it was proposed to remove about 3,200. There was, of course, a strong opposition. The decision of the Commissioners was reserved.

W. B. Parsons, Chief Engineer, testifying before the Supreme Court Commission this week in reference to the Brooklyn extension of the Rapid Transit Railroad, said that the entrances to the proposed stations at Cortlandt and Rector sts would have to be through buildings at those streets, as the sidewalks there are not wide enough to permit of any other course. Mr. Parsons said, however, that during the rush hours trains of eight cars would be run at not less than one minute headway, and that each car would have a seating capacity of forty-eight, and would afford room for as many more passengers to stand. The road, he said, will have a carrying capacity of 40,000,000 passengers a year. He predicted that one-third of the crowd now traveling between Brooklyn and Manhattan by way of the bridge would go to the tunnel. If four tracks were laid they would have to be constructed on different levels, one above the other, and this would necessitate an excavation from seventy to eighty feet deep. Such a cutting, he said, would seriously endanger many of the lofty office buildings along the line that are not built on a rock foundation, and among these he cited the St. Paul and Equitable buildings. If a deep trench were to be cut near them, he said, it would entail an enormous expense to render the foundations safe while the work was going on.

The New York Dock Company has decided to raze the entire range of warehouses, known as Pinto's and Excelsior Stores, on the north and south piers of Atlantic Dock, in Brooklyn. The buildings, which are for the most part of granite will be replaced with steel covered sheds, each about 800 feet in length. The gap or entrance left for vessels between the piers will be widened to about 300 feet, which is 100 feet more than its present dimensions. Other improvements along the dock are projected.

The Building Material Market

Conditions and Prices

Iron and Steel.—Under the continued active demand and the decreasing supplies available for prompt delivery the market for pig iron has a decided upward tendency, but there has as yet been no actual change in the list prices. The steel situation is as previously noted, and in nearly all kinds of finished materials business continues on a liberal scale, bars and plates apparently affording the only exceptions. Old material is in a strong position, but business is only fair, there seeming to be a disposition on the part of both buyers and sellers to await the outcome of the efforts said to be making to organize combinations to regulate prices.

Copper.—At the regular monthly meeting of the Copper Producers' Association, held last week, the statement of production and exports for October, as compiled by Secretary Stanton, was given out. This statement shows a production by domestic mines of 24,098 tons, comparing with 21,580 tons in September and with 23,345 tons in October, 1900. This return, taken with the reduced consumption both at home and abroad, shows why buyers expect lower prices. Figures for the past two years are as follows:

Production.	October, 1901. tons.	September, 1901, tons.	October, 1900, tons.
By U. S. reporting mines	20,198	18,080	19,945
By outside sources (estimated)	3,600	3,500	3,400
Foreign reporting mines	[illegible]	9,477	7,970
Exports	8,016	6,119	12,682

All in tons of 2,240 lbs. of fine copper.

The following shows the total domestic production and exports for ten months, with comparisons:

	Ten months.
	1901.	1900.	Changes.
Production	223,724	223,387	Inc. 337
Export	78,184	90,866	Dec. 12,682

Lumber.—As far as shipments of lumber from the port of Tonawanda are concerned there will be a shortage in New York city this winter. Wednesday the last loads by canal for New York from Tonawanda were cleared on the canal boats S. D. Johnson and Thomas Green. The shortage of freight cars is so serious that many rush orders have been cancelled, and this week three of the largest mills were compelled to shut down for half a day. Mills that require from fifteen to fifty freight cars daily for shipment consider themselves lucky when they get two. Increased prices for lumber are predicted.

There have been no features in the general situation of the New York market. Hemlock is decidedly stiff, and it is believed that prices will soon be advanced. There is good inquiry for North Carolina pine and it is reported that there is a shortage at the mills. Yellow pine is stiff and in fair demand. Mahogany and cedar continue firm. Offerings of Eastern spruce have been light, comparatively few cargoes being afloat for New York and mills are taking orders. White pine is in good demand at firm prices.

Lath.—No arrivals of Eastern spruce lath have been reported. The last sale reported was at $3.25 and at the close prices quoted were $3.25@$3.50.

Bricks, Lime and Cement.—There have been moderate offerings of Hudson River brick, but with a steady demand the market has been kept in fairly good shape; prices are firm with an advancing tendency. Lime is fairly active at unchanged quotations. There has continued sufficient activity to the demand for Rosendale and Portland cement to hold the market steady and prices are unchanged.

Hardware.—The tone of the market has held firm for most lines and business has been fairly active. The run of orders for holiday goods has been reported as being of good volume. There has been moderate buying in regular lines to replenish depleted stocks, and a fair number of orders have been placed for supplies for next season's delivery. The continued strength of the iron market is the important feature of the situation and naturally gives a good undertone to the business.

Nails.—The demand for wire nails continues satisfactory, while orders are usually for small lots. There is more or less irregularity in prices and the market is represented in a general way by the following prices: Small lots at store $2.35 to $2.40; carload lots on dock, $2.25 to $2.30. Orders for carloads are of rare occurrence. The cut nail demand in the local market is normal. New York quotations for carload and less than carload lots are as follows: Carload lots on dock, $2.18; less than carload lots on dock, $2.23; from store, $2.20 to $2.25.

Plumbers' Supplies.—Nothing has developed to actually change the general situation of the copper market. Lake is held at 16.85c. to 17c. Electrolytic is unchanged at 16.30c. to 16⅝c., and casting stock remains unchanged at 15⅝c. to 16⅝c. according to brand. Since our last report of the pig tin market a regular corner in spot tin was inaugurated by large interests in this city. The plan, it seems, was formulated about a month ago. Spot tin was kept here below London parity until about ten days ago in order to prevent shipments from London and to enable shipments from here to the Continent. In that way the stock and the greater part of the shipments which can come in now were concentrated in one haul. It is now in the power of the controlling factor to dictate prices for spot delivery. At the Metal Exchange spot tin was quoted at 27@28c. nominal. The pig lead market has been very quiet and uninteresting, prices remaining unchanged on the basis of 4.37½c. for lots of 50 tons or more. It is rumored that a consolidation of all the spelter mills into a trust is being formed, but the report is without influence on the market, which is dull, with prices nominal at 4.30@4.35c. for spot and 4.25c. for futures. There is still an active demand for sheet copper from all the consuming interests. Prices are firm, sheet copper from store being quoted on the basis of 21c. per lb. The demand for sheets shows little or no abatement. During the past week or two the run has been heavier on black sheets, whereas the demand for galvanized sheets was before greater. For small lots of a few bundles of sheets No. 27 brings about 4.15c. and 4.05c. to 4.10c. for larger quantities, where such can be readily supplied. Galvanized sheets rule at 65 per cent. to 67½ per cent. off the list.

Paints and Colors.—Although the market is growing quieter and will continue so for several months, dealers say that the fall business of the paint and varnish trades continues to be generally satisfactory and the season has been more than usually prosperous. Weather conditions have been propitious and the result has been reflected in the number of small repeat orders that have come from the jobbing and consuming trades. Demand for mixed paints and for colors in oil continues steady for the season and prices for standard goods are firm upon the basis of old current quotations. There is nothing in the situation to warrant any change in values one way or another. The upward movement in prices of shellac continues steadily in all the markets of the world and, notwithstanding the marked advance which has taken place during the last two months, the demand from both consuming and jobbing sources continues exceptionally good, and holders find themselves confronted by the prospect of almost bare markets for most grades. At the present time New York is the cheapest market of the world, prices here being below parity of Calcutta and London, in spite of the fact that they are rapidly moving upward. Some dealers are quoting 32c. for T. N.'s and others are offering as low as 28c. In Calcutta ordinary T. N.'s is selling at 34c. A. C. Garnet was dull at 24@25c.

Linseed Oil.—The market is unsettled with the tendency of prices downward. While 57@58c. are the general quotations on five-barrel lots of out-of-town oil, one state crusher is ready to accept orders for carloads at 55c. Some buyers who are beginning to receive delayed deliveries are re-sellers and are offering at 51@53c. as to holder. The demand for spot oil has materially increased, and it is said that it would be difficult to find a carload buyer at anything like quoted prices. No interest whatever is shown in futures.

Glass.—The organization of the outside window glass manufacturers in Columbus, Ohio, this week has aroused great interest in Pittsburg glass circles. It also started talk among the manufacturers that indicates the feeling in the trade, and which presages a conflict in the glass business that will be sharp and decisive. It was stated at the Columbus meeting that the outsiders would join forces with the co-operatives, but the representatives of the co-operatives in Pittsburg deny this. They declare it is too late to consider such a proposition. The officials of the American Window Glass Co. and the Independent Glass Co. declare that the outsiders were too late in their move and that this year would mark a determined fight for business.

The Glass Manufacturers' Association held a two days' meeting at the Auditorium Annex in Chicago this week. An agreement between the manufacturers and jobbers as to the price and quality of glass to be delivered by the manufacturers to the jobbers was reached. Harry Holbrook, secretary of the Jobbers' Association, said that the price of glass to the consumer will be 20 per cent. lower than the ruling price to-day and 40 per cent. lower than it was a year ago.

The local market for the week has been listless, as important buyers and sellers alike were awaiting the result of the meeting in Chicago. During the past week jobbers with large stocks have been underselling fixed prices, but these transactions were on a small scale. Now that the Chicago convention has ended the market will quickly revive, as stocks of large consumers are generally low.

The Census Bureau has issued a preliminary report regarding the glass industry of the United States. The figures follow:

G. L. Schuyler & Co.'s liquidation is proceeding satisfactorily, according to J. J. McKelvey, attorney. Over 80 per cent. of the creditors have signed the proposition for settlement, and application has been made to the bankruptcy court for authority to the receiver to turn over the assets to a new company under the agreement with the creditors, to be known as the G. L. Schuyler Co., which will take up the business of the old firm.

Kennington, manufacturer of architectural ironwork for buildings, has removed from No. 412 3d av, Brooklyn, to more spacious quarters on 24th st, near 3d av, same borough, where he has every facility for turning out good work on short notice. Mr. Kennington will be pleased to furnish designs and give estimates for fire escapes, railings, stairways, etc. Telephone, 318 South.

It is reported that plans are under way for the forming of an association of Portland cement manufacturers, to include in its control all the works in Michigan and in States west of Pennsylvania. The idea, it is said, is not to effect a "combine" at once but to pave the way for the organization of a "community of interest" arrangement, territory to be distributed and competition eliminated as far as possible.

A report from York, Pa., is to the effect that Ohio and Pennsylvania capitalists have formed a new wall paper combine, capitalized at $16,000,000. The first combination was the National Wall Paper Co., composed of about 30 concerns, which is now in liquidation, due, it is said, to a general dissatisfaction among the stockholders. The prices for wall paper last year were 30 per cent. lower than in 1899 and this year they are 20 per cent. lower than last year. Local men doubt the ability of the promoters to form a new combination.

Manhattan Branch, of the Master Plumbers' Association, are making great preparations for their annual entertainment and reception, to be held on Wednesday evening, December 18, at the Lexington Opera House. The Arrangement Committee, consisting of Messrs. Schnaier, Donohoe, E. J. Brady, Cummins and Boyd, with their associates, Messrs. Malcolm, J. W. O'Brien, Bryant, Tuomey, C. Tucker, I. J. Brown, J. F. Kelly, McCune, Hill and McQuillen, are sparing no efforts to make it the best in the history of the association. Tickets and boxes can be obtained from B. F. Donohoe, 1112 Park av, New York.

It is reported from interested sources that the recently organized Southern Association of Manufacturers of Yellow Pine Sash, Doors and Blinds, which was formed at Macon, Ga., on the 24th ultimo, is progressing rapidly, and that while there has been some degree of hesitancy shown on the part of buyers to accept the new discount sheets and quotations adopted by the association, on the whole the organization is moving along satisfactorily, and hopes to accomplish much good for the Southern manufacturers as a whole. All of the large manufacturers of Georgia have become identified with the organization, and there are only two or three large manufacturers in Mississippi and three or four in North Carolina, who, up to the time of the Macon meeting, had not become members.

Vassar's Son & Co. They continue to make a specialty of stair and elevator enclosures, escapes, grills, etc., and are executing several large contracts for work of this character for the American Bridge Co. Their Brooklyn plant has recently been enlarged and improved and fitted up with up-to-date machinery and tools, well adapted for handling their constantly increasing business.

THE ARTS CLUB BUILDING.

Grosvenor Atterbury, Secretary of the United Fine Arts Building Committee, has given out a report of the Friday night meeting of the Executive Committee of the Fine Arts Federation of New York. The meeting was held in the Arts Club, 37 West 34th st, and was composed of members of the various art associations of the city. Frederick C. Crowinshield, of the Mural Painters' Society, was the chairman for the evening. In regard to the site for the new building, which is to be a home for contemporaneous art, it was agreed that for the structure to be available for its purpose it should be situated within the district bounded by 23d and 61st sts and 6th and 3d avs. The committee decided that the site should contain not less than 40,000 square feet, and that the cost of the building should be $1,500,000. At the meeting Friday night the following were present: Frederick Dielman, of the National Academy of Design; Robert W. Gibson, of the Architects' League of New York; John De Witt Warner, of the Municipal Art Society; D. Maitland Armstrong, of the Society of American Artists; J. G. Brown, of the American Water Color Society; S. B. P. Trowbridge, of the Society Beaux Arts Architects; William B. Faxon, of the American Fine Arts Society, and Mr. Atterbury.

THE CUSTOM HOUSE BUILDING DELAYED.

The delays that have attended the preliminary work on the new custom house are responsible for the fact that the work cannot proceed, because of the insufficiency of the appropriation. The idea under which the enabling act was framed seems to have been that the proceeds of the sale of the old custom house, with any unused appropriation made under the Act of 1888 for erecting the appraisers' stores, would be sufficient to pay for the new building, whose cost, exclusive of site, was limited to $3,000,000. The old custom house sold to the City National Bank for $3,265,000. What the balance of appraisers' stores appropriation was, if there was any, does not appear. The cost of the site for the new building was $2,111,027. About $500,000 have been spent on foundations, and the lowest bid for the superstructure is about $2,000,000. There was an idea that work could be carried on with the money in hand pending the granting of an additional appropriation, but Comptroller Tracewell has decided in effect that an appropriation granted to erect a complete building cannot be used to erect a portion of the building. Owing to this decision the work on the custom house will apparently be held up until Congress affords relief by making an additional appropriation. Assistant Secretary Taylor, of the Treasury believes that at least $1,000,000 more is needed, raising the total cost of the foundations and building to $4,000,000. Part, if not all, of this difficulty arises from two or three years elapsing between determination to build and the time of calling for bids, during which prices of materials have advanced considerably.

IN IRON AND CONCRETE.

For several months past an apartment house entirely built of steel and concrete (beton armé) has been building in Paris on the Rue Danton, near the Place St. Michel. It was built and designed by M. Hennébique, one of the specialists who is most competent in this special kind of building, so much employed nowadays and yet still so much discussed. In reality, it is very often used because in a large number of cases it advantageously replaces iron, stone and other materials; it allows of giving less thicknesses for equal resistance, and even greater. It presents valuable advantages from the point of view of equality of expansion between cement and iron, so that the combination of the two materials wears as if it were constituted of one and the same element, hence there is no reason to fear dislocations and deformations. The beton armé finds, then, a practical application in constructions which demand high resistance—beams, floors, reservoirs, vats, tuyaux, conduits of large size, vaults, etc. At the Petit Palais des Champs Elysees, all the floors were of beton arme with a bearing of 14 metres for the beams, and tests were made up to 1,500 kilogrammes per square metre, a considerable weight. * * * But the new apartment house built by M. Hennebique offers an open field for several observations. First, as to general aspect, this grand monolithic structure, without joints, built of refractory material, all being of gray tone, lacks elegance and charm in spite of the fineness of its mouldings and profiles. And yet the designer took great pains to give his facades a certain richness of decoration by means of certain applications of ceramic work and by introducing bay windows and other projections which more or less happily break the monotony of the ensemble.—Paris Correspondence American Architect.

LONDON AMERICAN EXHIBITION.

Preparatory work is now being done for an American Exhibition, to be held in the Crystal Palace, London, England, May to September, 1902. It will be distinctly American, and is designed to demonstrate the immense commercial development which has taken place in the United States during recent years in American products, arts, industries and inventions. The time chosen will enable intending exhibitors to get their products before the influential people from all over the world who will attend the coronation of King Edward VII. Alfred H. Post, Produce Exchange Building, New York, is the Commissioner for the United States.

UP-TO-DATE BATHING.

* * * So long as they are tubs they are out of date and unsatisfactory. The Germans know a trick worth ten such played-out fashions as that of bathing in tubs. For ten marks a day, or $2.50 in our money, any one may enjoy a commencement-de-siecle bath in the Savoy Hotel on the Friedrich strasse, and also, I doubt not, at those still newer caravanseries, the Palast and the Bristol. There your bath room is at once the oldest and the newest thing of its kind—a Roman tank let into the floor, 3 feet and a-half deep, 8 or 9 feet long and 5 feet wide. You can swim a stroke or two in one of these luxurious marble basins. The new up-to-date bath rooms are all stone—at least, the floors are stone and the walls are of white or white and blue encaustic tiling. The bathing pools are most alluring. They are framed by a massive molding of cut marble or glazed tiling a foot wide and 5 or 6 inches thick. This handsome border is cut into at one place for the little flight of three marble steps which leads down into the pool. The silver-plated plumbing pipes are attached to the wall, close to which is the further side of the pool. A hot air shaft heats the room, which contains a sofa and a chair for furniture. These best of all the hotels of Europe are constructed so that every bedroom has double windows, to exclude the dirt and noise of the street, the outer sash being made with a movable pane for ventilation. Every bedroom has double doors as well, the inner door being 2 or 3 feet behind the outer one. This plan wholly shuts out the noises in the halls—even that gentle and melodious one which Eugene Field called "the tinkle in the pitcher that the boy brings through the hall."—Julian Ralph's Correspondence.

WALTER CRANE ON HOUSE DECORATION.

In an address before the Association of Master House Painters and Decorators, at Leicester, England, Walter Crane, the eminent artist and art critic, said: "A painter or a decorator must be primarily concerned with producing something of beauty. Let his problem be of the simplest. A good sense of color was of the first importance. A knowledge of how to produce certain tints, the effect of one tint upon or in juxtaposition with another, the best grounds for different tints—all these things, in addition to the workman's skill of hand in laying on paint evenly, were essential parts of a painter's and decorator's training and equipment. There was nothing like paint after all. In fact, whether inside or outside, the town house required constant cheering up by the painter and decorator, but it must be the decoration that cheered and not inebriated. There was nothing like white paint for the woodwork of modern rooms. The mouldings would give the necessary relief. In deciding on a scheme for the decoration of one's house, one must consider what should be the chief decorative points, and endeavor to lead up to them. As a rule, in modern drawing-rooms and living-rooms there were too many colors, as well as too much furniture. There was, no doubt, a determined effort in the direction of a return to simplicity both in house designing, furniture and decoration on the part of the more refined and cultured, as a reaction perhaps against the ostentation and luxury of the appointments of the extremely or newly rich, or the pretentiousness of the decorations of monster hotels, whose coarse imitations of decadent periods of French art did duty for splendor. Relationship was, of course, the essential in all decoration, otherwise it became a patchwork of complicated pattern and color. It mattered not what their materials might be, or by what means, costly or simple, they sought to obtain their effect, all must be in keeping with the right place and suitable to the conditions and surroundings; rich and splendid if the aim were to be rich and splendid; simple and quiet if the aim were to be simple and quiet; but without the pretence of richness or obtrusive display on the one hand, or the sometimes extreme rudeness, boldness and roughness which accompanied what looked like the affectation of simplicity on the other."

EXTENSION OF MORTGAGE.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Mr. Jones owned a house and lot, on which he borrowed $3,000 for one year from January, 1900, on his bond and mortgage, from Mr. Brown. In July, 1901, he sold the said property to Mr. Smith, subject to said mortgage. As the mortgage is now past due, Mr. Smith (the purchaser) asks Mr. Brown (the mortgagee) if he intends to call in the mortgage. Brown replies that he does not want the money, and that Smith may let the mortgage remain as it is until 1904. (1) What, in your opinion, should be the wording of that agreement reduced to writing so that Smith would be protected without the expense of a new bond and mortgage, from any call for payment before January, 1904? (2) Does the fact of such an agreement being made between Smith and Brown relieve Jones from liability on the old bond to which the property was subject at time of purchase by Smith? (3) If so, what form of agreement could be made on a mortgage now past due that would assure a purchaser under similar conditions that the mortgage would not be called in for a period to be named, and which would not disturb the original liability to the mortgagee of the signer of the old bond?

Answer.—(1) You can obtain a blank form for extension of mortgage from any law stationer. (2) Yes. (3) You cannot extend the time of payment of the mortgage and preserve the liability of the signer of the bond without the consent of the latter.—Law Editor.

MISTAKE IN RECEIPT.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Will you please answer what is the law where the wrong receipt has been given; that is, where November receipt was given by mistake and October rent still unpaid?

Answer.—The tenant can take no advantage of the mistake. If the tenant does not pay and suit is brought for the rent or proceedings are instituted to dispossess for non-payment of rent and the tenant pleads payment and offers the receipt in evidence, the mistake can be shown.—Law Editor.

COVENANT AGAINST INCUMBRANCES.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

A sells realty to B, consideration $5,000. Everything fair and square. The deed contains a covenant against incumbrances. To-day title passes. To-day an assessment for street improvements, having been confirmed, is entered on the record for that purpose, prepared, and becomes a valid lien on the property in question. Deed is recorded 3 p. m. No way at all of showing at what time the confirmed assessment became a lien, any more than it became a lien on the same day title passes. The lien is for $800. (1) As between grantor and grantee, who must lose this? (2) Why? (3) What is your authority for what you say?

Answer.—Section 159 of the Charter provides that there shall be kept in the office of the Controller a record of all lists of assessments confirmed, with the date of confirmation and the date of entry under such record. Also that an assessment shall become a lien upon the real estate affected thereby immediately upon its entry in the said record. Nowhere is it required that the hour and minute of such entry shall be stated, and inquiry at the office of the collector of assessments and arrears discloses that no such statement is made "under such record," as is done under the record of conveyancy, mortgages, etc. In my opinion the grantor must pay the assessment. (2) Because the law does not regard the fraction of a day, the assessment is considered to have become a lien at the beginning of its record, and that would be before the delivery of the conveyance. (3) There are no reported decisions upon the subject, hence my "authority" is the Charter, the principle of law above mentioned, and my own opinion, which is corroborated by other lawyers to whom I have spoken concerning the matter.—Law Editor.

APPOINTMENT AS NOTARY PUBLIC.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Would you kindly inform me how I could obtain a notary public office, where to apply and how? And the quickest way to be appointed?

Answer.—The application is to be made to the Governor of the State. He appoints, with the approval of the Senate. Your application will be considered during the session of the Legislature which meets on the first day of January next at Albany. If you are acquainted with a member of the Legislature, forward your application to him.—Law Editor.

CONVEYANCES.

Whenever the letters Q. C., C. a. G. and B. & S. occur, preceded by the name of the grantee they mean as follows:

1st.—Q. C. is an abbreviation for Quit Claim deed, i. e., a deed wherein all the right, title and interest of the grantor is conveyed, omitting all covenants or warranty.

2d.—C. a. G. means a deed containing a Covenant against Grantor only, in which he covenants that he hath not done any act whereby the estate conveyed can be impeached, charged or encumbered.

3d.—B. & S. is an abbreviation for Bargain and Sale deed, wherein, although the seller makes no express covenants, he really grants or conveys the property for a valuable consideration, and thus impliedly claims to be the owner of it. The street and avenue numbers given in these lists are, in all cases, taken from the Insurance maps when they are not mentioned in the deeds. The numbers, it will occasionally be found, do not correspond with the existing ones, owing to their having been no official designation made of them by the Department of Public Works.

4th.—The first date is the date the deed was drawn. The second date is the date of filing same. When both dates are the same, only one is given.

5th.—The figures in each conveyance, thus, 2:482, denote that the property is in section 2 block 482.

6th.—It should also be noted in section and block numbers, the instrument as filed is strictly followed.

7th.—The letters R. S. mean Revenue Stamp, as R. S. $8.00 means Revenue Stamp $8.00.

Tax on Conveyances executed prior to July 1st, 1901, on $100 to $500, 50c., and for each additional $500 or fraction thereof, 50c.; on Conveyances executed on and after July 1st, 1901, 25c., where consideration exceeds $2,500 and is not more than $3,000, and 25c. for each additional $500 or fraction thereof.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as head lines are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date.

The first date is the date the mortgage is drawn, the second the date of filing; when both dates are the same, only one is given.

Subscribers will find Mortgages in this list with the wrong block number attached. The block number we give is taken from the instrument as filed.

Mortgages against Bronx property will be found altogether at the foot of this list.

November 15, 16, 18, 19, 20 and 21.

Rust Protection.—There is probably no part of the material in an iron skeleton building which receives so little protection from corrosion as the skeleton, and this is because it is covered up. The ancient adage, "out of sight out of mind," is as true regarding this neglect as it is in many other matters relating to buildings.

Rustproofing a structure is, however, a very simple matter. Rust in steel or iron is due to three factors working together—water, an acid and oxygen. These three must work together to produce it. Ironwork in a building is liable to corrosion through the presence of water which is probably sufficiently charged with an acid and sufficient oxygen to furnish all the properties required to begin the work of disintegration at once, or, if it is not, can readily acquire them in short order.

Fortunately we have a material which possesses many useful qualities and at the same time the very valuable property of rendering harmless any water which may reach the iron. In the foundations of buildings which are below water line, or near enough to it to be wet by capillary attraction, we cannot hope to keep the ironwork dry, but by neutralizing any acid that may be present in the water we can insure against corrosion. Portland cement, because it is a product of lime, furnishes an admirable base for any acid that may be found in water under ordinary conditions, and by reason of this, any water which may find its way through the cement cannot produce rust because only one of the combination which produces rust is present.

It is therefore highly important that with one of the three present we keep out the others, and this demands that the concrete be in contact with the metalwork at all points. It becomes then absolutely necessary to guard against such defects in the concrete envelope as would permit their entrance.

The concrete should be in the closest contact with the metal, and for this to be possible the metal must be clean—that is, free from mill scale and rust and not painted. In order, however, to protect the metal from accidental corrosion before it leaves the shop, it should be covered with one coat of raw linseed oil. This oil is destroyed by the cement, and does not prevent the close contact of the steel and the concrete. In time to come specifications will require that all metalwork shall have the surface cleaned with the sand blast, so that the covering can be applied directly to the metal and not to the scale or skin which ordinarily covers it when it is received from the rolling mills.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as head lines are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date.

Vol. LXVIII. NOVEMBER 30, 1901. No. 1759.

IF one disregards one or two specialties and analyzes the movements of other securities, one is compelled to come to the conclusion, that the stock market is being manipulated in order to carry out heavy realizing sales. Taking for example the stocks in which the largest transactions were made, it will be found that thirty shares had sales of 10,000 or over on one two or all three days that preceded the holiday, and the transactions in these thirty shares were 22-26ths of the whole business done. At the end of the three days, fourteen of these shares made losses, fifteen gains and one was stationary. The losses ran from 3¼ in Copper down to ⅛ in Union Pacific; the gains from 3 in Sugar to ⅛ in Leather. Yesterday's movements of prices harmonized with those of the first three days of the week. What is most remarkable is the small gains made in most of the stocks in which the business done was largest. New York central on 128,235 and Pennsylvania on 256,557 shares advanced only ⅞ each. Southern Railway on sales of 127,080 shares gained ⅛. The only stocks out of the thirty whose movements indicated anything like a wholesale demand, were Sugar, Manhattan and Southern Railway preferred. In all the rest in which the buying was large enough on any of the three days to bring them into our list, there was more or less loss or only fractional gains. The steel stocks showed some spirit yesterday, and it will be very surprising if these do not reflect better than they have yet done the phenomenal activity and strength of the iron and steel market in all its branches.

ONE or two items of news of especial interest to us on this side of the Atlantic come from the other, amidst the continually reiterated complaints of depressed business and fears of a distressing winter for the industrial centers, where the unemployed are in large proportion. The Berlin correspondent of the London "Economist," attributes the renewed dulness on the Bourse there to the cessation of English and American buying of German industrial stocks, which had been going on in moderate volume. The Frankfurt Zeitung says inquiries are still received from American speculators as to whether the time has arrived to buy these industrials, but the answers are generally in the negative. Prospects for reduced dividends being in evidence, it is thought that these shares will go still lower. The information that there was buying of these shares this fall helps to explain the gold exports of last week, which have been puzzling people ordinarily well informed. Not only this, but the circumstance would indicate an immense broadening of American investment and speculation, undreamt of a few years ago. There certainly will come a time when the industrial position of Europe will brighten again, perhaps when our own is becoming obscured, and we may hear in our own market, in a not very distant future, what now would seem extraordinary, of operators being short of home industrials and long of foreign ones; later reversing their position as changes of fortune are achieved by the industries of the two continents. The American participation in foreign speculation is certain to come in proportion to its participation in foreign trade. Talking of that, the same mail that brings us the interesting facts given above, brings us also some information of the latest claimant to participation in the favor of the foreign consumer, namely, American coal. The Cologne Gazette says this article costs $6.96 per ton delivered on Rhine boats at Rotterdam, and is of a quality equal only to that sold by the German coal syndicate at $5.52; therefore, it argues, that the latter has nothing to fear from the former. Other papers contest the correctness of these figures and point to the fact that German purchases of coal continue to be made in the United States as showing that, if the syndicate want to retain the home market, they must reduce their prices. It is admitted that, if American coal is not yet felt as a competing factor in Germany itself, recent heavy arrivals at Genoa have reduced German sales there, and the fear is expressed that the American coal will in the near future compete with all foreign coal in neutral markets. Indeed, one of the great Rhine Westphalian operators is quoted, though not by name, as saying that in ten or fifteen years America will supply almost alone, all Mediterranean countries with iron and coal. The direct interest of this to us is, that it explains where a good deal of our increased production is going, and why our coal stocks advance in the market. To the foreigner it ought to suggest one of those "straddles" we spoke of above, because he might save himself from loss by buying iron and coal stocks in this market and selling in his own.

The Debt Limit Again.

IF there is a scare on the subject of the debt limit, as Comptroller Coler says, he himself is responsible for it. Last week he allowed himself to be quoted as saying that when Mayor-elect Low took office, the appropriations would reach the limit. This coming from the head of the financial department of the City Government was, naturally, accepted as an accurate presentation of the case, and it was fair for anyone to comment on the probable consequences. Now the Comptroller complains because that was done and talks about the subject being an elastic one, whatever that may mean, and says the new administration will be better off than the old one; that the city's credit is better to-day than it has ever been, etc. From all this, it looks very much as if the elasticity is in the Comptroller's lingual apparatus. It is not a question of whether this or that administration will begin their work with a few millions of dollars more or less to their credit, or of the city's standing as a borrower. The great and important question is whether the restrictions put upon the city's borrowing capacity by the Legislature—necessary and wholesome in the past—have not become irksome and injurious to the city's prospects to-day? This is the question we are anxious about. The city's credit is all right and would be if its bonds outstanding were twice as great as they are to-day. The only people who are timorous about that are the bond brokers, and they only because they fear a scarcity of bonds to sell.

It is to the question we have outlined that we want an answer. No sane person acquainted with the circumstances, will contend that the want of money, which, but for the legal restrictions, might have been had by borrowing, has not been the bar to many needed improvements in the past four years. Then, how are we to prevent a recurrence of similar trouble in the future? Comptroller Coler says exclude from the limit bonds issued for self-sustaining work; we say let much of the work now done by the city, and which could be done by private capital, be done by private capital; now Tax Commissioner Feitner, throws out the suggestion, which is a good one and worthy of consideration, that the real estate valuation, from which the debt limit is measured, should be made to include the exempt real estate owned by the city. By this the real estate valuation would be increased, according to the Tax Department's estimate of the value of the city's realty, by $358,109,500. This would give the city new power to issue bonds to the amount of $35,810,950. There is something entirely appropriate in the city's real estate being included in the security for its bonds. This is a simple proposition capable of easy comprehension and, therefore, likely to find ready approval with the public, which the other suggestions may not do because of their complexity and the difficulty of removing prejudices that stand in the way of the adoption of either of them.

But, as this is an important subject, let us follow it a little further, and ask, suppose either the bonds for self-sustaining works excluded from the debt limit, or private capital called in to assist public developments, or the city's real estate included in the valuation for debt purposes, what then? Will the time not come when the relief so obtained will prove to be inadequate. If this is so, would not another expedient have to be found later on? Is not the true remedy for the condition of affairs, of which complaint is made, after all, simply the one of raising the limit itself? A restriction suited to small cities proves to be irksome and injurious to large ones, yet a restriction is necessary to curb possible extravagance, then why not raise the limit for the large cities. In that case there would be no need of excluding any class of bonds, nor would the prejudices of the public against dealings between the city government and private capital have to be overcome; relief would be found simply through the application of the familiar principles and machinery that have heretofore governed the creation of public debt, and our development could proceed along lines already laid down.

The Real Estate Situation

The real estate business transacted during the past week has been, considering that it was a holiday week, extraordinary in amount and in importance. There were as many sales reported on Tuesday and Wednesday as there are usually in a whole week this time of year; and this sudden eruption of activity inevitably suggests the prediction that it was not accidental, but the foreshadowing of a condition of affairs which will persist, at least throughout the whole of the present season. Such an opinion is extremely plausible. Conditions are as favorable as could be desired. The prosperity of general business keeping, as it does, buildings well rented, and providing a steady demand by occupiers for certain classes of property, while it is not sufficient to make an active real estate market, is an excellent and necessary background. For the rest money promises to be plentiful, taxes will probably be somewhat lighter for a couple of years, and there exists at the present time a disposition on the part of capitalists to take more interest in real estate. It is true that this interest has a speculative, rather than an investment character, but many of the speculative companies have behind them men of such large resources that the speculation must be conducted on a very broad basis. The appearance of another syndicate formed to acquire Washington Heights property, with Alfred Vanderbilt at its head, is only one example of the interest, which New York real estate is provoking in men, who have money to invest. A large proportion of the rich Western capitalists, whom the recent consolidation of steel manufacturing industries have brought to New York, have shown a tendency either to invest or speculate in real estate. In general, we should say that it looks as if shrewd buyers were at the present time discounting the probable effects of important improvements in transit service, which will be completed in the next few years. There is a general feeling abroad that New York is destined soon to reap the benefit of a period of rapid expansion, which will accelerate the architectural transformation of the city, and result in advancing real estate values and private improvement on an enormous scale.

A Spurt in Activity.

A scrutiny of the recent sales does not indicate any new centers or lines of activity. The important trading still takes place on 5th avenue, between 5th avenue and Long acre square and on Washington Heights, and the purchasers are for the most part speculative corporations and syndicates. As an exception to this statement, it should be noticed, however, that a number of clubs and associations are in the market buying property. The City Club is considering a couple of lots on West 44th street; the Sons of the American Revolution have an option on two lots in West 55th street, and the Young Men's Christian Association have bought 9 and 11 West 125th street adjoining their present building. In every one of these cases an improvement will follow the completion of the purchase. It may, also, be added that the 23d street branch of the Young Men's Christian Association has begun to clear the plot on the north side of 23d street, west of 7th avenue, which it bought last spring. On 5th avenue the erection by Dean Eugene Hoffman, of a ten-story building, at 210 5th avenue, running through to Broadway, which will be leased by a firm of harness manufacturers, will remove a derelict building, and with the assistance of the renovation of the old Delmonico property, do something to improve the appearance of one of the most prominent blocks in New York; and the erection of a ten-story apartment hotel on the southeast corner of 5th avenue and 38th street is another step in the rapid process of superseding the brown-stone age of that more than ever important thoroughfare. The speculative purchases on Washington Heights, which characterized the market last spring, are being renewed, and a new syndicate has distinguished its appearance in the field by the purchase of the easterly half of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum's large holdings in the vicinity of Broadway and 165th street. The property contains about 130 lots and has frontages of 727 feet on Broadway, 519 feet on 165th street, and 738 feet on East Washington avenue. The Asylum was asking $500,000 for the property, and received about $440,000. It should be noticed that the Deaf and Dumb Asylum owns additional property in this region, not only to the west, where its modern buildings are situated, but also to the east, and that the Blind Asylum owns a large tract to the north. It is probable that other purchases in this neighborhood will soon follow. Improvements on any considerable extent can scarcely be started until a year from the coming spring.

Centres of Activity.

Of the making of many apartment hotels there is no end. Again they figure more largely in the building news of the week than other single class of improvement. One is to be erected by the Puritan Realty Co., at Nos. 59 to 63 West 44th street, another at 38th street and 5th avenue, another at Gramercy Park, still another on a corner of 31st street and Madison avenue, and the projecting buildings includes a fifth, which will be built on West 57th street. We know of no more extraordinary movement in New York real estate than this sudden popularity of apartment hotels. In the year 1900 plans were recorded for seven buildings classed as hotels, to be erected at an estimated cost of $1,780,000; and these plans exceeded both in number and amount involved those of any previous year. But during the first eleven months of the present year plans have been filed for 35 buildings classed as hotels, to be erected at an estimated cost of $18,552,000. Of these 35 buildings, not more than three are hotels in the ordinary sense. All the rest are intended for the accommodation of people who rent by the year, and who use the apartments so rented as their regular New York residence. It remains to be seen whether the actual demand for this class of accommodation will be sufficient to fill these 32 buildings, which must more than double the existing accommodation of the same class. At any rate, here is a fact for an observer of contemporary Americans habits of life to ponder—that such a large number of people should be found willing to give up the advantages of a home, even in a flat, and take to a mode of life, the chief interest of which must consist in occupations and diversions apart from domestic life. After making every allowance for the causes which obviously contribute to make New York the abiding place of people who prefer a well-dressed and well-mannered Bohemian way of living, this sudden popularity of apartment hotels is hard to explain.

Apartment Hotels Again.

The most important single transaction announced during the week is the purchase, by Dumont Clarke, President of the American Exchange National Bank, of the building of the Queen Fire Insurance Company, on the northwest corner of Cedar and William streets. This building is of modern construction, and is seventeen stories high. It is separated from the extension to the Mutual Life Building on Cedar only by the Stokes Building. These two parcels, together with some old buildings on the southwest corner of Liberty and William, also owned by the Stokes interest, are the only buildings on the block not owned by the Mutual Life; and since it is rumored that these Stokes' buildings have also been sold, it would not be a matter for surprise, in case it were found that the Mutual Life controls the whole block. That company has been so active in acquiring property near its existing building, that its interest in these purchases is a natural supposition.

THE propriety of the request of the Real Estate Board of Brokers, that a real estate man should be included in the Tax Commission, cannot be questioned, and the selection of any one of the gentlemen whose names are submitted by the Board, could not but result in securing a useful public servant, and receiving the approval of the realty world generally. It is unnecessary to point out the value to the Tax Board of a member who has practical and intimate acquaintance with realty values in all parts of the city. His presence on the board would be equally valuable to tax-payers in general, and to the Tax Department.

AN eleventh hour objection has come up to delay the approval of the final map of the section of the Bronx lying east of the Bronx River. This is that it lays out too many 100-ft. streets. On the strength of this objection the Board of Public Improvements have appointed a committee who are to report upon the matter at the meeting of the Board next Wednesday. This committee consists of Comptroller Coler, President Haffen and Commissioners Keating and Dalton, who will doubtless give intelligent attention to the question and deliver an impartial report. It is quite important that there should be no waste of land in laying out the new territory, and consequent unnecessary expense for streets; but it is equally as, and perhaps more, important that the prospective arteries of travel should be adequate and suitable. The engineer who superintended the preparation of the map, Mr. Louis A. Risse, has had great experience in this work, having laid out the whole of the Bronx west of the stream from which the borough takes its name, and since consolidation and the creation of the Topographical Bureau, having had charge of the map making of the whole of the city. He is, therefore, competent and capable of profiting by the mistakes made in the past in similar work. The map has been criticised and discussed by those whose property it affects, for a year or more, so that it cannot be said that there has been any haste in bringing it forward for final adoption. The objection now raised at this late day is one that ought not to be sustained lightly. Not only is it a fact that the narrowness of main and subsidiary arteries of travel in the older portions of the city is a serious obstacle to traffic, but some of the lines of travel in the western section of the Bronx, laid out with comparative recency, are already showing that a mistake was made in making them as narrow as they are. The work our streets have to do is growing so every year, what with the demands of passenger travel and those of a rapidly growing commerce, that had those who laid them out erred on the side of generosity, they would have found ready forgiveness, indeed commendation to-day. It will, doubtless, be urged that the travel and traffic of the section east of the Bronx River cannot be heavy enough to justify the street lines laid down in the new map, but that is just the argument that was used in the past, and that is responsible for the existing inconveniences of transit in the older portions of the city. Nor is it possible to say in advance just where the pressure will be greatest or least, and in all new layouts, allowance should be made for these things.

THE present plans of the Long Island Railroad Company have been definitely announced in the purchase of Nos. 49 and 51 West 33d street, to be used as a station for its prospective tunnel from Long Island City to Manhattan. The attempt to secure a terminus at Longacre Square has not been finally abandoned; but its accomplishment has been postponed. For the present Herald Square will be the terminus, and connection will be made with the Subway, north and south, at 33d street and 4th avenue. The value of a tunnel connection with Long Island at this point is manifest. No bridge is planned nearer than Fifty-ninth street on the north, and the new East River Bridge on the south, so that the proposed tunnel will connect two points, which have been left out in the plans for municipal interborough railroads and bridges. But the great value of this tunnel is that it will be operated in connection with the Long Island Railroad system, and will give, for the first time, the remotest outskirts of Brooklyn and Queens adequate transit facilities with Manhattan. The point which the tunnel terminates in Manhattan is the best point which could be selected under the circumstances. Herald Square will be an extremely convenient point, from which to reach all the important centres of amusement and business in the northern part of the city; and it will be itself one of the most important of those centres. The only additional improvement which would be needed to make it, perhaps, even more important in the future than Longacre Square, would be the building of the North River Bridge, with its proposed terminus near 27th street and 6th avenue; and the energy with which the plans of the Pennsylvania Railroad have been developed so far, affords a presumption that, perhaps, even this stupendous improvement will soon be taken seriously in hand.

IN the hearing before the Common Council during the past week, the counsel for the Vanderbilt Railroad companies emphatically denied that the city has any authority to dictate the kind of power which shall be used in the Park avenue tunnel. It was claimed that such authority rests with the Legislature alone. Whether or not this reading of the contract made between this city and the corporation, in January, 1832, is right, it is obvious that the city should be very slow to exercise any authority it has upon the premises. What is wanted is a thorough investigation at once from the points of view of the railroad, the regular passengers, and the Park avenue property owners, of the traffic conditions in the tunnel, and the best means of improving them; and for the City Council to impose any change upon the New York Central Company in advance of such an investigation might be dangerous, and would almost certainly be entirely useless. It is stated definitely that the company is at the present time employing a corps of the best electrical engineers in the country, and that they are engaged upon the obviously difficult and complicated task of devising some comprehensive and practicable plan of improvement. Until the results of this investigation are concluded, it would be unwise for the city to interfere; but, it must be just as well for the Legislature to authorize an independent investigation in the public interest. It must always be remembered that the problem cannot be considered solved when the discomforts of transit through the present tunnel are relieved. Some provision must also be made for the future growth of traffic; and it is extremely desirable in the interest of those parts of the Bronx and Westchester counties, served by all three railroads, that some direct connection should be made with the southern parts of Manhattan. The tracks of the Subway at 42d street have been so arranged that two of them can be directly connected with the tracks on Park avenue, provided that the grade of these latter tracks is sufficiently lowered. Such a connection is obviously much to the interest of everybody concerned, and unless it could be had only at the expense of some more important improvement, should unquestionably be made. The policy of the city officials and the property owners should be to hasten the adoption of effectual remedies by bringing every possible pressure to bear upon the railroad management; but no definite plan should be insisted upon until it is certain that such a plan is both practicable and adequate.

THE difficulties that some builders have had with the Department of Buildings, because of the lack of a legal definition of an apartment hotel, will be removed, if a resolution introduced into the Council on Tuesday by Mr. Hottenroth is adopted, as it should be. This resolution proposes to amend the Building Code by inserting in Section 10 a paragraph reading as follows: "An Apartment Hotel shall be held to mean and include every building, or part thereof, which shall be intended or designed for or used as the home or residence of families, bachelors, or others, whether occupying single rooms or rooms arranged in suites, but without separate dining-rooms and kitchens, provided such building shall contain a general dining-room for the use of the residents in common, and shall contain more than fifteen sleeping rooms above the first story." The matter was referred to the Council Committee on Law, of which Mr. Hottenroth is chairman, who will give a public hearing on it in the City Hall, next Friday, at 2 p. m. This will afford all interested parties an opportunity to express their views. It is not unfair to remark that, if the late Building Code Commission had accepted this, or a similar definition, which was offered to them and inserted it in their code, instead of taking it for granted that the Commissioner of Buildings would so differentiate without specific instructions, a great deal of trouble and worry would have been saved both to officials and builders.

School Sites and Buildings.

The Board of Education will ask the Board of Estimate and Apportionment for $12,495,200 for school buildings and sites.

The sites recommended to be acquired by the Borough Boards of Manhattan and the Bronx are as follows: Av A and 82d st, Public School 96; Fox, Simpson and 167th sts, Public School 133; Jennings st, Prospect av and Ritter place; Madison st, on east side of Public School 12; Nos. 213-219 E. 109th st, Public School 83; Nos. 219-221 E. 21st st, east side of truant school; No. 210 E. 21st st, Public School 50; No. 34 City Hall place, Public School 162.

The construction, equipment and improvement of school buildings, and the acquisition of school sites, is to be divided as follows:

Manhattan and the Bronx	$6,676,000
Brooklyn	4,122,640
Queens	1,196,560
Richmond	226,000
Total	$12,495,200

Proposed Extension of Delancey St.

Commissioner Shea's proposal for widening and extending Delancey st, to Broome st, was taken up and considered at a meeting of the Bowery Realty and Business Men's Protective Association, convened for that purpose on Monday last. About forty members were present, and letters were received from fifteen who were absent. The discussion was protracted and animated and settled entirely upon the question, whether the Spring-Delancey st route to the New East River Bridge, or the Delancey st and extension route, should be approved. The Record and Guide's map of 16th inst. was used to illustrate the views of the speakers. The association were a unit in favoring a direct appreach, but nearly evenly divided on the alternate direct routes. Finally it was decided by a small majority that the association should favor the Delancey-Spring st route, and the Executive Committee were empowered to employ counsel to appear before the Board of Public Improvements, on the occasion of the public hearing on Commissioner Shea's report, December 18th, and urge the adoption of that route by the board. Of the fifteen letters received, nine were in favor of the route recommended by Commissioner Shea, and six approved the Spring st route, so that it is doubtful whether, if the fifteen members who wrote had been present, that the resolution would have been passed. Another meeting has been called for Monday next, at which the discussion will be reopened.

The Charter and the Builder.

WHERE THE PERMITS, LICENSES AND PRIVILEGES WILL BE OBTAINED—THE BOARD OF APPEAL

To some extent the charter that goes into effect on January 1st will help the builder. By the builder is meant the man who has to get permits for the many things that the law and ordinances will not let him do without official warrant. Most of these things will be obtained in the office of the borough president. It is there, scattered through the several bureaus, the builder will file his plans and get his permits for building, for opening streets, for putting his materials on the streets and so forth.

As we pointed out last week, when building tenements he will have to file his light and ventilation plans with the Tenement House Commissioner, and, as that officer has no certain authority to establish separate divisions of this department in any borough but Brooklyn, it must be taken for granted that tenement builders all over the city will have to go to the Tenement House Department's headquarters, which, of course, will be in Manhattan. The section of the charter relating to this power is Section 1328. It is headed: "Bureaus, divisions of department for Brooklyn, Queens and Richmond," but its text leads one to believe that there can only be one separate division, and that is Brooklyn, having jurisdiction over tenement houses in that borough, and also, in the discretion of the Commissioner over tenement houses in the boroughs of Queens or Richmond or both. There is no mention of the Borough of the Bronx in this section.

The builder will also, still, have to deal with the Health Board under their sanitary code and right of supervision of sewers, etc.; with the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electric Lighting, a new or modified creation, in reference to his water supply and the installation of electric light wires in his building; with the Park Board in the several boroughs regarding curbing, pavings, window projections, etc., within 350 feet of the outer boundaries of any park.

Outside of these variations there is in the charter a commendable attempt to make the supervision of restrictions upon building more suited to its varying characters in the several boroughs; and, while giving the Superintendent of Buildings fair latitude in making his rules and regulations to the requirements of building in his borough, to create a real board of appeal out of existing machinery to which resort can be had within specified limits. The success or efficiency of this board is doubtful, owing to the fact that the limitation on appeals for the first time set up in the present charter is continued in the new charter, that is, that the amount involved in the decision from which appeal is made shall exceed the sum of one thousand dollars.

The new charter continues in force and effect the Building Code and the laws relating to buildings, subject to its own provisions, and authorizes the borough presidents to make rules and regulations, instead of the Commissioner of Buildings as now, and the Superintendent of Buildings, instead of the commissioner as now, is to hear and decide upon petitions for the substitution of one material for another or changes in forms of constructions; and, where the application is refused, or the decision adverse, and such refusal or decision shall involve an amount exceeding one thousand dollars, an appeal may be taken, as now, to the Board of Examiners. This arrangement eliminates the appeal to the board of buildings, which will not exist after December 31st.

An important change is made by the new charter in construction of the Board of Examiners. Now that board consists of the Commissioner of Buildings for the boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx, who is chairman of the board; two representatives of the Mechanics' and Traders' Exchange and one representative each from the Society of Architectural Ironworkers, the Real Estate Owners' and Builders' Association, the New York Board of Fire Underwriters, the New York Chapter of the American Institute of Architects, and the Real Estate Exchange, and the Chief of the New York Fire Department. The board of examiners created by the new charter will be independent of the building departments of the boroughs, as none of the superintendents of buildings will have a seat on it. It will consist of the representatives of the associations named, with the exception of the Real Estate Exchange, which is omitted, and the Chief of the Fire Department. The mayor will annually designate one of the examiners as presiding officer of the board and appoint a clerk to the board at a salary of $1,500 a year.

Thus an independent board of appeal is created, but owing to the limitation put upon appeals, the board are not likely to have much more to do than they have had in the last four years, during which that limitation has existed. This limitation is wrong in principle, because while the change of materials or modification of construction desired may in a single instance not involve an amount exceeding a thousand dollars, or a hundred dollars for that matter, it may be one affecting the whole building trade, and in aggregation involve very many thousands of dollars. The decisions of the board of examiners ought to guide those of the superintendents of buildings, as the decisions of the appellate courts are binding on lower courts; and, therefore, there ought to be no limitation by money value on the right of appeal. The petitions from the outlying boroughs will rarely or never involve an amount so large as a thousand dollars, and not often in Manhattan, but the effects of the decisions upon them may be very far-reaching. The effects of the limitation are, therefore, to bar appeal in a vast majority of cases, and to vary the application of principles according to the individual views of the several superintendents of buildings; whereas, if the appeal was unrestricted, uniformity of application could be obtained and precedents created that would be of great value to the whole building trade. Thus, while an important advance has been made in creating an independent board of appeal, the value and usefulness of that independence are minimized by the limitation put upon the appeals.

Bedford av, No. 193, 5-sty building with stores, on lot 29x100; seller, Heins estate; buyer, Daniel Rosenblum; brokers, Charles Buermann & Co.

An important communication between this borough and Manhattan that was urged for a long time in these columns is about to be supplied. This is the ferry which, it is announced, will commence to run on Monday next, from the foot of Broadway across the East River to 42d st. Two double-decked ferry-boats are to be employed in making frequent trips.

E. P. Smith has sold for Louis Bonert, the builder, four apartment houses, Nos. 945 to 953 President st, near 8th av, each 24x82x95, to a prominent Manhattan broker, for $137,000; and for the latter to Mr. Bonert, 110 lots in 49th and 50th sts, and 16th and 17th avs, for $70,000.

Carl Etzel, architect, died on Sunday at his home, 608 Sterling place, in his sixty-first year. He designed the City Hall at Milwaukee, Wis., various large buildings in Pittsburg and Cleveland, and was at work on the new buildings of the Young Men's Christian Association at New Haven, where his illness occurred. He had only been a resident of Brooklyn for five years.

John De Witt Warner appeared before the Rapid Transit Commission again this week to urge the substitution in the plans for the Brooklyn extension of a four-track for a two-track road. He said he was prepared to prove that four tracks could be laid for about $10,000,000, the sum which W. B. Parsons, the Chief Engineer to the Rapid Transit Railroad Commission, estimated would be approximately required to put down a two-track road.

Wesley C. Bush, for four years at the head of the building department of this borough under its old city administration, has been spoken of as a good man for the head of the new Tenement House Commission. His condidature would certainly be endorsed from this side of the river. Mr. Bush has all the qualities required in the Tenement House Commissioner, being a good administrator, having practically built up the building department here under a new law, and being fully acquainted with the tenement house question from all sides—those of the public, the builder, and the owner. He could be relied upon to run his department and administer the law impartially and with good judgment; nor would there be a question as to any motives underlying his acts being other than those of obedience to the law and faith to the public.

A Real Estate Man For Tax Commissioner.

The Real Estate Board of Brokers have addressed a letter to Mayor-elect Low urging him to select the members of his Tax Board, so far as Manhattan and the Bronx are concerned, from a list of five names which they furnish, as follows: John F. Doyle, William M. Ryan, James L. Wells, Frank R. Houghton and Frederick Southack. It is unnecessary to point out to real estate men what these gentlemen represent in knowledge of the subject a tax commissioner is most concerned with or their standing in the realty world and the community generally, all of which is established and unquestioned.

Rofrano, the new 6-sty tenements Nos. 170-172 Thompson st, for a term of five years, at an aggregate rental of $39,000; for Adler & Herman, two 6-sty tenements corner of 1st av and 104th st, Nos. 2015 and 2017 1st av, for a term of five years, at an aggregate rental of $25,000; and for H. Real Estate Notes.

The Council have approved the running of Union Railway cars over McCombs Dam, or Central Bridge.

The plot at the southwest corner of 5th av and 55th st, recently sold by Lovejoy and Noyes, it appears, will not be improved by its present owners, as the brokers are advertising it for sale.

The permanent map for section 30, east of the Bronx River, was adopted on Wednesday by the Board of Public Improvements. This section is bounded by 207th st, northeast, the Bronx River, 228th st, Olinville av, 208th st, northeast, and Hicks st.

John D. Karst, Jr., real estate and insurance broker, continues business at the old stand, No. 2051 8th av, northwest corner of 111th st. His specialty is renting and collecting. Telephone, 649 Harlem, calls Mr. Karst.

Brokers are complaining about the condition of the Boulevard, and say it is hurting the renting of flats on account of the dust. It is claimed that an insufficient number of men are at work on the section from 59th to 102d st, and that too much of the thoroughfare is opened up at one time.

Alfred T. Skitt, Vice-President of the Manhattan Railway Company, said this week: "We shall begin to move trains by electricity on the Second Avenue Elevated line some time in December. Just at what date the service will be complete I cannot tell. The first engine will be started about the first of the month—next week. When that is broken in, and the engineers say it has come to its bearings, we shall gradually begin to run electric trains." Electric traction on the Third Avenue Elevated line, according to Mr. Skitt, will not be begun for some time to some.

The World of Building

Material Market.

Iron and Steel.—Prices continue strong for all lines of iron and steel, and demand is urgent. According to advices from the west the scarcity of foundry pig iron for immediate delivery is becoming more and more decided, with the result that sellers are demanding and getting premiums of 25c. to 50c. per ton from consumers who need stock at once. Forge iron also is advancing, being now quoted at $14.75@$15.00 Pittsburg. These facts will, of course, reflect on structural steels, though quotations in that line have not been changed yet.

Lumber.—Indications are that the Maine log cut will be large this season, and that prices will also be high. The season on the St. John closes with about 30,000,000 feet of logs stranded in exposed positions, 10,000,000 feet being hung up below Grand Falls, and 20,000,000 above the falls. It is thought that a large amount of poplar will be lost this winter on account of the heavy snowfall on November 14 and 15. This year the snow came before any considerable number of the logs had been piled, and in consequence much of the poplar cut in this part of Maine will remain under snow all winter. The same thing happened last year, when the snow came in November. Poplar logs that have lain over a summer and a winter are not a total loss, as they can be sold for pulp stock, but they are not worth much for lumber.

Business, on the whole, in the lumber market, continues satisfactory, and there is no weakness anywhere shown in prices. Arrivals of white pine are light, and as demand keeps up prices are firm. Receipts of spruce are also light, there being very little eastern stock coming in, while State spruce is practically out of the market. Prices are advancing. Yellow and North Carolina pine have been in fair demand at firm prices. Mahogany and cedar have been firm at unchanged prices. Hemlock is firm, and as the supply on hand is not large, and mills are weeks behind on their orders, an advance at any time would not surprise the trade.

Lath.—Arrivals of eastern spruce lath have been very moderate, and of these a fair percentage have sold previous to arrival. There has been a ready demand for such supplies as have come on offer, and business transacted has been at $3.50. There have been some arrivals of pine lath, which were sold previous to arrival at $3.12½.

Bricks, Lime and Cement.—The market is very strong at $5.75 @$6.25 for common building brick. The moderate supplies are absorbed without difficulty, and advances are predicted. Pale brick are quoted at $3.50@$3.75, and hollow brick at $6.00@$7.00 per M. Business in lime is of fair volume, and values are steady. Both Rosendale and Portland cement were reported as meeting with a steady demand, and prices are unchanged.

Nails.—There is a constant demand for wire nails, and orders are mainly for small lots, owing to the uncertainty felt by buyers regarding the future of the market. Prices are not uniform over the entire country, owing to competition, but regular prices are adhered to as closely as possible by the largest producers. In the New York market there is more or less irregularity. Small lots from store are quoted at $2.35 to $2.40 per keg. The market for cut nails continues firm, and there is a fair demand considering the season. Small lots from store, New York, are quoted at $2.20 to $2.25 per keg.

Plumbers' Supplies.—The indications point to a squeeze in November pig tin, and it is evident that the Board of Managers of the Metal Exchange take that view of the situation, as at a special meeting this week they resolved not to post quotations on November delivery. There is said to be stock in store, and there have arrived within a few days some 535 tons. Present prices are held to be artificial, and it is believed they will last but a few days longer. The developments of the past week in the stock market have re-awakened the feeling of uncertainty as to the immediate future of copper, which had been lulled by the failure of the leading interests to do what trade conditions here and abroad seemed to indicate as their only course. With the slump in copper shares, the rumors that prices on the metal have been or are to be reduced, have again been put into circulation. While the trade seems to take little stock in these reports, because similar statements from the same source have been disproved by events, they are not entirely discredited. The official quotations remain 16.85@17c. for Lake Superior, 16⅝@16⅝ for electrolytic and 15⅝@16⅝c. for casting. The meeting of the Smelting and Refining Company with the producers, for the purpose of fixing prices on pig lead for 1902, was held this week, but so far as could be learned, no action affecting prices was taken. It is generally believed, however, that a lower basis of prices will be established, as conditions here and abroad do not warrant the maintenance of present figures. American pig in small lots is quoted at 4.62½c. to 4¾c. per lb. Nothing that is new can be reported in connection with tin plate, except that deliveries from mills are coming in more freely, although hardly in sufficient volume as yet to satisfy the demands of consumers. A scarcity still exists of certain kinds of black plates, for which a heavy demand is experienced by jobbers. Receipts from the mills are absorbed as quickly as they arrive. There is quite a heavy demand for galvanized sheets, and the market is relatively stronger for this class of material than for black sheets. On the latter, jobbers' prices are about 10c. per 100 lbs. lower, and No. 27 is quoted in small lots at about 4.05c. to 4.10c. Galvanized sheets rule 65 per cent. to 67½ per cent. off the list.

The feature of Friday's copper market was the news of the sharp decline in London, accompanied by heavy selling, said to come from the Amalgamated Co. The weakness is attributed mainly to the character of the information sent out from here concerning the position of the leading producing interests and to the apparent lack of confidence in the future of the metal. The decline in spot prices in the English market amounted to 16s. 3d.—$3.90.

Paints and Colors.—The market is very quiet, especially for colors in oil. The fall season has practically closed, and orders for spring delivery will not come into the market until January 15. Local dealers announce no changes in quotations. There has been an increased demand during the week for lead in oil for immediate delivery to finish up work under way, but a change in weather conditions may come at any moment, and thus materially curtail the consumption of lead products. There is no abatement in the demand for zinc from the home trade, who are drawing freely on their contracts for this year's delivery. Prices for 1902 contracts have not yet been announced, and probably will not be until it is known what the price of pig lead will be for next year.

Linseed Oil.—According to general expectations, there has been a reduction in the price of linseed oil, bringing the rate to 50c. per gallon in five-barrel lots for out-of-town oil. The National Lead Co., which usually sells its oil a degree higher than the other companies, has announced a reduction from 60c. to 55c. per gallon for city oil. These reductions, however, it is asserted, are not the result of a rate war, but are the outgrowth of natural causes, such as the decrease in the price of flaxseed and the increase in the production of oil, which makes it possible to supply customers without any difficulty.

Glass.—The cut in window glass, made in Chicago last week, has not had the stimulating effect on the market that was expected, and trade continues very quiet. Consumers stocks are generally low, but the demand is slight. Another movement is announced, whereby the existing conditions of the glass market may be improved. The combine will make a final effort to control the independents, which constitute 25 per cent. of the industry. The manufacturers claim that present prices are close to the cost of manufacture. Jobbers vary somewhat as to the extent of the decline in plate glass, but agree that it is fully 10 per cent.

Of Interest to the Building Trades.

"Nothing to say yet," said President-elect Cantor yesterday.

The contract for 45,000 pounds of lead in oil for the new Brooklyn Bridge was awarded to a dealer at 5.63 cts., to be delivered up to November, 1902.

The lowest bidder for the new cadet quarters at the Naval Academy, Annapolis, was Noel & Thomas, of Baltimore, at $2,448,000.

Fred. Hollendeck, 57 years old, a retired builder, considered well-to-do, committed suicide Sunday in his home at 161st st and Gerard av, by hanging himself. His family could assign no reason for it.

The old buildings at Nos. 211 to 219 West 23d st, running through to Nos. 204 to 212 West 24th st, are now being demolished to make way for the new building to be erected by the Young Men's Christian Association. Parish & Schroeder, No. 3 West 29th st, are the architects.

The trouble between the Amalgamated and Brotherhood societies of journeymen caused an almost total suspension of work on the Ansonia Hotel. The plumbers were working steadily, but enough trades or parts of trades were called out in sympathy to about stop the interior work.

Harde & Short, architects, have received a silver medal for their exhibit at the Pan-American Exposition. Owing to the interest centred in the tenement house question here, Harde & Short propose to exhibit their plans and models on their return from Buffalo at their offices, Nos 3 and 5 West 29th st.

The use of stained, leaded and metallic glass for decorative and other purposes is meeting with great favor, owing to the fine effects it is possible to produce. An expert in this line is Richard N. Spiers, of No. 859 6th av, a long-established and an experienced worker, who numbers among his customers many prominent New Yorkers. Mr. Spiers also deals in window glass, etc.

The Builders' League will hold their annual dinner December 14th, when a fine meal will be served, and an interesting programme of songs, speeches, etc., will be carried out. Senator Trainor, Assemblymen Seymour and Costello, Borough President-elect Cantor, and other popular and able public men have been invited. The occasion, like its predecessors, will assuredly bring out much that is amusing, and also much that it is useful for members of the League to know.

Trade with the plumbers still continues brisk. Byrne & Murphy are doing the plumbing in a large factory on 29th st, west of 11th av, for the Nassau Smelting Works, and in a loft building at 16th st and 7th av. C. Hensle has apartments on 113th st, near Lenox av; J. J. Fleming an 8-sty apartment at Manhattan av and 111th st; Smith & Roffen an apartment on 109th st, near Amsterdam av; and J. W. Cooney a residence at 19 West 55th st, and a 10-sty apartment at 63d st and Madison av, for the Fuller Construction Company. Jackson & Griffin are at work on a tenement at 211 East Broadway, John Frick has an apartment at 221 West 107th st, and J. C. Wexted a tenement at 48-50 James st.

The Paint, Oil and Varnish Club held their seventy-eighth meeting Thursday evening, preceded by a banquet in the rooms of the Drug Club, at No. 100 William street. In the absence of President John Dohse, who is out of town, J. M. Peters, the vice-president of the club, presided. United States Commissioner S. M. Hitchcock delivered an address upon the "Defects of the Present Bankruptcy Law." He devoted his attention entirely to the proposed Ray amendments, favoring their passage by Congress. A motion was made and adopted that the Legislative Committee be empowered to act in conjunction with the National Paint, Oil and Varnish Association, or through the National Association of Referees, or independently, as they might determine to be the most effectual procedure.

THAT EASY MOVEMENT.

In that marvelous group of high buildings which has been raised with unprecedented energy in New York in recent years, including the Manhattan Life, Bowling Green, American Surety, Standard Oil, Bank of Commerce, Exchange Court, Manhattan Hotel, etc., etc., the Bommer Spring Hinge is everywhere used. Bommer Spring Hinges have become famous for that easy movement; it is their peculiarity. They do their work calmly; no afterclaps. "Practically unbreakable," says the World's Fair award, Chicago, 1893. Gold medal awarded International Exposition, Paris, 1900. Gold medal awarded Pan-American Exposition, Buffalo, 1901. Live dealers in builders' hardware carry Bommer Spring Hinges in stock. They are manufactured by Bommer Brothers, 257 to 271 Classon av, Brooklyn, N. Y.

The Debt Limit—A Suggestion.

President of the Tax Board Thomas L. Feitner makes this suggestion for relieving the situation created by the constitutional debt limit:-"Amend the constitution, which now provides that the debt of counties, villages, towns and cities in the state shall not exceed 10% of the value of their real estate subject to taxation, so that the valuation for the purpose of ascertaining the debt limit shall include the exempt real estate owned by the counties, villages, towns and cities. In New York the city owns, according to our last report, property valued at $358,109,500. If this were included in the valuation it would immediately give the city additional authority to issue bonds to the extent of $35,810,950, which would, I think, go a long way in providing for public improvements, and possibly relieve it from its present difficulties. Understand, that I throw this out as a suggestion simply, not having examined it in its details."

The West End Association.

The regular monthly meeting of the West End Association will be held at its rooms, Hotel Endicott, on Monday evening next, at 8 o'clock, and a full attendance is desired.

The Nominating Committee appointed at the November meeting has named the following ticket for officers for the year 1902, which will be voted on at this meeting: President, Cyrus Clark; Vice-Presidents, James Van Dyck Card, John C. Coleman, James J. Phelan; Treasurer, J. Edgar Leaycraft; Secretary, George B. Sheppard.

George S. Lespinasse has accepted an invitation to address the meeting on the subject of "Paris and New York."

Questions and Answers.

We must remind our correspondents that we cannot answer anonymous communications. Readers must also remember that communications to us cannot invariably be answered the week they are received.

TAXES—MORTGAGE.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

To settle a dispute, please state how long are taxes on city property allowed to run before being sold for taxes? (2) If a man has an option on a piece of property with no suitable deposit on it, may he apply for a loan on said property on his own bond? Will a consideration of $1.00 permit him to do so?

Answer.—(1) Three years. (2) Yes.—Law Editor.

EXTENSION OF MORTGAGE.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

A few years ago I executed a bond and mortgage which is now past due, and the mortgagee has just made an assignment of the mortgage to another party, and this new owner of the mortgage has made an extension of the mortgage for three years to the present owner of the property, to whom I sold the house a couple of years ago. Does this extension of the mortgage to the present owner release me from the bond?

Answer.—Yes.—Law Editor.

COMMISSION ON SALE OF BUSINESS.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

I engage an agent to sell my business. I also engage another agent for the same purpose. To-day one agent brings me a customer who is willing to pay my price, etc., and the bargain is closed, and to-morrow the other agent also brings me a customer who is willing to pay my price, etc. (1) Is the second agent entitled to a commission? (2) Have agents a right to demand that I make a written contract with them?

Answer.—(1) No. (2) Yes.—Law Editor.

OCCUPATION OF REAR OF STORES.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

I have been told that in the new tenement house law, that I believe takes effect the 1st of January, there is a clause to the effect that after that date no one will be allowed to live in the rear of stores.

Answer.—No such prohibition is contained in the Tenement House Act, which, by the way, is now in effect, but of course its requirements relating to living and sleeping-rooms apply to all such rooms, whether located in the rear of a store or as part of an apartment or an upper floor.—Editor Record and Guide.

LIMITATION—ADVERSE POSSESSION.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Will you kindly inform me in regard to the following? I have given permission to my neighbor, with whom I am on very friendly terms, to run a hedge from his property over a small part of my property, and also to build a pavilion, part of which extends over the border dividing our properties into my property. This was simply an amicable agreement, and not made out in writing. Now, I have heard a vague story that there is a law in the State of New York which gives my neighbor the right of possession of the ground occupied but belonging to me after a certain number of years have passed, during which he used the ground without any interference from me. Will you kindly inform me if this is a fact, as I consider it a nonsensical story?

Answer.—Mere possession of the property by your neighbor will never give him the title to it, but still you run a risk if you allow him to retain possession of the property without a written agreement. Twenty years' adverse possession of real property may constitute a valid defense to an action by the owner of the fee to recover possession from the party who has held adversely that length of time.—Law Editor.

CONVEYANCES.

Whenever the letters Q. C., C. a. G. and B. & S. occur, preceded by the name of the grantee they mean as follows:

1st.—Q. C is an abbreviation for Quit Claim deed, i. e., a deed wherein all the right, title and interest of the grantor is conveyed, omitting all covenants or warranty.

2d.—C. a. G. means a deed containing a Covenant against Grantor only, in which he covenants that he hath not done any act whereby the estate conveyed can be impeached, charged or encumbered.

3d.—B. & S. is an abbreviation for Bargain and Sale deed, wherein, although the seller makes no express covenants, he really grants or conveys the property for a valuable consideration, and thus impliedly claims to be the owner of it. The street and avenue numbers given in these lists are, in all cases, taken from the Insurance maps when they are not mentioned in the deeds. The numbers, it will occasionally be found, do not correspond with the existing ones, owing to their having been no official designation made of them by the Department of Public Works.

4th.—The first date is the date the deed was drawn. The second date is the date of filing same. When both dates are the same, only one is given.

5th.—The figures in each conveyance, thus, 2:482, denote that the property is in section 2 block 482.

6th.—It should also be noted in section and block numbers, the instrument as filed is strictly followed.

7th.—The letters R. S. mean Revenue Stamp, as R. S. $8.00 means Revenue Stamp $8.00.

Tax on Conveyances executed prior to July 1st, 1901, on $100 to $500, 50c., and for each additional $500 or fraction thereof, 50c.; on Conveyances executed on and after July 1st, 1901, 25c., where consideration exceeds $2,500 and is not more than $3,000, and 25c. for each additional $500 or fraction thereof.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as head lines are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date.

The first date is the date the mortgage is drawn, the second the date of filing; when both dates are the same, only one is given.

Subscribers will find Mortgages in this list with the wrong block number attached. The block number we give is taken from the instrument as filed.

Mortgages against Bronx property will be found altogether at the foot of this list.

November 22, 23, 25, 26 and 27.
